LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fourth Quorum of Seventies.—Members of this Quorum are requested to meet in the Council Room on Tuesday evening next at 7 o'clock.

W. H. Tovey, Clerk.

Theatre.—There was a full house last evening to witness the play of "The Two Orphans," by the popular Home Dramatic Company. Although for some cause, not quite up to their usual excellence, yet it was a fine entertainment, and some of the acting was exceptionally fine.

So Close.—So far no clue has yet been found to the perpetrator of the outrage at the residence of Mr. G. D. Schell yesterday morning, in the Seventeenth Ward. Evidently the person that gained considerable ground that it was done by Richard Matthews, is entirely incorrect.

The New Compendium.—The Compendium of the doctrines of the Gospel, compiled by Apostle F. D. Richards and Elder James A. Little is selling rapidly, the bookbinder having considerable difficulty in maintaining the supply necessary to meet the demand. The work is on sale at this office.

A Burglary.—The other night a store kept by Mr. W. D. Newsome, in the 11th Ward, was burglarized, and the thief got away with the cash of the establishment, amounting to about nine dollars.

The burglar gained ingress by one of the windows. A suspicious looking prowler who had been lurking around the premises for several days previous, is suspected, but he has not been caught.

Exponent.—We have before us the latest issue of the Woman's Exponent. It contains: What does it matter to me? E. H. Woodmansee; The Woman Suffrage Act sustained; Salt Lake; Communication from Emily Scott; Advice to Mrs. Scott; John Cowan; Biographical sketch of M. I. Horne, going to the Convention; Editorial; Home Affairs; September Walk; H. T. H. Poetry; Hattie F. Clough; Essay; Rebecca Goddard; and other matter.

A "Bik."—Last night a fellow who had been imbibing rather freely of intoxicants entered the White House and procured some refreshments. When the night clerk requested payment he referred him to other parties, who refused to have anything to do with the matter. He was ordered out, when he became abusive and finally struck the clerk. He later retaliated on the fellow's head with a club. In the scuffle, the fellow, in which there was a large force, was knocked over, and continued to be a nuisance for a brief space.

Rapid Butter-Making.—At 12 o'clock to-day, in front of Mr. H. H. Clawson's wagon and machinery establishment, near the Council House, the proprietor of the Breakwater Churn, gave a practical illustration of the merits of that article. It ought to be called the lightning churn. A gallon of thin cream was turned into it, and our reporter stood, watch in hand, while the manipulator whirled the little contrivance, the time taken to bring the butter being one minute and seven seconds to a dot. We understand from the proprietor that the average time is a little less than two minutes. The churns will be on sale with Mr. Clawson.

A Burglary Thief.—This morning a young fellow named J. Lee was before Justice Spiers on a charge of burglary and grand larceny. It appears that last evening an old gentleman named Beers, a lawyer, into which he had forced an entrance by the window. Mr. Beers called him, but the thief came near by getting the better of him, when Mr. H. Heath, who resides near by, rushed to his assistance. Some of Mr. Beers' property was found on Lee's person. He was committed to the grand jury on the charge upon which he was taken before the

MARVELOUS ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

A TEAM AND WAGON DESTROYED AND FOUR PEOPLE UNHURT.

On Wednesday last a man named Nielson, from Gunnison, Sanpete County, was driving a wagon across the DeWae & Rice Grand Western track, at the point where it passes over the road near Springville. Besides himself three ladies were in the wagon. The vehicle being covered and as it was raining, the driver could not see on either side of him. The engine of a train struck the outfit between the horses and the wagon and carried team, vehicle and inmates a distance of 112 feet. The horses were injured so they had to be killed; the harness cut to pieces and the wagon crushed into fragments. Marvellous as it may appear all four of the people escaped without a scratch. The whistle of the train was not blown, and as the wonderful affair occurred on the traveled wagon road, the railroad company will doubtless make good the damage.

Mobocratic Measures.—For some time past threats have been made by the pious Pharisees and others residing in Burke County, North Carolina, to drive out the Elders by force from the county, if they will not leave by any other means.

From a letter dated Morganton, Sept. 25, from Elder Charles T. Brain, we extract the following: "I spoke of a report, in my last letter, that was circulated in this (Burke) county in effect that we 'Mormon' Elders would be driven out of the county by a mob. Some of the 'prominent citizens' of Burke County called a meeting on the 15th and issued a proclamation directed to us, giving us twenty days from that date to clear out of the locality. Ten of the twenty days have elapsed and we are here yet and intend to remain until the proper authority says leave. The resolutions have been published in two papers, and are now spread throughout the land, but I don't apprehend any danger from such unlawful proceedings, unless some drunken mob is sent after us to enforce what they suppose to be law. I was in town (Morganton) on the 23d, and was made a subject for conversation, doubtless being considered quite audacious, bold and barefaced in entering into their city under such circumstances. But the people could not content themselves by talking, so they sent a drunken mob to order me to leave the country. He handed me a copy of the resolutions passed by the 'prominent citizens' of Burke County, and insisted upon my reading it. I took no notice of him at first, but thinking that by reading the paper I would get rid of him, I did so, but he still continued his harangue. I finally asked him by what authority he demanded I should leave the country, but he could not tell me. I told him to attend to his own business. I was then surrounded by quite a mob, who threatened to whip me with hickories if I did not depart. I took as little notice of them as possible and answered their numerous questions by silence and as soon as practicable got out of their reach. I am now studying law for future development. I do not know how the matter will terminate, but knowing what I am doing, I care less for God rules and reigns, and I feel first rate."

The New Volume.—The first number of volume four of the Contributor is before us. It is enlarged to forty pages, containing one-fourth more matter than formerly, and presents as neat an appearance mechanically as the most fastidious could reasonably desire. We have already published the table of contents, and it is not necessary, consequently, to dwell on that point. We cannot, however, omit once more alluding to the fine steel engraving portrait of the late President George A. Smith in this number, as it is seldom one sees so faithful a representation of the original in a likeness as this excellent picture affords.

The Contributor is doing a good work. It contains the pen productions of some of the brightest writers in the community and develops much latent literary ability, by providing an excellent outlet for the written reflections of the youth of Zion. It is worthy of all the patronage it can obtain. We wish it continued success in its mission of usefulness.

The Concert in the Tabernacle.—The mammoth concert in the Tabernacle to-night, for the benefit of the Deceased Sunday School Union will be likely to draw an immense audience. The excellence of the entertainment and the commendable character of the object makes a double inducement. The doors will be open at 6 o'clock, and performance commence at 7. The admission will be to the two centre rows of seats on the ground floor and east end of gallery, 50 cents; Children under 12 years of age, 25 cents; side seats on the ground floor and balcony of gallery, 25 cents; Children under 12 years of age, 15 cents.

A Runaway.—About three o'clock this afternoon a horse belonging to H. B. Clawson, ran away from near his business establishment. (At the News corner) it struck against and knocked down a young woman named Miskelson. Fortunately she was not much hurt. The animal continued on its course along the sidewalk, creating an exciting stampede of a number of people near the Eagle Gate, as it came near dashing into the crowd. Mr. Clawson took Miss Miskelson to the place where she is stopping in a conveyance.

Ornamental Lettering.—Mr. W. C. Morris has completed another specimen of his skill as an artistic letterer and ornamentalist. In that department we do not suppose he has his equal, to say nothing of a superior in the above window of display is on the above window of Mr. C. C. Morris' music store, which looks very brilliant and handsome when lighted up in the evening. The work on the upper portion of the front is also greatly to be admired.

SALT LAKE THEATRE.—The celebrated sensation drama of Jessie Brown which will be produced to-night at the Theatre by the McKenzies-Lindsay-Margets-Graham Combination, is one of the best and most successful of Boulevard plays. No piece ever produced in the Salt Lake Theatre has met with greater success. Abounding in the most startling and thrilling incidents it also affords scope for comical talent of which Messrs. Graham and Margets will doubtless take advantage and send their audience home in good humor.

A large class on the Guitar can be taught at 15 cents per lesson. Thorough—practical. If you doubt, test it. Those enrolled will also receive a course at much less expense than by the old method of individual lessons. Those preferring the latter can also be accommodated at reasonable rates. We have noted with pleasure the good work of Brother Evan Stephens. His success should encourage us all to work for the good of the people at large. The 21 pupils selected from the Sabbath Schools for one term on the Organ grills were to have commenced this week, but owing to a few Wards not reporting, those classes will be held until next Monday, when it is hoped all will be ready. Our terms to additional classes will be 20 cents per lesson for each organ or guitar. Two lessons per week. Also classes in Telegraphy at 10 cents a lesson. Very cheap and useful.

Respectfully, FLORA SHIFF HILL, H. J. HILL, Box 227, 1st South, opposite 14th Ward

TO THE PEOPLE.

The high tuition exacted by professors of music has placed its acquirement in the hands of comparatively few, and beyond the reach of many. Hundreds of dollars are sometimes spent in obtaining a knowledge of music, and many who have made a good start, who are prevented by circumstances. The public demand a change. In the interest of THE PEOPLE we have arranged a system of classes for the piano and guitar, whereby the youth of our city who have not already engaged teachers, can have an opportunity of learning music, with a fair prospect of obtaining a thorough course at much less expense than by the old method of individual lessons. Those preferring the latter can also be accommodated at reasonable rates. We have noted with pleasure the good work of Brother Evan Stephens. His success should encourage us all to work for the good of the people at large.
