

POLITICAL MATTERS.

chairman of the City Committee on the Citizens' Movement.

THE DEMOCRATS DON'T LIKE IT

And Are Preparing to Call Primaries.—
John Morris Says the Liberals
Will Win Again.

It was rumored this morning that the Democratic city committee would go right on with their political work entirely disregarding the action taken by the citizens' committee in their preparations for the coming monogram campaign. Acting on this information the following interview is published:

A. News representative met A. T. Schaeffer, chairman of the Democratic city committee today and ventured to ask: "What do you think of the citizens' movement?"

The answer came with characteristic promptness: "I am heartily in favor of fair-played object and justly-decreed demands." He paused musingly.

"Why?" queried the reporter.

"Because I do not believe that the 200 people of this city ever assigned themselves or committee of individuals to the task of carrying out little more difficult in themselves than in the self-contracted committee composed of the officers of large, money corporations and their friends."

"Are you speaking of the citizens' committee?"

"Yes, the citizens' committee will the Democratic committee do in the promises?"

"It will simply do its duty toward the people. We have practically deserted in '93 at once. Democratic principles are not only dead, but the Democratic party will then make for themselves, whether or not they want a straight Democratic ticket and if they desire that they want an independent, non-partisan ticket. They will then determine whether they will submit to the suggestion of five men as to their policies or whether they may have something to say concerning the men they will vote for. I believe that the most important thing is that they are now free from the control of the citizens' committee which has been in the city for two months, while in no other city in the state have the citizens' committee been so successful in their efforts to influence the public mind."

Joseph Lippman and a man named Morris have not yet made much success in their efforts to influence the city departments to work in the interest of the citizens' committee. The reason they are here and cannot be trusted, and further that they will insist upon maintaining their own City Council's seat, even though they may not have all the votes with other candidates.

It is my judgment that the Democratic will a non-partisan ticket they would convince everybody who wants that kind of a ticket to meet with them and participate in the election. These are my personal views only."

WHERE WILL DR. W. LIBERAL TICKET.

Jesse Stans, the greatest genius of the Liberal's committee, located where the opposition from his simple-minded friends has been fiercest and longest waged, makes the statement proposed by the newspaperman to Mr. Schaeffer.

After naming himself to be a straight Liberal candidate for mayor, there is no doubt about it at all."

"You don't propose to support the citizens' movement then?" queried the reporter.

"I can't say that I don't quote that way. I say there will be a Liberal ticket in the field."

When so you propose to commence active political work?"

"I will go away. Money in excess of a little local campaign will be the order with us."

"You are not holding back then for the purpose of getting the enemy in their hands?"

"To this he merely smiled and shook his head as he gave a brief reply. He subsequently added: "We are not afraid of any party of all sorts combined. We are ONLY the only party."

"You can't mean by that that you can't win at the first election?"

"No, I do not. But we are sure of victory in three of them and will come out of the fight with the greatest ticket ever."

When asked if the present do you change First Street and Main, Dr. W. said: "I didn't say that either. And I say, we will come out triumphant in '93."

"Are you confident of that?"

"I am very confident of that."

"Don't you think the conduct of your administration has been good in the city to materially reduce your voting force?"

"Yes, I think. The experiments of the city's cash by our party has prevented the establishment of new houses in this city as in Denver."

"When do you anticipate calling your primaries?"

"As far as I know, there are four and we're in favor of a short, sharp and effective fight, and therefore will not call primaries for some time. When the smoke of battle has cleared away, then we'll call them."

"Do you expect any trouble in that way? There are some real men at the head of it. It is an astonishing fact to me that upon us as Party in Whiteman, who hold the Liberal party, fought the Citizens' movement, and that men may ever advance the Liberal cause, now dead than their party, parties and somehow mingle with their old Liberal friends, who are associates. I never expected, understand it all, that our friends would be so easily satisfied with Mr. Williams who are promoting themselves now and who have likewise surrendered completely their political affiliation to advance the city's good, are these not?"

"Who are they?" queried Mr. Morris.

"Others, Mechanics and Dandy, organized the report."

"It was not reported, but I'm responsible of the Liberal leaders. Mr. McCallum has 4,000,000,000 a Republican candidate, and he has been a Republican for a couple of elections past and of course not Mr. Daily voted a Republican."

More than this Mr. Morris did not wish to state regarding the political acts and movements of those gentlemen and a few minutes later he was invited to continue conversation with Judge Powers.
