

JEFF ISSUES A CHALLENGE.

Champion Pugilist Anxious to Meet Jack Munroe.

POSTS A FORFEIT OF $1,000.

And if Necessary the Prize Will be Raised to $5,000—Munroe Declines to Wait.

Butte, Mont., Dec. 23.—Clark Ball, manager of James J. Jeffries, today posted a forfeit of $1,000, which he will pay Jack Munroe, amateur champion heavyweight of the Pacific coast, if he can win four rounds with Jeff in a battle for a knockout.

Munroe refused the decision and $250 here last Saturday night by staying four rounds with the champion of the world, and is the hero of the hour. The bout may be pulled off here this week. Jack Munroe tonight stated that he would not meet Champion James J. Jeffries.

"My condition is wholly unfit at the present to fight successfully any one, let alone Jeff or Fitzsimmons," he said.

"I propose to devote myself to diligent training and in a short while any one who wants can challenge me." Jeffries and his manager are apparently determined to secure another go with the miner before they leave Montana, and it is said that Jeff will be increased to $5,000 if necessary.

YOUNG CORBETT DEFENDED.

Sporting Writer Who Knows a Thing or Two Talks Some.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is human. Most boxers are. Most of us are. And most of us are looking to get as much money as we can for as little as possible. That's a human trait, perhaps acquired, but I have an idea it's inborn. Corbett, by meeting half and half money, is making the Philadelphia crowd pay for as little as possible. He is making the Philadelphia crowd pay for as little as possible. He is making the Philadelphia crowd pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

Young Corbett is getting his thumbs from many quarters because he has failed to defeat decisively some of the "punch" boys he met in Philadelphia, says Dick Howell, in Bridgeport Herald. He is guilty of the crime of meeting half and half money, so many of those of the Philadelphia crowd, who are so anxious to see the third-raters out of the ring, that they are willing to pay for as little as possible.

DID NOT KNOW SHE HAD KIDNEY TROUBLE

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Gertrude Warner Scott Cured by the Great Kidney Remedy, Swamp-Root.

Vinton, Iowa, July 15th, 1901.

DR. KILMER & CO., Elmhurst, N. Y.
Gentlemen:—My trouble began with pain in my stomach and back, so severe that it seemed as if knives were cutting me. I was treated by two of the best physicians in the country, and consulted another. None of them suspected that the cause of my trouble was kidney disease. They all told me that I had cancer of the stomach, and would die. I grew so weak that I could not walk any more than a child a month old, and I only weighed ninety pounds. One day my brother saw in a paper your advertisement of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. He bought me a bottle of it and I took it. My family could see a change in me, for the better, so they obtained more and I continued the use of Swamp-Root regularly. I was so weak and run down that it took considerable time to build me up again. I am now well, thanks to Swamp-Root, and weigh 145 pounds, and am keeping house for my husband and brother. Swamp-Root cured me after the doctors had failed to do me a particle of good.

(Gertrude Warner Scott.)
Women suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles.

The mild and extraordinary effect of the world-famous kidney and bladder remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. A trial will convince anyone—and you may have a sample bottle sent free, by mail.

Sample Bottle of Swamp Root Sent Free.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root, and containing many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women who owe their good health, in fact their very lives to the great curative properties of Swamp-Root. In writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Elmhurst, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in the Salt Lake City Daily Deseret News.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Elmhurst, N. Y., on every bottle.

condition when going against third-raters, but during from his view point I think he did the proper thing.

BANTAMWEIGHT CONTEST.

Frankie Neil Claimed Forbes Committed Foul—Latter Won.

Oakland, Cal., Dec. 23.—The championship bantam contest between Harry Forbes of Chicago and Frankie Neil of San Francisco before the Reliance club tonight ended in an unsatisfactory manner in the seventh round. Neil claimed that he had been hit below the belt and danced against the ropes for a second and then fell to the floor. He was carried to his corner and while in the ring he was examined by two physicians. They stated that they could see no evidence of a foul, but Referee Smith said he would reserve his decision for one hour pending the report of the club's physicians.

Neil made a brave battle for seven rounds and took much punishment. Forbes proved to be a general in the ring and constantly jolted his opponent. It was evidently the rushes and fierce fighting that made Neil weak. During the entire fight Forbes was on his feet and landed several placed blows, and it looked as though he would surely win. At the finish Neil claimed to be in great pain, but outside of the alleged injury he showed very little punishment.

At the end of the hour the physicians decided that Neil had not been injured by a foul blow. Referee Smith then declared Forbes the winner of the contest.

RACES AT INGLESID.

Minor Landed Three Winners and Carried Off Riding Honors.

San Francisco, Dec. 23.—The racing at Ingleside today was marked by close finishes and the defeat of favorites, only one first choice getting home in front. The weather was fine and the track good. Minor landed three winners. On two occasions he beat Ranch a head when the latter boy was on favorites.

The Major was favorite for the 2-year-old race, and appeared to be winning, but Minor made an on the wing, and the latter boy won. Minor was won by a small margin. Minor was won by a small margin. Minor was won by a small margin.

The Weaver won, Malaspina second, Blackthorn third, Time, 1:13.5. The services of Jockey C. Bell, the stewards decided that Bell is entitled to the key owing to a prior contract. Summary:

First race, seven furlongs, selling—Hunnigan won, Hatch Miller second, Nannie Nolan third, Time, 1:20. Second race, Futurity course, selling—The Weaver won, Malaspina second, Blackthorn third, Time, 1:13.5.

Third race, seven furlongs, selling—Kirkumeb won, Parsifal second, St. Rita third, Time, 1:20. Fourth race, mile a sixteenth, selling—Ishtar won, Artlin second, Galanthis third, Time, 1:54.

Fifth race, five and a half furlongs, selling—Lady Evelyn won, The Major second, Little Margaret third, Time, 1:09.5. Sixth race, one mile, purse—Diderot won, Thovab second, Marque third, Time, 1:42.

McKay Emergent.
New York, Dec. 23.—Norman Selby, the pugilist known as "Kid" McKay,

LOCAL EVENTS.

LEAGUE BOWLING GAMES.

Harmony Team Defeats Elks Aggregation by Close Score.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

Brunswick	23	7	567
Harmonie	105	121	237
Elks	132	121	237
Hamilton	148	121	237
Salisbury	153	149	263
Averages—Bauer, 159 3-5; Alder, 138 5-6; Spitz, 144 4-5; Hamilton, 143 1-5; Salisbury, 155.

HARMONIE TEAM.

Bauer	170	168	168	123	—	798
Alder	105	121	121	121	—	237
Spitz	132	121	121	121	—	237
Hamilton	148	121	121	121	—	237
Salisbury	153	149	163	—	—	465
561 590 618 618 532—2940

ELKS TEAM.

Talamantes	131	143	145	157	142	—	708
Murtaugh	127	125	127	149	188	—	756
Lynn	149	156	157	162	151	—	775
Benson	163	152	148	132	111	—	711
Sharp	167	159	160	152	—	—	728
Averages—Talamantes, 141 3-5; Murtaugh, 151 1-5; Lynn, 155; Benson, 142 5-6; Sharp, 111.

Arrested for Husband's Murder.

David City, Neb., Dec. 23.—Lena M. Lillie was arrested this evening on complaint of County Atty. Willing, charged with murdering her husband. The arrest has caused a sensation. Harvey Lillie was shot dead while lying in his bed in October, supposedly by burglars, although the suspicion that the house had been robbed was later disproved. Since then the county attorney and detectives have been working on the case. The family was prominent. Mr. Lillie being local manager for one of the leading grain and elevator companies of the state.

MOEN TROUBLE FOR CASTRO.

Revolutionists Plan March on Caracas by Three Routes.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Dec. 23. (By boat from La Guayra.)—The revolutionists strengthened by the impossibility of the government to supply the army with arms and ammunition into the country and by the fact that it has no answer to its disposal, have made answer to President Castro's proposal to build his army against the foreigners who have attacked Venezuela by referring him to Gen. Matos, their only chief capable of dealing with the matter. The rebels have regained courage. The government which signed with them an armistice of 10 days which ends tomorrow has 3,600 men at Maricao, and 2,500 near Caracas, but at others who had enrolled themselves to fight against the foreigners have retired.

The revolutionists have planned a march on Caracas by the roads; the leaders, Ramon Antonio Guevara, Urbane and Penaloza, with 2,500 men will march via Buare; Antonio Fernandez, Otero and Crespo Torrez, with 2,500 men will march via Maricao, and Gen. Rolando with 2,500 troops will go from Alta Gracia. Ammunition is expected to arrive every day near Tucucos.

The student for President Castro is considered to be a main perilous; attacked by foreigners and his own countrymen, he can with difficulty resist the shocks as the government's resources are exhausted. The president's departure for La Victoria is for the purpose of trying to check the near advance to the capital of the revolutionists.

PERRY HEATH NOT IN IT.

He Says That He is Not a Candidate For U. S. Senator.

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 23.—Perry S. Heath of Salt Lake City, secretary of the Republican national committee, and Mr. Heath were in Indianapolis a short time today, where they will spend a week with relatives. Mr. Heath was warmly received by Senator Beveridge, a leading Republican leader on whom he called.

"I don't know how the report started that I am going to be a candidate for U. S. senator," said he. "The report is simply rot. I have no idea who manufactured it. Some 'Mormon' will be elected senator from Utah."

Lincoln Busts for New York Schools.

New York, Dec. 23.—An anonymous admirer of Abraham Lincoln is going to place busts of the great war president in every public school in the boroughs of Manhattan and The Bronx. The offer was made to the board of education through Commissioner O'Brien and was accepted. Mr. O'Brien would not give the names of the person who is to make the gift. The busts are to be designed by Wilson MacDonald, the sculptor, and are to be as large as the bust of Washington in the meeting room of the board of education. Before being placed in the schools they are to be submitted to three well known artists as experts.

Freight Handlers' Strike Off.

Chicago, Dec. 23.—A special to the Chronicle from New Orleans says: The strike of the Illinois Central railroad freight handlers was declared off last night and the men will go back to work today on the old conditions, but without discrimination. They were receiving sixteen cents an hour for a ten-hour day and twenty cents for all over-time. They struck for twenty cents an hour for a ten-hour day, thirty cents overtime and forty cents an hour for Sundays and holidays. In the contract signed the strikers agree not to bring up the question of wages for at least one year.

Alaska-Yukon Boundary Dispute.

New York, Dec. 23.—F. C. Wade contributes to the Empire Review, the Tribune's London correspondent says, a good tempered article on the Alaska-Yukon boundary dispute, presenting the Canadian side of the controversy with ability and fairness, and laying stress upon assertions that the American trade with the Yukon region is declining and that the tidewater towns of Skagway and Dyea are not benefited but ruined by the existing arrangements.

Boys' Prank Ends Fatally.

New York, Dec. 23.—Twelve-year-old Rudolph Rome is dead at Hampton house, says a dispatch to the Herald from Middletown, N. Y., through a companion's prank. Young Rome was coasting down a hill when his horse, a schoolmate of his own age, seized him by the leg with the intention of rolling him off the sled and seeing him founder in the snow.

As young Houston seized Rome's leg

WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU.

Few People Realize the Importance of Good Digestion Until It Is Lost.

Many people suffer from dyspepsia and do not know it. They feel mean, out of sorts, peevish, do not sleep well, do not have a good keen appetite, do not have the inclination and energy for physical or mental work they once had, but at the same time do not feel any particular pain or distress in the stomach. You are nervous, run down and digested, an insidious form of Dyspepsia which can only be cured by a remedy specially intended to cure it and make the digestive organs act naturally and properly digest the food eaten. Bitters, after dinner pills and nerve tonics will never help the trouble; they don't reach it. The new medical discovery does it. It is called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and is a specific for dyspepsia and indigestion. It cures because it thoroughly digests all wholesome food taken into the stomach, whether the stomach is in good working order or not.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets by digesting the food instead of making the worn out stomach do all the work gives it a much needed rest and a cure of dyspepsia is the natural result.

Nourish them with wholesome every day food and plenty of it, well digested, and you can laugh at nerve tonics and medicine.

But the nerves will not be nourished from a weak, abused stomach, but when the digestion has been made perfect by the use of this remedy all nervous symptoms disappear.

Who ever heard of a man or woman blessed with a vigorous digestion and good appetite being troubled with their nerves?

Good digestion means a strong nervous system, abundance of energy and capacity to enjoy the good things of life.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will certainly set your stomach and digestive organs right; they can't help but do it. They nourish the body by digesting the food eaten, and rest the stomach.

You get nourishment and rest at one and the same time, and that is all the worn out digestive needs to build him up and give new life to every organ and an added zest to every pleasure.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a god send to the army of men and women with weak stomachs, weak nerves and justly merits the claim of being one of the most worthy medical discoveries of the time.

The sled was swayed from its course, crashing into a corner of the school-house and hurling Rome against the building so violently as to cause internal hemorrhage and death.

Light Christmas Mail.

New York, Dec. 24.—Not for a long time has there been so light a Christmas mail as there has been this year. Light was the keynote of the Christmas mail. The postoffice clerks swamped by outgoing and incoming mail. No extra force has had to be put on duty. The first of the month, when extra men are always hired, why there is comparatively so little mail this year is something of a puzzle to the postoffice officials, for people are evidently buying just as much as usual, if not more, and are probably giving as many presents as in preceding years.

E. C. WALKER DEAD.

Well Known Horseman Accidentally Killed in New York.

New York, Dec. 24.—Horsemen interested in racing were shocked to learn that the unidentified man accidentally killed by a horse while crossing Broadway at Spring street on Monday evening was E. C. Walker, a trainer, driver, starting judge, and writer, who was known to followers of trotting all over the United States. Mrs. Walker recognized the description of the dead man published in the newspapers and went at once to the morgue, where her fears were confirmed.

Lieutenancy for C. Vanderbilt.

New York, Dec. 24.—A commission as first lieutenant of the Twelfth regiment, national guards, signed by Gov. Odell, has been received for Cornelius Vanderbilt by Col. George E. Dyer from Albany. Mr. Vanderbilt only two days before he was taken ill passed an exceptionally high examination before the brigade board for the position to which he had been elected from the grade of second lieutenant some weeks previous.

Low Signs Tunnel Franchise.

New York, Dec. 24.—Mayor Low has signed the tunnel franchise for the New York and New Jersey company, authorizing the commencement of work on the New York side at once.

Bigger Jury Wants Information.

Freehold, N. J., Dec. 24.—The jury in the case of Laura Biggar, Dr. Charles C. Hendricks and former Justice of the Peace Samuel Stanton, accused of having conspired to secure the entire estate of the late Henry M. Bennett,

Even a child can buy

Golden Gate Mocha and Java

and you are absolutely sure of getting the same quality of coffee that was in the last can you bought.

This brand of coffee receives our most careful attention and is guaranteed to be uniform in strength and quality.

Sold in 1 and 2 lb. cans by all grocers. Grind the coffee fresh each day.

J. A. FOLGER & CO.

San Francisco, Importers of Fine Coffees.

ARTHUR COLLINS MURDER CASE

Operators Want Miners to Show They Are Not Responsible for It.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 24.—At a meeting of the council of the Colorado Mine Operators' association, resolutions were adopted to the effect that the burden of proof rests with the Western Federation of Miners to show that it is not directly or indirectly responsible for the death of Former Manager Arthur Collins of the Shoggy Union mine at Telluride, who was assassinated in the office of the company recently.

This conclusion is arrived at, the resolutions say, from the fact that the Western Federation of Miners "have taken part in some of the recent acts of lawlessness that have prevailed in the San Juan district and elsewhere in Colorado, from the fact that the policy pursued by the Western Federation of Miners has always tended to deny the right of contract to the individual, and has been such as to excite the public of their active and earnest desire to prevent violence and intimidation."

FISH'S SLAYER SENTENCED.

Private Detective Tom Sharkey Gets Ten Years.

New York, Dec. 24.—Thomas J. Sharkey, the private detective who was convicted of manslaughter in the second degree for having killed Nicholas Fish, the banker, on Sept. 27, was today sentenced to state prison for 10 years.

The Pope in Good Health.

Rome, Dec. 24.—There is no foundation for the report that the pope is ill. The pontiff is in good health and excellent spirits. He did not rise until 10 o'clock last night, rose at 7 this morning, celebrated mass in his private chapel and proposes to celebrate a Christmas eve mass at midnight.

Blizzard in Wisconsin.

La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 24.—A severe blizzard is prevailing in this section. Over three inches of snow has fallen and it is getting colder. The storm is reported general in the Dakotas, Iowa and Minnesota and the lake region.

Big Fire at Lawrenceville, Pa.

Corning, N. Y., Dec. 24.—Lawrenceville, Toga county, Pa., was visited