

SOCIETY

CHATS

The largest affair of the week was the junior promenade at the university last night, the affair altogether being one of the most elaborate in school annals. The decorations were notably profuse and artistic, and all details effectively managed.

A delightful affair of the week was the banquet given by Editor J. M. Smedley of the Deseret News to the editorial and reporter's staff at his home on Tuesday night, about fifty, including a few outside friends, being present. A musical program was given by Miss Agnes Dahlquist, Miss Althea Farr of Ogden, Miss Leilah Sjodahl and Mr. R. J. Jessup, another feature being the reading of a newspaper published for the occasion with contributions from each of the department heads and distributed to each present as souvenirs. The rooms were decorated with carnations and hyacinths, and addresses were made by the host, by President Smith and Messrs. J. Dahlquist and P. W. Madsen.

Mrs. J. M. Bidwell will entertain at a luncheon and bridge party next Tuesday.

Another brilliant affair of the week was the hop given at the post on Thursday night in honor of the visiting officers, the hall being decorated in the national flags, while American Beauty roses were effectively used throughout. The guests were received by Col. and Mrs. Benjamin Lockwood, Col. and Mrs. H. L. Kinnison and Lieut. and Mrs. E. H. Wagner. Punch and a buffet supper were served. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening. Lieut. R. N. Campbell entertained at a theater party on Monday night in honor of the visiting officers, after which they then to the Wilson for supper. The party included Col. Lockwood, Col. Walter S. Schuyler, Lieut. Col. Hunter, Lieut. Col. Mason, Maj. Benson, Maj. Benson, Maj. Smith, Maj. Pennington, Maj. Hearn, Maj. Foster, Capt. Madden, Capt. Wells, Capt. Allen, Capt. Hampton, Capt. Woodward, Capt. Howland, Capt. Pritchard, Capt. Clement, Capt. Smith, Lieut. W. H. Point, Lieut. Ward, Lieut. Gallacher and Lieut. Wilson.

Miss Katherine Geddes gave an Orpheum theater party on Monday night in honor of Mrs. Pastorius of Colorado, and afterward entertained them at a supper at her home.

Mrs. E. S. Ferry entertained at an elaborate bridge tea on Wednesday, the rooms being beautifully decorated in American beauty roses and pink carnations, and eight tables being played, the prizes being awarded the winner at each. The hostess was assisted by a number of intimate friends, and about 30 guests were present.

Miss Thomas G. Griffin entertained informally at tea on Wednesday in honor of Miss Winn and Miss Black, who are here visiting with friends, about a dozen being present.

Mrs. J. E. Woodward entertained at a card party this afternoon at Port Douglas.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Keyes entertained informally at dinner at the Alta club.

Mrs. William Igleheart and Mrs. Joel Priest have issued invitations for a tea, to be given at the home of Mrs. Igleheart on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 12.

Mrs. William Cunningham will entertain at a luncheon on Monday afternoon at the University club.

Miss Katherine Geddes gave a theater party this week.

Mrs. J. L. Franklyn entertained delightfully at bridge yesterday in honor of Mrs. George L. Nye, the rooms being artistically decorated and about 35 being present.

Miss Florence Grant entertained her card club last night.

Miss Mildred Ott was guest of honor at a pleasant afternoon affair today, given by Miss Elizabeth Craig and Miss Edith Chapman. The rooms were prettily decorated and a number of mutual friends enjoyed the event.

Mrs. C. O. Whitmore entertained her card club this week.

Miss Jenna Bud Geddes was hostess at an informal bridge tea on Wednesday, in honor of Miss Leslie Kerr of Chicago and Miss Edith Ralston of St. Louis, the rooms being decorated in violets and about a dozen present. The hostess was assisted by Miss Addie Zane, Miss Katherine Geddes and Miss Eloise Sadler, and the prize was won by Miss Margaret Corn. Those invited to meet the guests of honor were Misses Bess and Mildred McMillan, Miss Eloise Sadler, Miss Florence Kimball, Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, Miss Louise Sullivan, Miss Genevieve McCormick, Miss Cora of Ogden, Miss Stella McIntyre, Miss Leila Stingley, Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Allen Maclean, Miss Mary Smedley.

A notable affair of next week will be the annual breakfast of the Ladies Literary club, to take place at the Manitou hotel on Friday, at 12 o'clock. A program of toasts has been arranged and the decorations will be in the club colors.

On the Friday following the Liberty Chapter D. R. give their annual luncheon at the Manitou at 1:30 o'clock, the details to be carried out in the blue and gold of the society.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Child entertained at a theater party on Monday night.

Miss Elsie Wilson whose marriage took place this week, was guest of honor at an afternoon party on Monday, given by Mrs. H. E. Gies and Mrs. A. J. Hoffman, the decorations being in red hearts and bells, and the refreshments also being in this design.

Mrs. A. V. Callaghan entertained at a luncheon on Monday in honor of Mrs. Pastorius, her guests enjoying a card game afterward.

Mrs. James Anderson and Miss Jessie Anderson gave a large tea on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Hanson of Sacramento, the rooms being beautifully decorated in American Beauty roses and carnations, the hours being from 4 to 6 o'clock. About a hundred guests were present during the afternoon, the hostesses being assisted in receiving and serving by Mrs. Hutton, Mrs. William H. Cunningham, Mrs. Edward S. Ferry, Mrs. Ernest Rasmussen, Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, Miss Allen Maclean, Miss Eloise Sadler and Miss Florence Kimball, Mrs. June Sadler, Donnell and Miss Addie Zane.

Europe, where they will join Miss Mildred Tibbels and Miss Stephenson.

Mrs. Squire Coop has returned from a stay of nearly a year abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed go to Los Angeles today.

Mrs. Frederick K. Hale left this week with her son Edward, for Los Angeles and Monterey, where she will spend some time with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benton Hunter.

Mrs. Frederick Earls, accompanied by her small daughter and Miss Lena Welby, has returned from Pacific Grove, Cal.

Mrs. George W. Snow is spending a month or so in Los Angeles.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee will leave with her small son, Walker, today for the coast.

Miss Loren Leary has returned from Chicago, where she has been attending the Northwestern University.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Alder will leave today for California on a short trip.

Mrs. J. P. Murphy, who has been visiting her friend, Mrs. G. A. Vaher, will leave today for her home in Preston, Idaho.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux will soon be at home in their new residence on E street.

Miss Katherine Purcell will leave next week for New York to be away a month.

Mrs. E. N. Botsford and Miss Josephine Botsford are at home to their friends in the Kensington flats for the present.

Mrs. S. C. Ewline accompanied by her son, left during the week for Pittsburgh to visit with relatives.

NATTY TAILORED WAIST.

A charming development of the gimp waist is depicted, made of pale blue sheela cloth. The sleeves are long and finished at the wrist with a pretty turn-over cuff of the cloth. The feature of this sleeve is the high cuff which extends on the inside of the arm to the armpit. The outside of the cuff is finished, as are front and back of the blouse, with stichings of black silk and black silk frog trimmings. A black silk trimming outlines the V-shaped opening at the neck, and a gimp of white lace gives a pretty note of contrast.

ley Price and later Miss Jewett and Harold McLean of the Paul Gilmore company, the party afterward going to the Wilson for supper.

Misses Mildred and Bess McMillan gave a dancing party at their home last night in honor of Miss Corn of Ogden, who is their guest. The rooms were bright with flowers, and a number of the younger set participated.

A Valentine party will be given by the kindergarten teachers of the U. of U. in the kindergarten room on Feb. 12.

Miss Ethel Lane was delightfully entertained by the teachers of the Hamilton school on Monday, the affair being in the way of an afternoon tea.

Miss Winnifred Woodmansee gave an informal luncheon at the Commercial club on Monday.

Mrs. Will Clawson was guest of honor at a pleasant afternoon affair on Monday, her hosts being Mrs. William Reid.

Mrs. H. C. Brownlee entertained her card club this week.

Col. and Mrs. Lockwood gave a reception at the post on Tuesday night, the hours being from 8 to 10 o'clock. The rooms were bright with palms, potted plants, and pink and white carnations, and the hosts were assisted by a number of the officers and their ladies. The regimental band furnished delightful music during the evening.

A pleasant affair of the week was the card party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cluff in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Caine, about 20 friends being entertained. The rooms were decorated in roses and carnations, and the prize-winners were Mrs. J. T. Caine and Mr. Charles Caine.

Mrs. Golden J. Gulver gave a bundle Shower Thursday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Ruth Holding. A large number of friends were present and a most enjoyable time was had.

COMING AND GOING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Quigley have returned from an extended eastern trip.

Dr. H. D. Hines has returned from a two weeks' visit with friends in the east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood have returned from an eastern trip of two months and are at their home on Brigham street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Daly and daughters Eudora and Evelyn arrived at Naples Jan. 25. From there they will go to Rome and later make a tour of the Holy Land.

Miss Maude McCann has gone to California, where she will visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wrensch have returned after a long stay in California and are at home again at Second and J streets.

Mrs. Robert C. Gommell will leave today for California over the Salt Lake Route and will later go to Oakland to visit the Anderson family.

Mrs. W. H. Tibbels and Mrs. J. R.

were those respectively of Miss Mabel Burnett and C. V. Wheeling and Miss Genevieve Leabor and George Barnes, both being very quiet affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes have gone to Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Wheeling will be at home here after Feb. 25.

Another quiet wedding was that of Miss Edna Giles and Frank M. Williams, who were married on Wednesday in the temple and went directly to their home, 364 Sixth East street.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE LIVES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, Feb. 8.—Among the notable events of the week was the celebration Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Heller on Orchard avenue of the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln, one of the sturdiest ascensions of the honored sire participated in the affair. During the afternoon the ladies and the children entertained themselves at music and games, and in the evening the married members of the family enjoyed themselves at vocal and instrumental music, and ocellat. A brief history of the Fortson family was outlined. Mrs. Heller, who is the daughter of Mr. Porter, served a bounteous repast both afternoon and evening. The tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers.

Friday evening a large number of young friends of Glen and Roy over gathered at their home on twenty-seventh street and gave them a genuine surprise party. A pleasant time was spent in playing games and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

The ladies' auxiliary of the K. of C. gave one of their enjoyable dancing parties Friday evening at the Congress dancing academy.

Robert A. Pyper of Ogden and Miss Cordelia Webb of Salt Lake City, two popular young people were married this week.

Miss Lena Clark of Salt Lake City and Mr. Stonecipher.

"The Patent Medicine Evil" was the subject of an interesting discussion Wednesday afternoon at the meeting of the W. C. T. U. Those who took part in the program were Miss Leota Kennedy, Miss Susie Simms, Mrs. Sarah Rosman, Mrs. Eva Blackington, Mrs. Bradley and Mrs. Devlin.

Mrs. Dr. S. L. Birch entertained a few of her lady friends Tuesday afternoon at a Kensington.

At the St. Joseph's Catholic church Tuesday afternoon Rev. Father Ryan performed the ceremony which united a bond of wedlock, Joseph Sceller and Miss C. Lefebvre, two popular young people of Blackfoot, Idaho.

Miss Susie Arnold and Henry E. Birch, two of Ogden's highly esteemed young people were married this week.

Hon. David Eccles accompanied by wife and two daughters, left Ogden Thursday for an extended trip through the east and Cuba.

Mrs. G. B. Roberts left Ogden Wednesday evening for St. Paul and other western cities to spend a month with relatives.

Much interest is being manifested in the lecture to be delivered Tuesday evening at the Tabernacle by Prof. John B. DeMott on "The Harp of the Senses."

PROVO.

The Utah Sorosis met Wednesday afternoon with Miss Francella Adams. An interesting paper on "The Saxon Dynasty" was given by Mrs. Hattie Satter. Reviewed Bayview Magazine No. 1. Roll all was answered by members with quotations from some early German and acts about him.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday with Mrs. David Westwood. Rev. George Townsend gave a highly appreciated address on "Breeding." A number of invited guests of the members were present.

The Pallas club met with Miss Wilmette Sperry Thursday evening. An interesting program was rendered, and refreshments were served.

The Priscilla club was entertained by Miss Bessie Eastmond Friday. The usual interesting program was rendered. Refreshments were served.

The Five Hundred Card club met with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Jr. Wednesday night. Mrs. W. B. Searle has awarded the ladies' prize, and Mr. B. Irvine, Jr., the gentlemen's prize. Refreshments were served.

The Priscilla club will give a ball at the Hotel Roberts on the evening of the 21st.

Ed. L. Sloan was here from Salt Lake his week visiting friends.

The Sixth ward Y. L. M. I. A. sewing club held its session with Miss Mary McCulloughs this week. After the evening's program refreshments were served, and a social time enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Taylor of Lake View have returned from a trip to Los Angeles. While there they visited Mr. and Mrs. George W. Thayer, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Loose and Mr. and Mrs. L. Holbrook have gone to California on a pleasure trip.

Mrs. Sam Schwab and Miss Elsie Coors left with the Elks' excursion for California today.

Miss Fern Monk visited friends in bringville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Tyng, of American Fork, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Warner, Sunday.

The ladies of the Macabees entertained Tuesday evening in the club rooms. An interesting program was rendered and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Oscar Wilkins and children left Thursday for Los Angeles to join her husband, who has engaged in business here. The family expect to reside in Los Angeles for several years.

Mrs. L. L. Nelson entertained at dinner Sunday; covers were laid for ten.

Miss Grace Harding is down from Jarland visiting relatives.

Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry is back from Denver, where she has been visiting her son, Owen.

The people of the Second ward enjoyed an old-time dancing sociable Wednesday night in the ward house. Many former members of the ward were guests of the occasion, and a delightful social evening passed.

The Mystic club gave a brilliant reception in the university Saturday evening. The rooms were most artistically decorated, dancing and refreshments were enjoyed. Messrs. Schwab, Irvine, Barney and Dusenberry officiated as chaperones.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Roberts entertained the Five Hundred Card club at the Hotel Roberts Wednesday evening. All the members were present and enjoyed the popular game of Elva.

W. B. Searle and Mr. R. R. Irvine. An elaborate lunch was served.

Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Keeler spent a few days of this week in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Loose left Wednesday evening for Los Angeles, Cal. They were accompanied by Miss Rhoda Douglas.

Mrs. Elizabeth Williams entertained at her home Tuesday afternoon in honor of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Lucia. About twenty young people enjoyed an afternoon of games, music and various amusements. A dainty dinner was served.

Miss Birdie Hanson was the pleasing hostess at a dinner party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jorgen Hanson, Tuesday evening. About thirty young people enjoyed an evening of cards, music and recitations. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Phil Speckart and Miss Arvilla Clark were Salt Lake visitors a few days this week.

Miss Via Finlayson of Payson spent Thursday visiting friends in this city.

The Woman's Republican club met Monday evening at their club room and enjoyed a pleasant social and musical evening.

Miss Lizzie Evans entertained a few friends at dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for ten.

Miss Olive Pratt was the charming hostess at a dinner party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pratt, Thursday evening. Fourteen guests enjoyed a sumptuous dinner, after which the party enjoyed the basket ball game at the university.

Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Nelson entertained a number of their friends at their home Sunday evening. Sixty-three was the game played and enjoyed by all. An elaborate lunch was served.

Miss Eppie Coray of Payson visited Thursday in Provo Thursday.

Little Miss Minyon Startup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Startup, was pleasantly surprised at the home of her parents Friday evening by about twenty of her young friends. The evening passed merrily in games and various amusements. Refreshments were served.

Mr. W. A. R. Loose has returned to Bodie, Cal., after a pleasant visit with friends in this city.

Postmaster Booth of Brigham spent Friday in Provo, the guest of Postmaster Clove.

LOGAN.

Logan Feb. 8.—On Monday evening last Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Naylor entertained a number of friends at dinner at the Hawks hotel. The day marked the fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Naylor and the table decorations and place cards were very dainty and appropriate. Covers were laid for 10, there having been present be-

EFFECTIVE USE OF FUR.

One of the newest brettele bodice coverings is here illustrated, made of shirred gray chiffon cloth edged with narrow sable bands and worn over a charming waist of spangled gray tulle. A big, jeweled, silver butterfly apparently fastens the bretteles in front. The long, graceful skirt is of gray chiffon cloth mounted over a foundation of gray orkido silk.

side the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Budge, Prof. and Mrs. George W. Thatcher, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Langton.

This week's meeting of the A. C. Woman's club was held at the home of Mrs. George W. Thatcher, Jr., topics were given by Mrs. Bexell, Mrs. S. Langton, Prof. and Mrs. George W. Thatcher, Jr., Miss Ora Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanson entertained very pleasantly on Monday evening in honor of Mr. Harvey Hall. Those present were Misses Afton and Genevieve Thatcher, Sophia Poulson, June and Harriet Blair, Eva and Olla Johnson, Mildred Daniels, Virginia Blair, Messrs. Harvey Blair, Burns Woolley, Seth Hanson.

Mrs. Severine Jepperson, Jr., and Miss Blanche Bishop were married on Wednesday. They are among the

Genuine Sale of Valenciennes Lace

Attractive Reductions on Edges and Insertions commencing Monday Morning

VERY fine French and German Valenciennes Edges and Insertions, the pick of the lace making countries of the world, in bolts of 12 yards each, ranging from 30c to $1.90 a bolt, to be sold at a reduction of from 10 to 30 per cent. Genuine reductions—every sale backed by the reputation of Z. C. M. I. We desire, however, in a spirit of straightforwardness to remind you that at these prices we cannot possibly sell less than a bolt to a customer. If you have not immediate use for twelve yards, you will find it profitable to have a supply on hand at these prices. Fine qualities, beautiful designs—commencing Monday morning

10 to 30 % off

Long Silk Gloves

Fashionable Gloves Placed on Sale Monday Morning For One Week.

The celebrated "Kayser" Silk Gloves, 12 button length, black and white. Extra heavy Milanese Silk, double finger tips. Fashion decrees that long gloves will be worn more than ever this spring. Special for one week, per pair

$2.00

Z. C. M. I. Where You Get the Best. Z. C. M. I.

OUR DRUG STORE IS AT 112-114 MAIN STREET