ANN ARBOR STUDENTS.

They Hold Fast Back to their Respective Hometowns.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 29, 1897.

To the Editor:

It would, perhaps, not be uninteresting to some readers of the News to hear some news from their friends at Ann Arbor, several of whom are now on the point of graduation.

There has already appeared, in your paper an article regarding the appointments of Messrs. Brown, Wesley and Bailey to the B. Y. A. at Provo and L. D. S. college at Salt Lake City, and should they be put in their proper places they will be able to render valuable aid to the literary studies of students in those institutions.

Mr. H. N. Hays and Grant Begley, who graduate in the law department, have just been admitted to the bar, and will be able to render valuable aid to their profession, and will be able to render valuable aid to their profession, and will be able to render valuable aid to their profession.

Our numbers are not confined alone to the literary and law departments, but Mr. Koster has, with extraordinary ability, kept up his work in the dental department and now returns to the department with his degree. Mr. Koster intends to resume his practice at home.

Messrs. Partridge and Waghman have maintained a position in the ranks of the musical students which is hardly less than the highest. They have been successful in their efforts to be quite popular among the orchestra men and as a baritone singer has a bright future. He is expected to obtain a contract with much credit to himself. The amount of work done as a piano student by Mr. Partridge has become proverbial among the musical students.

Joseph Erickson, Henry Lund and Einarson, however, will remain here during the summer to resume their work in the law department next fall.

Juliette Notes.

The dollar has been added to the Juliette fund by Julius Stern & Co. of New York.

The committee on floats and parades have had the float now constructed and under way.

Kane county will not have a float, but has donated the appropriation of $1500 to the general fund. A check for $1500 was received by the county clerk, and the amount representing the sum subscribed by citizens.

The Carbon county band of eighteen uniformed players is expected to represent Carbon county in the parade.

The California Rhapsody quartette of San Luis Obispo county, California, has written to Secretary B. K. K. asking for an engagement during Juliette week.

Arthur Chasley, now at Provo, writes to Secretary B. K. K. that $1,000 is offered for the best team and $200 for the second best in a cowboys' race.

Reintroduced by the Utah Title Insurance and Trust company.
