

PREST. TAFT NOT SATISFIED

With Prospect of Supposed Agreement of Senate and House Tariff Conferees.

FIGHT GETTING VERY BITTER

Reiterated at Capitol That Hides Have Been Traded for Lumber.

Pot Is Boiling Hard, Senators Clasp And Nelson and Rep. Tawney Stirring It Vigorously.

Washington, July 28.—Congressional visitors to the White House today reported that President Taft is not satisfied with the prospect of the supposed agreement of the senate and house tariff conferees as announced last night.

HIDES FOR LUMBER

That hides have been traded for lumber in the preparation of the report on the tariff bill was reiterated about the Capitol today in connection with the report that the tariff conferees had agreed to the retention of the senate rate of $150 per thousand on rough lumber. When the conferees met today they took up the glove schedule, but the action was largely perfunctory as it was agreed yesterday that the house increases should prevail. In both houses around the conference room and even in the minds of the conferees the lumber question was much more pertinent than the glove question.

POT BOILING HARD.

Meantime the pot was boiling along the northwest border. Senators Nelson and Clapp in one end of the building and Representative Tawney in the other were stirring it. They as well as many other senators and representatives were quite incensed over the change that had been made and many assertions were heard that no report of a higher rate on lumber than the house had fixed could be adopted by the house.

It was believed to be different in the senate. The low lumber men in the senate generally had been among the insurgents who had voted against the bill originally and they were hopeless of preventing the adoption of the conference report in that body.

Counting nine insurgents who would vote against the conference report on general principles and whose opposition had been intensified by the decision in favor of higher lumber, the hide men said they would have 18 Republican votes against the conference report if it favored free hides. The "insurgents," failing to count upon the free hide opponents, say their only hope is in the house and the low lumber men were pressing vigorously as willing to accept the responsibility of defeating the bill if the $150 rate on lumber stands.

They, however, do not believe that it will stand. Some of the house conferees have already weakened and the low lumber men believe they will have strength enough to cause the re-opening of the question and to bring about a reduction in the rate.

The low lumber advocates assert that when the president assented to a higher rate on lumber he was not in possession of all the facts. "Since the conference of last night he knows better," say some of them.

It was reported last night that a rate of $150 had been agreed on but members of the house conference committee and other representatives hurried to the White House to say that with the president's help they would stand out for the lower figure.

PRESIDENT'S POSITION CLEAR.

The president also made his position clear on the glove schedule. The house raised the rates on the better class of gloves far above the Dingley bill figure. The excuse for this was that a strong effort was being made in the country to build up a glove industry. The senate cut the house rates materially and in this instance the president finds himself on the side of the senate.

SALLIE FISHER VERY ILL IN CHICAGO

Chicago, July 28.—Miss Sallie Fisher, the comic opera star, is seriously ill at the Brevort hotel. Her physician has diagnosed the case as acute ptomaine poisoning. The trouble is credited to canned sardines eaten Saturday night at rehearsal. Miss Fisher was taken ill on Sunday. Monday she became delirious and for many hours her life was in danger, but yesterday her condition was considerably improved.

Miss Fisher's numerous friends in Salt Lake City will regret this disturbance with keen anxiety. Few Utah singers who have made their mark in the east have been more popular than Miss Fisher. She has been making a mountain of late years has mounted a steadily increasing list of admirers. Her most recent hit was in the part of the "Stubborn Cinderella," in which she sang the leading part, with Jack Barlow as the opposite role. Her earliest success was made in Salt Lake as a member of the local opera company.

SENATOR STONE FIGHTING MAD

Made to Ride in the Black Maria With a Negro Through Streets of Baltimore.

WAITER ON TRAIN THE CAUSE.

Pullman Porter Butted in and Had the Senator Arrested for Assault.

Washington, July 28.—Senator Stone was fighting mad when he reached Washington from Baltimore this morning after his encounter with a negro waiter on the Pennsylvania railroad. He remarked that "the Pennsylvania railroad would have some tall explaining to do."

"I told the negro who waited on me to bring me a lamb chop and some boiled eggs, and then I called him back and ordered him to bring me a drink of Scotch whisky and a large tumbler full of water."

"He brought the whisky in a small glass, and with it he brought another small glass containing some water. I called him back and told him to bring me a large glass of water. I spoke sharply to him. He came back in a little while with a large glass and a chunk of ice in it, but no water."

With its little flags flying the outfit was driven into this city from the mouth of Parley's canyon yesterday morning, completing a journey which lasted from April until yesterday and covering a trifle over 8,000 miles.

HARRY THAW ON WITNESS STAND

Believes Jury in Acquitting Him Was Influenced by Belief That White Deserved His Fate.

HE ANSWERED VERY WELL

Was Not Willing That District Attorney Should Call His Wife to Rebut Certain Statement.

White Plains, N. Y., July 28.—Harry K. Thaw took the witness stand today for re-examination in the proceedings which he has instituted in the effort to secure his release from the Matteawan asylum for the criminal insane.

Thaw turned to kiss his aged mother as he strode proudly to the stand. Then he settled back in the witness chair and in a low, but steady voice began his first statement.

"I believe," he said, "that in acquitting me the jury was largely influenced by the belief that Stanford White deserved his fate."

"Another reason I was acquitted," he continued, "was, I believe, because the jury on both sides told the jury that my act was caused by certain delusions."

Then Dist. Atty. Jerome began: "You are a gentleman and an educated man?" he asked.

"You believe that a gentleman should defend his honor?"

"Yes. If you committed an act in the defense of your honor would you consider yourself justified in committing perjury to escape the consequences of your act?"

"No," replied Thaw, shaking his head.

The district attorney abandoned this attack and spoke of hypnotism.

"Did you ever take lessons of hypnotism?"

"They could hardly be called lessons," said Thaw, smiling.

"I talked with one or two times," said Thaw, "but I never learned anything from them."

SERIOUS RIOT AT GUADALAJARA

Ten Persons Killed and Many Wounded in Charges Made by Mexican Cavalry.

THOUSAND PUT IN PRISON.

Political Rivalry Between Followers of Diaz and Reyes Cause Of Trouble.

El Paso, Tex., July 27.—One thousand people were thrown into prison, at least 10 were killed and many wounded in charges made by Mexican cavalry, according to W. J. Bissell of Philadelphia.

Kan., who arrived here tonight from Guadalajara, Mexico, the scene of riots Saturday and Sunday. Bissell was in the Plaza de Armas and the theater. They had shot a path to the other side of the hotel with rocks.

His story of the uprising follows: "Saturday morning 16 Corral and Diaz speakers came to Guadalajara to hold a meeting. They went to the Plaza de Armas and the theater. They drove them to the Garcia hotel and broke out the windows in the south side of the hotel with rocks."

"Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Corral-Diaz speakers planned to hold a meeting in the Delgado theater."

"The Revistas went down there and erected a small barricade between the Plaza de Armas and the theater. They tore up cobblestones and piled furniture across the gap."

"In a little while two squadrons of cavalry came charging up. I hid behind a stone pillar."

"The cavalry swept over the barricade, shooting into the crowd of about 500 or 600 people behind it, and after they had shot a path to the other side, made a return charge with drawn sabers, slashing all who came in their way. The Revistas returned the fire, but with little effect."

"I believe several were killed at this place, about 40 wounded and about 200 arrested."

"No meeting was held in the Delgado theater."

"Sunday afternoon at 2:30, when I was at the Hotel Garcia, a mob of between 2,500 and 3,000 came upon the place from three sides. They were all shouting 'Death to Diaz' and 'viva Corral, viva Reyes.' Some of them were armed."

"They sacked the barber shop and started in the main entrance of the hotel."

"Two Americans in an upper balcony opened fire, and another joined them from a room. A little English girl about 16 years old got a six-shooter from somewhere and began to fire into the crowd. I saw three men killed near the hotel entrance."

"Two Americans were injured. There were about 25 foreigners in the hotel."

"Finally the cavalry arrived and dispersed the mob. Practically every window in the hotel was broken. Small detachments of cavalry hunted down flying groups of the Revistas, and there were several hundred herded up near the hotel. I believe they must have arrested 1,000 men. The Corral-Diaz men were escorted to the train under guard of a detachment of cavalry, and infantrymen were put on the train to protect them from violence."

"I left on the same train. The speakers, in a special car, went to Mexico City."

"I saw several bodies in the streets, and many were wounded in the cavalry charge."

HIGGS' BISHOP SPEAKS PLAINLY

Says if Charges Are on Investigation Proven True Action Will Follow.

WILL BE CUT OFF CHURCH.

Vigorously Denies That He Had Anything to Do With the Purported Illegal Marriage.

Bishop Joseph Christensen of the Tenth ward when seen this morning was emphatic in his sentiments regarding the alleged actions of his counselor, Alpha J. Higgs, who is accused of having married another wife and deserting his wife and family.

"It is hardly good taste on my part to discuss the affair when it is taken into consideration that the case is now up before me," he said in answer to questions. "We are investigating the case now, and if the charges prove to be true, the accused will be stripped of all his rights in the priesthood and will be cut off the Church."

"Where is Alpha J. Higgs now?" was the next question.

"I wish I knew. I do not know and if anybody does, he is keeping it to himself."

Bishop Christensen, when told that somebody had started the rumor that he had performed the alleged unlawful ceremony, grew distinctly indignant.

"It is a diabolical falsehood," he exclaimed, "and those who make that statement are telling an untruth. Anybody who knows me knows my sentiments regarding the violation of the law of the land and the Manifesto issued by President Woodruff. I never had anything to do with the alleged marriage."

THE KING OF WAIOTU.

Uncle Sam's Claims on His Behalf Thrown Out of Court.

Victoria, B. C., July 28.—The steamer Marana, which arrived last night, brings news from New Zealand that a claim made by the United States government for lands in Auckland province valued at $2,500,000 on behalf of William Webster, a deserter from a whaler over a half century ago, who is known in Auckland as "The King of Waiotu," has been thrown out of court.

Webster, who was last heard of at San Francisco, was dispossessed of the lands by Gov. Hobson in 1841 and he sent a claim from San Francisco. His heirs have since made a claim for $2,500,000 through the Washington government.

His claim was rejected by the government to investigate and reported unfavorably.

A THIEVING PHILOSOPHER HELD TO GRAND JURY

Chicago, July 28.—"Every man has a divine right to live. If he gets out of money and tries honestly to get work and can't, he has the right to appropriate some one else's goods to buy food with which to live."

Such was the defense of George Williams, self-styled philosopher and psychologist, when arraigned yesterday before Municipal Judge Newcomer on four charges of stealing plumbers tools valued at $150.

"Are you guilty?" asked the court.

"I took the stuff," replied Williams, "but I am not guilty of larceny. There was another man who was in the same condition mentally and financially as I was. It was steal or starve, and we decided it was no man's duty to starve."

His unique defense proved unavailing and he was held to await the action of the grand jury.

SUPT. THOMAS WILL BE ASKED TO RESIGN

Governor Spry Receives Report of Special Committee on Industrial School Scandal.

Gov. William Spry received the report of the special committee this morning in regard to the investigation into the conduct and management of H. H. Thomas, superintendent of the Industrial School for the Deaf.

The committee was not made public until after Gov. Spry has had time to read the report and the recommendation of the committee.

It is understood that Mr. Thomas is censured mildly for several acts which were brought out in the investigation and that the committee recommends that an educator be placed at the head of the institution. As near as can be learned, Mr. Thomas will probably be asked to resign in the course of two months. From another source of information, it is stated that E. C. Gowans of the Salt Lake Juvenile court has been spoken of as a probable candidate for the superintendency of the institution.

WESTERN FEDERATION OF MINERS SENDS MONEY

New York, July 28.—The United Federation of Miners, who have been on strike for several months, have just received $5,000 from the Western Federation of Miners, it being the first installment of an assessment of 25 cents levied by the federation on each of its 40,000 members in aid of the strike.

At a special meeting of the national executive committee, the United Federation of Miners resolved to keep up the strike against the Associated Hat Manufacturers. Officers of the union announced that as much more than half the strikers had gained their demands and had returned to work, each member at work would be assessed a certain proportion of his wages to support the unemployed. This will enable the strike committee to maintain the weekly strike benefits to those now on strike of $5 to married men and $3 to single men.

MARTIAL LAW RULES IN SPAIN

King Alfonso Issues Decree Proclaiming it and Suspending Constitutional Guarantees.

IT IS MOB LAW IN BARCELONA

Situation There Exceedingly Grave—Disorders Reported in Other Towns—Agitation Is Spreading.

Madrid, July 28.—King Alfonso this afternoon issued a decree proclaiming martial law and the suspension of constitutional guarantees throughout Spain.

The king's proclamation of martial law followed his arrival from San Sebastian this morning, from which point he had been summoned by Premier Maura. The official dispatches of the night had continued to show an alarming condition of affairs in Barcelona and neighboring towns in Catalonia.

A special meeting of the cabinet was summoned.

The situation in the disturbed districts, as well as the critical condition of the Spanish military forces in Morocco was fully discussed. The result of the cabinet was the issuance of the king's decree proclaiming martial law and the suspension of all constitutional guarantees.

The latest reports from Barcelona show the condition there increasingly grave. The rioters have attacked the convent of the little Sisters of the Poor. This followed the riotous disorders when the mob attacked and burned several of the religious establishments.

New disorders are now reported from two other interior points, Alfoi and Rioja. This shows that the zone of popular agitation is spreading beyond the turbulent Catalonians and is effecting the Valencians.

The minister of the interior is besieged with inquiries as to the war outbreaks but he declines to make public the details of the disorders in the Valencian towns. He has announced, however, that the government would adopt the most stringent measures of repression with a view of giving an example to the turbulent element.

PEOPLE GREATLY EXCITED.

Barcelona, July 27 (delayed in transmission).—The Almanca regiment arrived from Tarragona at 4 o'clock this afternoon to reinforce the garrison here. The military authorities have closed the "house of the people," which was the headquarters of the rioters. No newspapers were published here today. The city is quieter but the people are intensely excited.

AT MERCY OF MOB.

Madrid, July 28.—The latest official reports from Barcelona indicate that the city is almost at the mercy of the mob.

The notorious anarchists, Cardenal and Herreros are reported as being accompanied by incendiaries. The content of the reports was taken by assault and the church of St. Paul and the congregational schools of St. Antonio were burned. The captain general and his staff were fired upon as they were riding through the boulevard Parello.

Bands of strikers were dispatched from Barcelona to the surrounding country to destroy the railroad with the object of preventing arrival of troops to reinforce the Barcelona garrison. The troops from Valencia were forced to disembark at Vendrell, 17 miles from the Aragona, from where they drove the strikers before them.

J. H. STUART COMMITS SUICIDE.

Everett, Wash., July 28.—John H. Stuart, secretary of the James Hazen Hyde when the latter was president of the Equitable Life Society, committed suicide yesterday a short distance from his cabin near Mukilteo by shooting himself in the body and head.

POVERTY PROBABLY CAUSED HIS SUICIDE

New York, July 28.—Benjamin Nittinger, who was found dead with a bullet in his brain in Newark, N. J., on Sunday night, the eve of his marriage, is now believed by the police to have committed suicide instead of having been murdered. The young woman to whom he was engaged declared that he had represented himself as being wealthy and that immediately after the wedding ceremony he was to have taken her to a $10,000 home which he said he had provided at Elizabeth, N. J.

The police have learned that Nittinger was a machinist earning less than $15 a week, and that instead of being wealthy, he had had a hard time to support himself. He had told a friend that unless he made a very important move in the meantime a sensational disclosure would occur immediately after the marriage, a disclosure which he said would compel him to leave the vicinity.

LONGSHOREMEN TREAT SUFFRAGETTES AS LADIES

New York, July 28.—The band of enthusiastic suffragettes who have met hostility and ruffianism at most of their street meetings in this city, have found their most respectful listeners among the longshoremen on the waterfront. More than 500 longshoremen paid strict attention to the several women speakers and applauded and thanked them when they had finished although many said they could not agree with their arguments.

As a contrast with this orderly meeting, the women were hooted in Wall street, where ticker-tape was thrown at them and in other parts of the city, where there is supposed to be more refinement than along the docks, they have been the victims of ridicule and ruffianism.

LAUGHED HIMSELF TO DEATH.

Chicago, July 28.—Owen Rowley probably laughed himself to death last night. His cousin, Edward Rowley, told a funny story while they were sitting on an iron railing and Owen's spasm of mirth shook him off into the basement 15 feet below. His spine was broken and he will die.
