ELECTION RETURNS.

NEW YORK.

New York, 7.—Sixty-one election districts out of 68; give Folger 16,792 and Cleveland 45,855.

8 p.m.—Returns from various parts of the State show uniform and heavy democratic gains, giving Cleveland apparently a fabulous majority. Howard Carroll runs ahead, but is probably swamped with the rest of the ticket. Waitey republican, is elected to Congress.
The democrats carry the other districts.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, 7.—Scattering returns from the State show large democratic gains over the vote of last year. Patterson has undoubtedly carried this city, and will have a plurality of over 20,000 in the State.

Berk county gives Patterson 7,935 majority; Lehigh county gives Patterson 3,000 majority; Lackawanna county, Beaver's plurality about 1,300; Carbon county gives Patterson about 1,000 plurality; Northampton county, Patterson 4,000 plurality; Bradford county, Beaver's plurality about 400; Union county, 10 townships, give Beaver 46 plurality.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, 7.—Election in this city very quiet; an average vote polling. Over 100,000 tickets were issued and all arrangements for gathering returns, nothing can be known of the result to-night. Much scratching, and probably some will be elected on both tickets, but the commonly received opinion is that the democrats will have a majority of 2,000 or 3,000 in the general ticket. Reports from the interior indicate a full vote. It is believed the prohibition ticket will have 5,000 votes in the State at large, and this, with the defection from the republicans on account of Sunday, is likely to give the State to the democrats.

NEBRASKA.

Omaha, 7.—Quite a large vote was cast in Nebraska. The republican tickets were in the field, republican, democratic and anti-monopoly. Over 90,000 votes were cast. The republican majority at the last State election was 11,000, but it will be largely reduced this year by the democratic vote and by the increased vote of the anti-monopolists, who are mostly defeated republicans.
The indications are that Daves republican, is elected governor by 14,000 majority, though it is claimed by some that the republican ticket is much less than this.

NEVADA.

San Francisco, 7.—Advices from Carson and Reno, Nev., indicate the democrats have elected the governor, but the republicans elect Powers, congressman, over Cassidy.
The result is still doubtful.

WYOMING.

Cheyenne, 7.—M. E. Post, democrat, at present delegate to Congress, from Wyoming, is re-elected.

COLORADO.

Denver, 7.—Chaffee, Chairman of the State Central Committee, at 12 o'clock says the republican ticket elected by reduced majorities, and the election of a large majority of the Legislative ticket.

The democratic headquarters estimate Grant's majority for Governor at least 8,000; Wallace, Democrat, 1,500. Democrat State ticket all elected. Large gains in the Legislature; House democratic, but whether on joint ballot unable to say.

ARIZONA.

Tucson, 7.—Vote large all over the Territory. Our's (democrat) election for Congress certain. Legislature probably democratic.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Va., 140 a. m.—The democrats elect the governor and Congressmen in the First, Third, Sixth and Eighth Districts. The Coalitionists claim the election of J. C. Wise for Congress at large, by 1,000, and claim Congressmen in the First, Second, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth Districts.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, 7.—Virginia's colored vote adhered close to Mahone's ticket. The 9th Congressional District probably elects Felson, democrat.

Frederick, Md., 7.—Israel Goff, colored, was killed by a policeman in a free fight at the polls.

BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, Md., 7.—Up to noon three-fourths of the city vote is polled; snowing again, and polling lighter. The independent judiciary ticket is receiving a heavy vote.

DELAWARE.

Wilmington, Del., 7.—Full vote; both parties claim the State. The majority of either will be in the hundreds.

FLORIDA.

Peninsula, 7.—Result of vote unknown, but the republicans have carried the county by a small majority.

GEORGIA.

Atlanta, 10 p.m.—The Constitution's special indicate a full democratic delegation. Speed and Felton are both defeated.

MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, 7.—Congressional election returns are meagre, but suggest the election of Mulgrave, Morse, Singleton and Bar-kdale, democrats.

MISSOURI.

St. Louis, 7.—Weather fine, vote fair. Indications of a sweeping democratic majority.

LOUISIANA.

Washington, 7.—Senator Gilson telegraphs that Hunt and Ellis, democrats, are elected in Louisiana, and the prospects are good for an entire democratic delegation.

KENTUCKY.

Hartford, 7.—Vote light; but very close.

INDIANA.

There is a probability that the democrats have elected their State ticket, and elect three congressmen.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, 7.—Weather cloudy; indications of a large vote. A great deal of splitting.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, 7.—The election of White, Wakefield, Stewart and Washburne in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th districts is considered certain by the republicans.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, 7.—Indications of a very full vote. Much scratching is done. To-night's report will be completed with the vote for Governor in 1880, which gave the republicans a plurality of 9,355.

EVANSVILLE.

Evansville, Ind., 7.—Light vote; good many arrests of negroes and their vouchers.

INDIANAPOLIS.

Indianapolis, 7.—Twenty voting places show a republican loss of 500 being a net democratic gain of 74 over the vote for governor in 1880.
At the same time this would give the democratic State ticket a small majority.

10.40 p.m.—Twenty voting places heard from show a net democratic gain of 74.

11.30 p.m.—Seventy-five voting places show republican loss 708, democratic loss 528, being a net democratic gain of 180.

IOWA.

Des Moines, 8, 1.20 a.m.—From returns received up to this hour, the State registrar put the republican majority in the State over the democrats at 40,000, and 20,000 over all, with republican congressmen certain.

NEW JERSEY.

Camden, N. J., 7.—Robeson, republican, is elected by 5,000 majority. Brewer, republican, for Congress, in the second district is re-elected by about 700 majority.

Robeson, republican, for Congress, is defeated by Ferrill, democrat, by about 600 majority.

REBORN'S OWN WARD GAVE A DEMOCRATIC

majority of 105.

New Jersey legislative vote will be close, but the democrats probably have a majority on joint ballot.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, 7.—Ben. Butler's manager claims the State for him by 15,000.
The republicans hope to elect Butler by 5,000.

7.15 p.m.—Six cities in Massachusetts give the following for governor: Bishop, 10,776; Butler 11,259.
The republicans concede Butler a majority of 20,000; the democrats claim 25,000.

Wm. Whiting, republican, for Congress, is elected in the eleventh district by 1,201; six precincts of the republican ticket are elected in the republican ticket is much less than this.

BOSTON, 8, 2.25 a. m.—Indications are that the house will stand 150 republicans and 90 democrats, a gain of 15 democrats over last year.

ILLINOIS.

Waterloo, Ill., 7.—Jake Faltz was killed by Sid Burns at the polls.

Chicago, 7.—Chairman of the republican State committee says R.
D. Dorman, republican, is elected to Congress in the first district; Jno.
F. Finley, independent, in the second district; also W. C. Kuffner, republican, has defeated Wm. R.
McDonnell, democrat.

Midnight.—Forty-one precincts give Hancock, republican, for sheriff, 7,548; McGarigle, democrat, 7,038; eleven precincts of the first district give Hancock, republican, 2,371; Doane, democrat, 1,549; eight precincts of the third district give Davis, republican, 1,841; Black, democrat, 1,201; six precincts of the fourth district give Davis, republican, 1,513; Tree, democrat, 1,433.

WISCONSIN.

Milwaukee, 7, 10.02 p. m.—The chairman of the democratic State committee claims five, probably six, out of the nine Congressmen, a democratic gain. The republican advices concede democratic gains, but are silent on the congressional elections. The fourth district resulted in the election of Dexter, democrat. Reports indicate eight democratic gains all over the congressional district.

TEXAS.

Galveston, 7.—Day fine. State ticket solid for the democrats.

Dallas, 7.—The democrats swept North Texas. The republican ticket lost in the seventh district. Phil-bern, Mills, Throckmorton, Smith and Reagan are elected to Congress by increased majorities. Ireland for governor, and the entire democratic State ticket by an enormous majority. The legislature is overwhelmingly democratic.

TENNESSEE.

Memphis, 6.—Weather fine. Indications of a light vote. Cassy Young, democrat, is probably elected.

Nashville, 7.—Indications are that Bate is elected governor by a considerable majority over Hawkins, republican. Democratic congressmen are elected from six districts.
Warner, democrat, is probably defeated by Fillman, independent.
The democrats have probably 85 out of 130 members of the legislature.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, 7.—Light vote; conspicuous absence of colored voters in heavy colored precincts, said to be working elsewhere.

James F. Clay, democrat, is elected to Congress in the second district; T. A. Robinson, democrat, is successful; and Proctor Knott in fourth.
Albert S. Willis is re-elected in fifth; John C. Carlisle in sixth; J. C. S.
Blanchard in seventh; Phil B.
Thompson, democrat, is probably elected in the eighth; Gen.
Frank Walford is almost certainly elected in the ninth; Haskel, democrat, in the tenth; and Calhoun, republican, is elected.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Wilmington, 7, 11.45 p.m.—Indications are the democrats State ticket will have a greater majority than in 1880. The legislature is undoubtedly democratic. The congressional delegation is probably 8 democrats, 1 republican.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Washington, 7.—Col. Henderson of the republican executive committee, has a dispatch from A.
V. Des, republican candidate for Congress, in the second district of South Carolina, saying a riot occurred at the polls near Florence in that district, this morning, and two

There is a probability that the democrats have elected their State ticket, and elect three congressmen.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, 7.—Weather cloudy; indications of a large vote. A great deal of splitting.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, 7.—The election of White, Wakefield, Stewart and
Washburne in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th districts is considered certain by
the republicans.

ounded and the election broken up.

Charleston, 7.—Returns from the congressional districts indicate the election of Dibbles, Tallman, Aiken and Evans, democrats, and Mackey republican. The other districts are in doubt.

RHODE ISLAND.

Providence, 7.—Rhode Island elects both republican congressmen.

Returns are received from every town in the two congressional districts. In the first, Spooner, republican, has 3,515; Latham, 1,491; scattering, 15; Spooner's majority, 2,000.
In the second district, Jonathan Chase, 2,349; Wheeler, democrat, 1,531; scattering, 62; Chase's majority, 1,812.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord, 7, 9 p.m.—The vote of 77 towns gives Hale, rep., 9,688; Edgerly, dem., 9,981.

Portsmouth, 7.—Private advices to prominent politicians indicate the probable election of Edgerly, democrat, for governor. Both branches of the legislature are republican.

Dover, 7.—Based upon a prominent republican politician, is arrested on a charge of abusing democratic voters.

Concord, 7.—One hundred and five towns give Hale, rep., 14,908; Edgerly, dem., 15,048.

VERMONT.

Montpelier, 7.—The joint assembly for the election of State officers met in the hall of the House this afternoon and the following officers were elected: Secretary of State, Nichols; Auditor of Accounts, E. H.
Powell; Brigadier Commander, Lt.
J. Kingsley; Adjutant and Inspector General, T. S. Peck; Quartermaster General, H. K. Ide.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

WASHINGTON, 7.—The annual report of Gen. Sheridan is given to the public to-day. It is accompanied by the reports of the division commanders, of Gen. Sheridan, and of Inspector General Sackett. The report shows the general staff to consist of 575 officers and 1,273 enlisted men. The army proper consists of 2,163 officers and 23,024 men; 25 regiments of infantry, 877 officers and 8,778 men; total, including unattached men detailed at remote points, 2,163 officers and 23,024 men. He says the experience of the world shows that but 68 per cent. of an army is available for active service, and as 25,000 are really needed for the standing army, he recommends that the limit of the army be increased to 30,000 officers and men. The men in the army are now, he says, overworked and must continue so unless the number is increased. He reviews the work of the regiments in detail, and arriving at the conclusion that there have been a less number of Indian
