

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY

VOL. I

SALT LAKE CITY, WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 6, 1883.

No. 142

BREVITIES.

The man who drinks lime juice plays his stomach a sorry trick.

A French professor is having a Chinese grammar printed in Germany.

It strains a man's philosophy the wist kind to laugh when he is beat.

How would you measure your lover's sincerity? By his sighs.

The county courts of Vermont are opened with prayer.

There is at Sheffield a knife with 1,883 blades, and one is added every year.

When do ladies carry fire? When they have taper fingers.

Forty cows are to be placed in Central Park, New York, and the milk sold to visitors.

Rain fell for thirty-five consecutive days in New Zealand, during the past winter.

Look before you leap. Certainly, why look behind?

It is easy enough to raise the devil, but he's a hard reaper to reap.

St. Louis gamblers pay a subsidy of $100 a week to the police.

The principal difference between a luxury and a necessity is the price.

Alex. Dumas' quill has earned 19,800,000 francs.

Queen Victoria has more than thirty tons of gold and silver plate.

Voting by proxy has been abolished in the English House of Lords.

At a prayer meeting, in New Hampshire, a worthy layman spoke of a poor boy whose father was a drunkard and whose mother was a widow.

A husband, on being told, the other evening, that his wife had lost her temper, replied that he was glad of it, for it was a very bad one.

Inquisitiveness is offensive. Tatling is mean. Telling lies is contemptible. Slandering is devilish.

When should a man dine? If rich, said Diogenes, when he likes; if poor when he can.

A Berlin railroad speculator has agreed to feed 1200 of the starving East Prussians for three months.

Pennsylvania prisons are so full that in all of them it is a rule to confine three or four convicts in each cell.

The best quality of mind that any one can come in possession of is the strength to bear up against disappointments and misfortunes.

An ingenious cobbler, who is known as a man of few words, and who is very provident of them, hit upon the following plan to save expense in painting all the letters of "Shoe Shop."

SHO P

A ball was recently given in Chicago for the benefit of the poor, which came within four thousand dollars of paying expenses. The Tribune publishes the balance-sheet and calls upon the poor to liquidate the bill forthwith.

As we stand by the sea shore and watch the huge tides come in, we retreat, thinking we will be overwhelmed; soon, however, they flow back. So with the waves of trouble in the world; they threaten us, but a firm resistance makes them break at our feet.

An old lady once said, that her idea of a great man was "a man who was careful of his clothes; didn't drink spirits; kin read the Bible without spelling the words, and kin eat a cold dinner on wash-day, to save the wimmen folks the trouble of cooking."

Artificial oil of bitter almonds is manufactured from the benzole of coal tar. A fine stream of benzole, and another of fuming nitric acid are allowed to run together in a worm kept well cooled. The liquids react on each other on coming in contact, heat is disengaged, and the artificial oil collected at the end of the worm is first washed with water, then with a solution of carbonate of soda, and lastly with water.

Only six very large diamonds are known in the world, and they are called paragon. Their names are "The Koh-i-noor" (in the possession of Queen Victoria), "The Star of the South," "The Regent" or "Pitt" diamond, "The Great Austrian" or "The Orloff" or "Great Russian," and the "Borovoi." The latter is in the possession of the Rajah of Malan, in Borneo. It is the largest known, weighing three hundred and sixty-seven carats, but it is in the uncut state.

The following is copied from an old Connecticut paper: "John Stibbing, Taylor, Shoemaker, and Astronomer. I also keep journeymen to do all kinds of carpenters and blacksmiths' work, and to hang bells, etc. Ane lady or Gentleman as bespeaks a coat or breeches may have it on Friday or Saturday without fail. N. B.—Being rumored that I intend leaving off business on account of my elected church warding, I hope my friends won't give ear to such blood-thirsty reports. John Stibbing."

A Countess of Anjou in the fifteenth century paid for one book 200 sheep, five quarters of wheat, and the same quantity of rye and mill; and the quantity of the loan of a book was considered to be an affair of such importance that in 1299 the Bishop of Winchester, on borrowing a bible from a convent in that city, was obliged to give a bond for its restoration, drawn up in the most solemn manner, and Louis XI, in 1471, was compelled to deposit a large quantity of plate, and to give some of his people to join with him in a bond, under a heavy penalty, to restore it, before he could procure the loan of a book which he borrowed from the faculty of medicine at Paris.
