NARROW ESCAPE.

Tons of Blasted Rock Smash Wagon But Miss Andrew McKinney.

(Special to the "News.")

Logan, Nov. 4.—Andrew McKinney of this city had a narrow escape from a horrible death yesterday while passing Brown's rock quarry with his team and wagon. Just as he got abreast of the quarry an extra large blast was touched off with the result that tons of rock went hurtling through the air. A huge rock weighing several tons struck the rear part of the wagon and effectually wrecked it. Mr. McKinney was unhurt, but has been going around ever since with his heart in his mouth.

Hilarious Soldiers Explode Blank Cartridges With Disastrous Effect to J. C. Peck.

CHICAGO DRUMMER IS HURT.

Story of Colored Pullman Porter Who Took in a Stranger and Then Police Took Him.

(Special to the "News.")

Ogden, Nov. 4.—J. C. Peck, a traveling salesman from Chicago, met with a painful accident at the Union station at 7:30 this morning with the result that he will lose an eye.

The returning troops and members of the Twelfth infantry on their way home to Fort Douglas from the military maneuvers at Fort Riley arrived here early this morning and during the time they lay over here they amused themselves by putting blank cartridges upon the tracks thereby making a great racket. They were repeatedly warned of the danger of the practice by the depot police, but persisted. At last a cartridge was placed in front of an advancing switch engine. It went off with the usual report and a fragment of the brass shell struck Mr. Peck in the eye as he was crossing the tracks to catch the Salt Lake train. The eye-ball was cut very badly by the fragment and he immediately sought Dr. Brooks, who bandaged the eye and told him that it would be impossible to save it, and that he had better go on to Salt Lake and get operated upon. He accordingly left on this morning's train.

PULLMAN PORTER IN TROUBLE. J. L. Amos, a colored porter on the Rio Grande, was arrested last night by officers Burk and Farr on the complaint of a young man named George Peters who said that the porter had robbed him. From the story told by Peters he desired to go to Omaha and made arrangements with Amos to look him in the patty on the Pullman, for which services he agreed to pay him $1.50. At the time appointed he went down the yards, entered the car and went to sleep. Upon awakening he missed from his pocket a $5 gold piece and a postoffice order for $31. Making an excuse that he was sick he left the car and found the officers who returned and placed the porter under arrest. A $5 gold piece was found on Amos when searched, while the money order was picked up in the car by the officers.

ARRESTED FOR ROBBERY. Last night Officers Hutchins and Hadlock arrested two men who gave the names of Billy Mahew and Charles Defater. They were accused of entering a man whose name is not known at this time, into a poolroom where they robbed him of a watch. After the arrest the watch was found in a sack belonging to Mahew.

HE MET THE BURGLAR. As James Olson was returning home yesterday afternoon he met a man coming out of the house. He thought at first that he was a visitor from the apartments of another family which resided in the same house. When he entered his bedroom, however, he changed his mind. The room had been thoroughly searched and a decidedly close shave for burglars in search of loot. After taking stock Olson found that the visitor had made away with $10 he found in a purse in a drawer. The police are in hot pursuit.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA. New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the burning test the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

REPORT OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR ITS SUPPRESSION.

Copies of a report of the international committee for the suppression of the drug habit are being received in this city from New York, the headquarters of the society, showing the work achieved by the organization; and the same is being commended to the drug fiends of Salt Lake and surroundings. The report says:

"It is always difficult to raise funds for an object the evils of which are concealed from public view. Victims of the drug habit rarely make known their misfortune, dreading social ostracism and other serious results. An editor of one of the most prominent papers in the state, who himself was a drug victim, while in the office of the secretary of the committee, declared that the antipathy to the victim of the drug habit was unparalleled except in the case of those afflicted with leprosy. A young man, an attorney, a grandson of a prominent clergyman in the state of Pennsylvania, walked the streets of New York three days and nights vainly seeking shelter. He said it was either remedy or the North river; that had been an ex-convict, a prostitute or a drunkard more sympathy would have been shown him. Benevolent persons might have raised funds to send him to some institution to be reformed. But he declared that the only thing to do with these unfortunate victims was to shoot them as fast as they were made. This young man was clothed, fed and treated free of charge. He was restored to perfect health and returned to his chosen profession. Another drug victim, whose father had been rector of one church for 27 years, concealed his misfortune from his friends.

He called on the committee, but they had exhausted their resources and it was impossible to raise funds to assist him. To make known his condition was to exclude himself from even the most mental employment. In view of such cases as this funds are needed with which to cure these unfortunate victims without publicity. It is indeed to reflect that there are over 1,000,000 of people in this country addicted to the drug habit, and that the need is rapidly increasing. If not cured it is only a question of time when they will become confirmed mental, moral and physical wrecks. The victims of the drug habit live in more squalid conditions than the slaves in the brickyards of Egypt or the cotton fields of the south. No one can tell how soon he may become a victim of this terrible habit. If any that some of our nearest and dearest are subject to it.

Through the instrumentality of the committee victims of the drug habit have been cured when they were addicted. An illustration of this may be seen in the case of a young man, one of the best, wealthiest and most influential families in Philadelphia, enlisted in the army during the Spanish-American war, he was killed and his family should learn of his having the drug habit. On his return he made known his misfortune to a clergyman in the city, who advised him to try the treatment. The secretary of our committee has a letter from that clergyman thanking him for having cured and saved that young man. To be more patriotic in our country who are in the enjoyment of worldly prosperity, who have no desire to spend their wealth in ostentatious display, but would be glad to bestow their money to help others, are seeking for the best possible object upon which to bestow their benevolence.

"The committee earnestly urges all those who wish to make a wise investment of their means to kindly look into the merits of the work in which we are engaged. The need is so urgent that funds with which to cure the poor at home without publicity. The members of the committee receive no compensation for their services nor do they expect any. There is also a great need of a home for those who require special treatment. A prominent physician at the head of the hospital in this city, who has witnessed the success of the treatment provided by the committee, says that no money ever given in usefulness for such a cause. In this direction. All contributions should be sent to the treasurer, W. W. Westcott, 31 Pine street, New York City, or to the secretary, Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. All information may be obtained from W. N. Ritchie, D. D., 156 Fifth avenue, room 911.

On behalf of the committee: "R. F. Sample, Thomas O. Conant, Francis E. Marsten, W. T. Sabine, H. C. King and W. N. Ritchie."

A BANANAS IN ANY HOME. Hard Times Book.

In all parts of the world there always have been and still are found certain persons, many of whom are of the highest intelligence and have discovered and learned how to use simple home remedies for all the ills of the flesh. Some of these persons have been experts in the cure of disease. These "experts" are generally of the type, though not always, or mothers of large families, who have acquired skill by long experience.

The fact had often been expressed that if some one would obtain and bring together from all over this and other countries all of these simple remedies and the method of applying them, he would confer upon mankind a boon equal to any invention of any age, one the value of which could hardly be estimated in dollars and cents.

To do this of course would involve immense labor and much expense, which naturally would deter almost anyone from making the attempt.

It however remained for the publishers of a book known as "Vitalogy" to undertake this herculean task, they bringing out a book under this title. In 1882 they began the work, and in 1928 they have finished it.

Drugs generally leave a deposit in the body that weakens or injures it for the rest of life. We often take medicine and think that the medicine cures us. Yet we get well in spite of the medicine. The following is a pertinent paragraph from the writings of the late Dr. P. P. Clayton: "No greater institution could be practised on the people than to foist upon them the so-called Family Doctor Books found in almost every home, that sell drug remedies. Only a trained physician is capable of prescribing. If some one would bring out a book of Home Remedies, regular giving money, and saving lives, and something that would be a blessing in every home."

The literary division of this book is, for all practical purposes, a part of it is of actual money value to the reader.—Morning Chronicle.

HOW CHEAP BAKING POWDER IS MADE.

A recent seizure of a lot of "cheap" baking powders by the authorities of a neighboring city has exposed the character of a neighboring city has characterized the "cheap" volume of "cheap" brands of baking powders which many manufacturers are offering throughout the country. The price of the powders has been reduced to a point where the samples were taken and analyzed. The official report of the analysis showed the stuff to be "alum powders," containing a large percentage of alum and sulphuric acid to which are added various sorts of filling matter sometimes both injurious and nasty.

The high class, cream of tartar baking powders are the most economical and wholesome and should always be selected for use. They will be found cheaper in the end, besides making the food better and more healthful.

Physicians have frequently cautioned consumers against mixing food with these so-called "cheap" baking powders. They are all found, when analyzed, to contain large percentages of alum and sulphuric acid to which are added various sorts of filling matter sometimes both injurious and nasty.
