

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH.

Prof. G. M. Marshall went to Provo this morning, where he delivered one of the series of lectures before the Utah County Teachers' association. Tonight he will speak before the citizens of Provo. His subject is "The Present State of the West." It will be illustrated with stereoscopic views.

The temporary summer school committee has now been suspended by the permanent committee appointed on Tuesday by Pres. Kingsbury. This permanent committee consists of Prof. G. M. Marshall, chairman; Prof. G. M. Marshall, chairman; Prof. G. M. Marshall, chairman; and Instructor R. L. Melshie.

This week, Instructor Beckstrand's class, who are studying steam engines, are in the mechanical laboratory, performing efficiency tests on an injector and determining the moisture in the steam by means of the throttling calorimeter.

Prof. V. Stokes of Draper, a former student of the university on Tuesday, visited the campus in honor of his birthday.

A heavy snow fall on Wednesday covered the street cars from running, and most of the students were compelled to walk home.

Wednesday evening the following students enjoyed a "bob-sleigh ride": R. H. Rigg, Jake Russell, Will James, and Wilson, Miss Young, Miss Robt. Rigg, and Alvin Cox.

Thursday, the 94 normals sent a letter of sympathy and a floral tribute to their classmate, Miss Jennie Hill, who died the day previous.

The fourth year normals have received their class pins. The design is a shield bordered in enamel on a white background. The letters "U. of U." are on the shield, while "U. of U." and "1903" are on the triangle.

Wednesday Superintendent Ashton gave an educational address before the students in chapel. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Freshman club.

Dr. W. G. Boylance was out of his office on Monday on account of sickness in his family.

Wednesday evening, the members of the University Dramatic club were entertained by Miss Elliott at the home on First North street. Elbert won the first prize at sixty-six cents for a beautiful valentine.

Montgomery, the elite trombone of the band, has been engaged by the university as instructor of the university band. Mr. Montgomery led the boys in their practice Wednesday.

The university band has made arrangements to present an opera-extravaganza in the Salt Lake Theater. The opera cast will consist of members. Among the leading roles will be a Spanish serenade, acted by Mr. Theo. Best, to be given by Mrs. Best and Mrs. Elsie Barber, and supported by a chorus of five voices. There will probably be a singing match between Conchita Holmes and Mr. Eugene Brown. There will be two ballets, three mixed choruses. At a band concert on Wednesday, Burgess Young acted as a member of the band and committee. Milan Crandall was in his place. Mr. Crandall and V. Buckle now have the management of the opera.

A recent meeting of the Dramatic club, Prof. Brock, Miss Angie Holm, and Mr. Elbert Thomas were elected a committee to select a new name to be given some time in May.

Monday Prof. J. B. Toronto delivered a lecture before the engineers. The subject was, "The History of Mathematics."

A legislative committee on universities, buildings and grounds, visited the university on Thursday. The members who came up were Senator J. D. Davis and Representatives J. C. Anderson and Mrs. Coulter. They were accompanied by Prof. Weber, Dr. J. B. Toronto, J. B. Robertson, and Colton of Utah.

They were shown through the buildings by President J. T. Kingsbury.

Instructor Arnold's students in the

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

of the world.

French 3 will give a performance of Labiche and Martin's one act comedy "La Mainleste," in the assembly room of the museum building on Saturday evening, Feb. 21. The roles will be taken as follows:

Legrainard, Mr. Burges Young
Madame Legrainard, Miss Mary Snyder
Celine, Cur fille, Miss Anna Marie Ferguson
Regale, Miss Helene Critzer
Madame de Pontmele, Miss Leona Miller
Madame Durand, Miss Susie Sawyer
After the play the class will give a dance.

SALT LAKE CITY SCHOOLS

Miss Pollock held a meeting of the primary teachers on Wednesday evening, at which Mrs. Brunton of the Webster school presented some class work on Hiauwatha, of a very high order, the special feature of which was the development of phonics work, by which the children are enabled to pronounce the difficult Indian names with perfect ease and intelligence. The teachers expressed themselves as delighted with the work done and much benefit was derived from the meeting.

Mrs. Elliot visited the Lowell and Watchdog during the week.

Mr. Wetzel visited the following schools this week, Bryant, Twelfth, Webster, Lincoln and Franklin.

The music in room 1 of the Webster, under the direction of Miss Beattie Mayne and in room 1, Jackson, under Miss Maude Potter, is deserving of especial mention for excellent work in singing and purity of tone.

A teachers' meeting was held at the Grant school Thursday to plan a program to be given to help defray the expense of a new piano. The co-operation of the patrons of the school is desired.

Teachers on the west side had considerable difficulty in getting to and from school Thursday owing to the condition of the street tracks, after the heavy snowstorm.

Mrs. Stocking substituted at the Jackson in Miss Arnold's place during the week.

Mrs. Chandler visited several departments of the Quinrill Wednesday.

Supt. D. H. Christensen visited Miss Inaugh's reading class on Tuesday, where he heard some very fine work on Julius Caesar, by pupils of the eighth grade, Quinrill school.

The Hamilton teachers made up a party at the Brunswick bowling alleys on Thursday.

County Supt. Ashton was an interested visitor at the Hamilton on Wednesday.

Mr. Coombs of the Hamilton visited the Union on Thursday forenoon.

A well attended parents' meeting was held at the Washington Thursday. An interesting program was rendered, at which Supt. D. H. Christensen spoke on the subject of "Pending School Legislation," and found a very interested audience.

Miss Whitely has charge of the third B class at the Hamilton, relieving the over-crowded condition of Miss Wainless' and Miss May's rooms.

Some very artistic and original designs for valentines have been made in the lower grades this week. Work in original design is being greatly encouraged by Supt. Elliot of the art department.

A teacher recently began to quiz a rather slow boy about George Washington. The boy, perhaps embarrassed, seemed unusually dull. "At your age Washington was a surveyor," remarked the teacher. "At your age Washington was president of the United States," remarked the stupid, quiet boy.

Mr. Wetzel supplied the music for a two part chorus to be under the direction of Mrs. Forbes at the Webster this week.

Since the arrival of the new piano at the Wasatch, pupils of rooms 9 and 10 unite for music under the direction of Miss Sue Clark.

Mrs. Foster visited the Jackson on Thursday.

A very fine Lincoln program was given at Lowell by pupils of the eighth grade, consisting of the Gettysburg speech, by the grade, singing of patriotic songs and a debate on questions: "Resolved, that Lincoln was Greater than Washington." Those taking the affirmative were: Nora Noall, Rena Anderson, Mamie Harris. On the negative, John Clawson, John Lyon and John Burton.

Miss Estelle Engleman is now located at 6 Floral avenue, during the absence of her mother, who is in Los Angeles.

Parents' meeting was held at the Whitton on Monday, Supt. D. H. Christensen spoke on pending school legislation and was very much enjoyed by the patrons who were present.

The Jackson primary grade is making preparation for short Lincoln programs by studying the life of that hero.

Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Felt, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Joseph Wells were at the Lowell this week.

Mr. Wetzel enjoyed lunch with the teachers of the Twelfth on Thursday.

Room fourteen of the Webster celebrated Lincoln's birthday. The boards were decorated by drawings typifying the life of Lincoln. Lewis Hagin and Junius McDonald did the decorating.

Miss Jessie Drew of the Lowell was presented with some elegant flowers as a valentine by her class.

In the loss of little Kenneth McLean, the Whitton loses one of the brightest and most lovable pupils. The bereaved parents have the warmest sympathy of both teachers and pupils.

Pupils of Miss Hamlin of the second grade did themselves proud in the rendition of a very fine Japanese program on Friday afternoon at the Sumner.

A Hiauwatha study is being made in the lower grades of the city, much to the delight of the children.

"That Washington was a greater man than Lincoln" was debated with much vigor at the Jackson eighth grade on Friday, the champions for the affirmative were Matilda Thomas, Vivian Erickson, Alla Chug; negatives, Samuel Selander, Morris Perry, Harold Brown. Songs, essays and declamations ended the program.

A very unique program was rendered in room 18, under the direction of Miss McPadden. Japan in all its phases was ably and interestingly treated by the pupils. A fine Japanese exhibit was a feature, which was lucidly explained by James Evans. A recitation was given on costume by Ethel Cheshire. Some very fine Japanese sketches were put on the boards by Mary Haloran and Andrew Clark.

Mrs. Nellie Bruce Pugsley was a visitor at the Washington on Wednesday.

MISS ADA M. PRATT,

Teacher of Beginners in the Sumner School.

Hannah Cummings, aged 8, and Georgia Hardy, aged 10, have each composed a song of three stanzas on coasting, the harmony of which is sufficiently perfect to render them of use for chorus work in their rooms in the Lowell. The children are very proud of their classmates.

Teachers of the fourth grade met with Miss Pollock to discuss limitations of work in arithmetic and language for the second semester on Thursday.

Owing to the congested condition of Miss Alexander's room in the Wasatch, she is to be relieved of some of her 60 pupils.

Miss Rosalie Pollock leaves the first of the week to attend the superintendent's meeting of the N. E. A. in Cincinnati.

The following meetings are scheduled for this coming week: Mrs. Elliot on Tuesday, first grade on Thursday the second grade, and Miss Pollock at the Grant will meet third A pupils. Miss Lloyd will present some class work in arithmetic and Mr. Martin of the Grant will talk on the subject of arithmetic. Teachers of the third and fourth grades are invited to this meeting. On Wednesday the beginners and first B meet Miss Pollock at the city and county building at 3:15 p. m.

The children in Miss Hamlin's room at the Sumner have been studying about the Japanese and have fitted up a corner of their room with articles from Japan. Friday they invited their parents to hear the following program:

A Japanese Good Morning.....
.....Ten Little Japanese Girls
Reading, Boys and Girls of Japan
.....Midnight Belle Song, "The Japanese Doll"
Dramatic Work and Play
Reading, "What the Japanese Send Us"
.....Midnight Tanner
Reading, "A Japanese Doll Festival"
Fan Drill
Essay, "A Japanese School"
.....Lavary Allen
Recitation, "A Japanese Festival"
.....Brink Covey
Recitation, "The Pied Piper"
Song, "The Japanese School"
Reading, "Old Glory"
After which the little Japanese girls served tea and wafers.

L. D. S. UNIVERSITY.

There were many beautiful gowns worn by the lady students at the ball on Friday evening, but none more stylish or elegant than those made by the fair dancers themselves in their own dressing-dress department.

Devotional exercises this week were conducted by Prof. Miller and Porter, and Miss Bitner.

Instructor McKee's theological class will finish the study of the life of Christ next week.

Mrs. Skewes and Miss Lydia Weller recently registered in the shorthand department.

The large tables in room 207 have been replaced by very convenient desks. This room is used for shorthand and the change is a vast improvement.

Thursday morning from 10 to 11, Bro. F. Grant addressed all first year students of theology. He spoke mainly on the miraculous conversion of Al. ma.

As a result of circulars distributed among the business houses, a number of new members have joined the morning class in law, conducted by Prof. Maycock. The class is now studying the law of sales.

All second and third year students now have their classes in the B. Y. memorial building. The temporary students also hold some of their classes in the very attractive rooms of the new buildings.

Friday afternoon in the L. D. S. gymnasium occurred the second league basketball game for the state championship, viz. the B. Y. college of Logan vs. the L. D. S. university. The boys from Logan arrived Thursday and were visiting the L. D. S. university Friday.

In the basement of the new building the largest and pleasantest room has been furnished with eight large oak tables, and 64 opera chairs, to serve as a study room for the students. Adjoining this room is the library stockroom. This new arrangement will certainly be appreciated by the students, who have in the past felt the need of a convenient study room.

Last Wednesday evening exercises were unusually interesting. The commercial class of 1901 furnished an excellent program, consisting of their class history by Elva Watrous, a class poem by Miss Edmunds; a quartet by Miss Edmunds, Miss Standing, Mr. McMurrin and Mr. Mortensen, and a ladies' drill by Misses Standing, Edmunds, Pettit and Blamires.

Sister Tingey of the Y. L. M. I. A. general board, occupied the remainder of the time. She addressed her remarks mainly to the girls, and it was evident that they appreciated her good advice.

Last week Prof. Phil Maycock, our teacher of law, and Miss Rena Baker, for several years a member of the A. C. faculty, were married here in the city. Prof. Maycock's students felt this to be an opportune time to show him their esteem, and accordingly last Monday morning, when he came to class, he was appreciably surprised at being made the recipient of various congratulatory speeches by the students. He was presented with a large and costly farewell picture by the members of the class. The remainder of the hour was spent in a general "peanut festival."

BRIGHAM YOUNG ACADEMY

Provo.—The liquid air man lectured to an audience which crowded college hall. He made a great impression.

Our boys went to Salt Lake last Friday to give the L. D. S. a game of basketball. The fact is mentioned in a minor key; 7 to 37.

Donald Forsyth has accepted the place of assistant editor of the White and Blue instead of Albert R. Day, who recently resigned.

There is just now a rivalry between the Commercial and the 1903's over which shall establish a library of political history and economics. It is rivalry of this kind which helps.

Mumps has broken out—or perhaps it would be more appropriate to say puffed out—in the preparatory school. The young men are thankful they haven't the measles also.

President Allen, of the Summit stake, visited the school Wednesday morning, and spoke to the students at devotional exercises. President Allen is one of our staunch friends and is always a welcome visitor.

The reunion of the members of the South American Exploring expedition took the form of a ball. Nearly 150 tickets were sold, and the funds so collected have been sent to the two members still in the field.

President Cliff announced that Friday day, which comes on Feb. 17, would be devoted to a consideration of how the institution could come into possession of more land. The students applauded. They always applauded the idea of expansion.

Ex-Supt. Wootton and his son, of Midway, were the regular monthly visitors this week from Wasatch stake to the Watch students democratic organization. Elder Holton, of Brigham City, paid a similar visit to the Box Elder organization, and spoke last Sunday night to a conference of all the domestic organizations in college hall.

The preparatory school has organized a baseball team and provided it with spanking new suits. Challenges right and left among student organizations are no doubt among the things brooding in the training building.

A fatality which has cast a gloom over the entire school was the recent death of Daniel Collier of Vernal. He was one of our brightest students and everybody expected great things of him in future in the line of engineering. The student-body last Tuesday morning passed appropriate resolutions of respect to his memory.

Provo has had 10 days of magnificent sleighing weather, but rarely do we hear the jingle of bells. The fact is, the cutters, if Provo ever had any, have long ago fallen into "innocuous desuetude," that they have probably been cut into kindling wood, in sheer despair of another winter ever coming in which they might be used. The best, therefore, that students can do, is to collect in groups and tell yarns of that they have done, or would do were they at home.

The student-body, recently organized with C. S. Jarvis as president, has taken a firm grip on all matters relating to the affairs of the school from the student side. By a recent resolution all the auxiliary student organizations became divisions of the main body, their officers to be elected at the same time and under the same election machinery. It might in fact be called a student trust.

At the recent expedition ball tables were arranged under the band stand containing an interesting collection of curios collected throughout Mexico and Central America. That which attracted most attention was a stuffed specimen of the Quetzal or royal bird of the Quiche Indians, valued at $100. So beautiful is its plumage, and so much in demand in ornithological collections, that the government of Guatemala, in order to prevent extinction of the species, has been obliged to impose heavy fines on collectors, and has absolutely forbidden its exportation. The academy is unusually fortunate, therefore, in having so beautiful a specimen.

WEBER STAKE ACADEMY

Ogden.—Principal D. O. McKay delivered a lecture at the tabernacle last Sunday, on the "Spirituality of the Child," before the Sunday School Union meeting. It was well and ably handled.

Through the kindness of Joseph Parry, the academy basketball team have been accorded the use of the spacious building on the corner of Twenty-third street and Washington avenue, for their practice and league games.

Prof. Bradford spent Saturday and Sunday at Salt Lake with his family and relatives.

Last Saturday, our basketball team was defeated by the B. Y. college team at Logan. The defeat served its purpose, for it has put the necessary "tinger" into our boys that will help them in their subsequent games.

A very excellent academy ball was given under the auspices of the athletic association last evening. It was a grand success, both socially and financially.

Prof. Nelson and Miss Jennette McKay, of the faculty accompanied the basketball team to Logan last Saturday. Miss McKay, while in the Temple city, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Whitsoe, of the A. C. college.

Today the L. D. S. university is offered against the academy in a basketball game. The game was not finished in time for this issue.

A match game of basketball was played Thursday afternoon between the first teams of the academy and high school. It was a speedy and well-contested game, but the high school team went down in defeat to the tune of 16 to 12. Naturally our team with the rest of the academy are elated over this well earned victory, for the high school team played excellent ball.

BRIGHAM YOUNG COLLEGE

Logan.—The basketball team went to Salt Lake City on Thursday to match a game with the team of the Latter-day Saints' university.

The team of the Weber Stake academy came up to Logan and contested with the college team last Saturday. The college team won out by a score of 29 to 19, and did it quite easily.

Miss Lillian Oliver, instructor in piano, at the college, gives a recital at the Agricultural college on Saturday evening, Feb. 14.

Elder Andrew Peterson, a prominent business man of Logan, visited the college on Thursday, and addressed the students in chapel.

The college military band was on the streets serenading on Thursday night. The boys will go to Salt Lake on Friday morning to cheer for the college basketball team.

The O. S. L. railroad company has granted special excursion rates to the students who will go to Salt Lake on Friday.

The planes, lathes, circle saws and other machinery are now in action at the carpenter shops.

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

Cedar City.—The chemistry class is booked for an examination next Friday.

Most of the time in Students' society Friday evening was occupied in debating the subject, "Resolved, That United States senators should be elected by popular vote." The number of points made by the different sides was nearly equal, but the affirmative was declared the winner.

The following program was given in Ladies' meeting Tuesday evening: Indian Basketry.....Elia Hulst Pottery.....Lettie Dalton Quotations from Household Magazines.....Mary Brown and Fern Harrison

The new city council met Tuesday night and among other business transacted, approved of the nomination of E. M. Decker as chief of police.

Mr. Porter of Orderville, who came over to visit his children, attending the normal, has been visiting school the last few days.

The class in commercial law held an extra session last Saturday. The object was to try a special case, in order that the members might get hold of the points of law involved more fully.

Students expecting to complete the three years course next spring are required to hand in a petition to that effect this week.

Last Wednesday Mr. Nard treated his physics students to a stiff examination on the subject of "heat."

In the recent city election, the "Liberals" succeeded in electing most of their candidates. The oath of office was administered to them last Monday in chapel. The new officers are: Jacob L. Workman, mayor; Granville Pace, attorney; Abish Jones, recorder.

Mr. Porter occupied the time in chapel of this week. His talks were, as usual, very interesting.

The musicale given by Mr. Anderson last Saturday night was very successful, as was evidenced by the large and appreciative audience present. Following the program: "When Love Was Young".....Orchestra Piano solo, "Woodland Echoes".....Myrtle Decker Contralto solo, "September".....Mrs. H. R. Briggs Piano solo, "The Old Mill".....Miss Mary Higbee "Moonlight on the Lake".....B. N. Male Chorus Piano solo, "The Midnight Fire Alarm".....Mr. O. C. Anderson Soprano solo, "Telling my Story".....Miss Bessie McFarlane Piano solo, "Grand Polka de Concert".....Miss Mamie Jones Baritone solo.....Mr. W. T. Ward Piano solo, "I Dreamed My Mother was a Queen".....Miss Fay Harrison Piano solo, "Home, Sweet Home".....Mr. O. C. Anderson

The preparatory school has organized a baseball team and provided it with spanking new suits. Challenges right and left among student organizations are no doubt among the things brooding in the training building.

A fatality which has cast a gloom over the entire school was the recent death of Daniel Collier of Vernal. He was one of our brightest students and everybody expected great things of him in future in the line of engineering. The student-body last Tuesday morning passed appropriate resolutions of respect to his memory.

Provo has had 10 days of magnificent sleighing weather, but rarely do we hear the jingle of bells. The fact is, the cutters, if Provo ever had any, have long ago fallen into "innocuous desuetude," that they have probably been cut into kindling wood, in sheer despair of another winter ever coming in which they might be used. The best, therefore, that students can do, is to collect in groups and tell yarns of that they have done, or would do were they at home.

The student-body, recently organized with C. S. Jarvis as president, has taken a firm grip on all matters relating to the affairs of the school from the student side. By a recent resolution all the auxiliary student organizations became divisions of the main body, their officers to be elected at the same time and under the same election machinery. It might in fact be called a student trust.

At the recent expedition ball tables were arranged under the band stand containing an interesting collection of curios collected throughout Mexico and Central America. That which attracted most attention was a stuffed specimen of the Quetzal or royal bird of the Quiche Indians, valued at $100. So beautiful is its plumage, and so much in demand in ornithological collections, that the government of Guatemala, in order to prevent extinction of the species, has been obliged to impose heavy fines on collectors, and has absolutely forbidden its exportation. The academy is unusually fortunate, therefore, in having so beautiful a specimen.

The members of the Sorosis society are preparing to give Shakespeare's "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" at an early date.

The annual military ball will be given by the cadets at the gymnasium next Saturday evening.

The senior civil engineers are now working three afternoons a week on irrigation designs.

Senator Barber of Cache gave an excellent address at Chapel last Saturday.

Professor and Mrs. Merrill gave a sleighing party last Monday night to a number of their friends. The ride was about the city and to some of the adjoining villages. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, the party consisted of Messrs. and Mesdames Whitsoe, Engle and Ostlen, and Mrs. Clarence Snow.

Bishop Preston of Salt Lake City addressed the students at chapel last Wednesday. He gave some interesting reminiscences of the first settlement of Logan, and some very excellent advice to the young people. He expressed his great pleasure at the rapid growth of the college and the thorough and practical work being done. After chapel he spent the forenoon visiting classes, the shops, and the farms, everywhere observing the work with his usual keenness and precision.

Professors Hutt and Ball went to Paradise last Monday night to investigate a case of cattle poisoning.

In systematic botany, Prof. Hutt has been compelled to section the class on account of its size.

A quartet has been organized in the agricultural club, to dispense music at their meetings.

The Star society and the Law club have arranged for a joint debate in the near future.

The recital of Miss Oliver, assisted by Miss Moonch and Mrs. Preston, to be given in the chapel tonight, under the auspices of the athletic association, promises to be well attended.

Bishop Preston has promised to speak to the Agricultural club at a meeting in the near future.

Sale Ten Million Boxes a Year.

THE FAMILY'S FAVORITE MEDICINE

Cascarets

CANDY CATHARTIC

10c, 25c, 50c. All Druggists

THEY WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

BEST FOR THE BOWELS

R. K. Thomas Dry Goods Co.

Monday, Feb. 16th and Week.

SPECIAL SALE

Black Dress Goods.

All Black Dress Goods, up to $1.50 yard at 95 cts
All Black Dress Goods up to $1.00 yard at 75 cts
All Black Dress Goods up to 75 cts yard at 50 cts

GREY DRESS GOODS.

All Grey Dress Goods up to $1.25 yard at 75 cts