DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.

David Pons, who was injured near Dewey, Boxelder county, Friday, by a load of baled hay overturning on him died from the result of the injuries early Saturday morning without regaining consciousness. The remains were brought to Ogden his former home where they were prepared for burial. The decensed was born in France, 65 years ago, and came to Utah 48 years with a company of pioners settling in Weber county where he resided al most continually ever since. In the early days he drove the stage and did considerable for the upbuilding of Ogden. He was conscientious and alway willing to help his fellow man. His sudden and untimely death was a terrible shock to his family and many friends in Ogden. He leaves several sons and daughters, three sisters and a host of friends to mourn his demise. The funeral services over his remains were held at the Fourth ward meeting. house this afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large concourse of sympathizing friends gathered to pay respect to his memory His romains were laid to rest in the family burial ground by the side of his wife in the city cemetery.
