TO HOLD CHINA RESPONSIBLE.
Paris, Aug. 19.—The French minister at Tokio has not yet communicated to the foreign office the text of a note which he has just received from the Russian minister at Paris, in which the Russian minister is not regarded as serious, international complications not being anticipated. It is believed that Japan will reply that she had the right to ascertain whether the vessel was dismantled and found that she was not wholly dismantled whereupon the Russian commander assaulted the Japanese commander, thus provoking a crisis. Russia will probably dispute the facts and the matter will hang over until the peace settlement.

The report that the Japanese consul at Shanghai has been ordered to inform China that she will be held responsible for the disarmament of the Askold and Grozovoi is officially confirmed. Well informed circles have no doubt that China will fulfill her obligations and they consider that the presence of numerous warships of various nationalities at Shanghai is sufficient guarantee that Japan will not attempt to violate the neutrality of the port.

STATUS OF THE ASKOLD.

Japs Getting Impatient at Delay in Decision of It.

Tokio, Aug. 19 (noon).—The Japanese are growing impatient at the delay in the decision of the status of the Askold cruiser at Shanghai. The Askold has been ordered to leave Shanghai and is expected to return to the Russian fleet and resume its place in the naval campaign. This is declared to be an open violation of neutrality which the Chinese government evidently is powerless to prevent. Many Japanese openly urge the dispatch of a squadron to Shanghai to seize and remove the Askold. The government is particularly desirous of respecting the neutrality of Shanghai, but it is unwilling to suffer the Askold to escape. It is possible that a Japanese squadron will go up to Shanghai and require that the Askold be dismantled, leaving her thereafter in the possession of the Chinese.

JAPANESE POSITION AT PALUNCHANG RETAKEN.

Chefoo, Aug. 19. (Noon).—Chinese who have arrived here from Port Arthur declare that the Japanese position at Palunchang, from which they poured a heavy fire into Port Arthur and the inner forts, has been retaken. The Japanese retreating to Shushien.

The German authorities at Tsing Tau have sent a guard of 100 men to a point 15 miles east of that place for the purpose of frustrating an expected attempt on the part of the Japanese to erect a wireless telegraph station. Chinese who embarked from Liaotieshan promontory at 11 o'clock yesterday morning report the continuance of heavy fighting. They say the Japanese have occupied Pichon bay and are within striking distance of the Liaotieshan forts which, however, are still occupied by the Russians.

According to the Chinese the Russians at Port Arthur are making their final stand.

JAP TREATMENT OF WOUNDED MEN

Benefits Are Derived from non Interference With Wounds On the Field.

PERCENTAGE OF RECOVERIES BIG

Effect of Extraordinarily High Speed of Small Caliber Bullets is to Produce Aneurisms.

Chefoo, Aug. 19.—Maj. L. L. Seaman, a specialist in military surgery, who has seen much of the Japanese hospitals and who has been with the Chunchesees, or Chinese bandits, near Mukden, has arrived at Chefoo. He consented to be interviewed and gave some interesting observations on the Japanese method of treating wounded men.

He says that the Japanese are giving proof of the benefits to be derived from the non-interference with wounds on the field, where they content themselves with the application of first aid bandages and antiseptics, leaving the more serious work to be done in the hospitals at home. This course is followed except where there is danger of the wounded men bleeding to death, or where his condition is very precarious. The result of this practice has been that many men suffering from bullet wounds at the front are nearly well when they reach Japan. On one hospital ship returning to Japan from the front there were 2,200 wounded men and there was not a single death on board during the trip. Three per cent will cover all the deaths among the wounded who have been returned to Japan after having received first aid treatment only. If the Japanese soldier is not killed outright the chances are that he will recover. His temperate habits and his plain and healthful diet of fish and rice, varied occasionally with meat, contribute much to his recovery.

Russian wounded, captured by the Japanese have been treated in a similar manner and the recovery among these men is scarcely less in proportion than among the Japanese.

A new complication has been discovered in the wounds sustained in this war due to the extraordinarily high speed of small caliber bullets, which produce aneurisms by their speed. Maj. Seaman saw 27 operations performed for the relief of this new condition.

After having spent some time in Japan, Maj. Seaman, accompanied by Capt. Charles E. Boyd of the Tenth United States cavalry, was the guest of Changtzerlin, a Chunchese chief near Shumtzing, where the Chunchese number 10,000 men. The major declares these men to be in the employ of the Japanese, who pay the infantry 15 taels a month and the cavalry 25 taels a month. There are many Japanese officers among these forces, who are used to harass the Russians.

During the visit of Maj. Seaman and Capt. Boyd the bandits brought in the heads of five Cossacks on pikes. These Cossacks had been part of a detachment of 35 men who were engaged in securing 1,000 head of cattle. After the bandits defiled the Russian detachment they appropriated the cattle. The Chunchese pride themselves on their horsemanship, and the visiting officers saw their welcome among them to some West Point riding tricks showed them by Capt. Boyd. The attack of the Chunchese on the Cossack detachment with the cattle resulted in a force of 3,000 Cossacks marching out to avenge the killing of their comrades. Thereupon the robbers' chief said his visitors had better go as he could not undertake to protect them. Consequently Maj. Seaman and Capt. Boyd left the bandits' headquarters.

DELIGHTFUL TRIP.

Later in the day he left for the coast, expecting to return to Salt Lake about the 30th of this month, at which time it is more than likely that he will give his famous "Musico-Literary Recital" in the Sixteenth ward assembly hall. The professor was much pleased with his visit to the Welsh metropolis of Idaho, where he was most royally received. The people for miles around turned out in honor of the gentleman's visit, the ORGAN RECITALS.

The One Yesterday Largely Attended—Tomorrow Afternoon's Program.

The attendance at yesterday afternoon's organ recital in the Tabernacle, numbered fully 1,500, and the function passed off with marked success. The program included Wely's great No. 4 Offertoire in G, the ever popular Jocelyn "Berceuse," and the "Church Scene" from "Cavalier Rusticana." The dramatic powers of the great organ are admirably adapted to the proper interpretation of the Offertoire, and the stringed qualities were well brought out in the "Church Scene" number. The crescendo effects being particularly fine.

The following program will be given at tomorrow afternoon's recital in the Tabernacle, at 5:30, and the popularity of the numbers will ensure a larger attendance than usual:

"Pretty Galatea" overture Sappe
"Pizzicato" from the ballet
"Sylvia" Delibes
"Meditation" Lemare
"Old Melody" Wagner
Overture to "Tanhauser" Wagner

THE "CORNER QUARREL."

One of the Newspaper Vendors Makes a Statement to the Public.

To the Editor of the Deseret News:—Occupying something of a public position, in that I am seeking to do a legitimate business on the public streets of this city, I consider it somewhat my duty to make a statement with reference to the very unpleasant controversy over the right to sell papers at the corner of First South and Main streets. I think it proper should make this public statement of the facts in the case, and when the public are aware of the facts I am willing that they shall judge of the fairness of my position in the matter.

The facts are as follows: A year ago last July William Henderson, who had been selling papers at the Godbe-Pitts corner for about two months, told me that he had been told by a man named Ida, that he would remain there about two months, and would then go on to Seattle, where he would remain until spring, selling papers and shoe laces, as the winters in Salt Lake were too cold for him; that he expected to return in the spring, and start a cigar stand at a hotel in Murray, where he could get his rent free. He returned some time during the following September, and started to selling papers at the Utah National bank corner, where he tried for about a week to run out Michael Wood, a cripple, who had been selling papers on that corner for some time. Failing in this he came over to the Godbe-Pitts corner, and begged me to let him have the place back, and out of sympathy for him, I gave it up and he moved back to the corner of Second South and Main streets, where I remained until last December. When he again told me he was going away and I might have the place back, I told him I did not want to give up my customers where I was to go up there, and then have him come back and claim the place again. He assured me that if I took him back he would not so far as he was concerned, as he was going to Denver and stay during the winter, and in the spring he would go to the world's fair, where he would stay for a year and perhaps not return. Upon his return from Denver, after an absence of seven months and four days, he came to me at the corner, and asked me to let him have the place back, and I told him I did not want to give up my customers where I was to go up there, and then have him come back and claim the place again. He assured me that if I took him back he would not so far as he was concerned, as he was going to Denver and stay during the winter, and in the spring he would go to the world's fair, where he would stay for a year and perhaps not return. STONE CARVER DEAD.

Reason Why Work Over Catholic Cathedral Arches Has Ceased.

Citizens passing the new Catholic cathedral have wondered why the work of carving over the entrances had been stopped. It was death that did it, and the old sculptor, James Whitehouse is no more. He was an old timer in his business, and did the carving on the elevation of the D. F. Walker block, the Emory Holmes apartment houses, and other prominent buildings. He was making excellent headway on the cathedral when he was called home some little time ago. Mr. Whitehouse's successor, it is believed, will be Walter Baird, a Scotchman of long experience in stone carving.

Contracts for the completion of the cathedral will be let in the course of the coming ten days. The estimated cost is figured at $20,000, so that the contracts will all be sizeable ones. The idea of having the steeples of terra cotta and steel has been given up, owing to the uncertainty of the stability of construction. It is learned that the terra cotta work loose in the steel framing, after a succession of heavy winds, and this would let in the rain. So the steeple will be built of stone, with the large illuminated crosses surmounting them. Active work is under way on the construction of the front approaches, and the roofing will be put on presently.

WITH MILITARY HONORS.

Remains of Former Bandmaster Geo. E. DeLavalie Laid to Rest.

The funeral of former Bandmaster George Edward DeLavalie of the Fourth U. S. artillery, was held this afternoon, from the chapel of Joseph William Taylor on West Temple street, with one of the Catholic fathers officiating. Connel Lockwood, commandant of Port Douglas, sent down an escort with the Twenty-ninth regiment band, and a funeral caisson, and ambulance for the mourners, and the casket, wrapped in the American flag, was carried to the military reservation, the interment occurring in the post cemetery with military honors.

The boys are anticipating a fine time, and are greatly pleased that the regulars are to be with them. A successful encampment is promised.

VIOLETTE CRAIG WEDS.

Young Actress Marries Will L. McAlister in Chicago and Surprises Friends.

Word was received from Chicago today announcing the marriage in that city of Will L. McAlister, son of the former manager of Salt Lake and grandson of the late President Lorenzo Snow, and Miss Violette Craig, both of this city. Both parties are well known here, the bride for the past four years having followed the stage as a profession. She was during two seasons and until recently connected with the Harry Corson Clark company, playing in the west and southwest. Locally she has appeared in several productions, including "Coriolanus." Mr. McAlister is associated with a local investment and express company. The young couple propose to remain in Chicago and the east for several months before returning to Salt Lake.

RUNAWAY HORSE.

Panic Stricken Animal Causes a Lively Scattering on East Temple.

A runaway horse attached to a light buggy, belonging to P. J. Moran, caused plenty of excitement on East Temple street today. The animal was hitched to a post, bridled, and broke away, it is supposed, after taking a short cut at the steam roller. He sped north to Third South street, turned west to West Temple, then went north to Second South and along the last named street until he collided with an express wagon at the intersection of Second South and East Temple streets. The only damage done was a broken shaft and a slightly tattered harness, but narrow escapes were numerous along the route.

PROVO CITIZEN DEAD.

Had Been a Resident of Utah for 52 Years and Leaves Large Family.

(Special to the "News.") Provo, Utah, Aug. 19.—Samuel Harding of the Third ward of this city died this morning after a severe illness of 13 months duration, and general debility.

Deceased was the son of Edward and Mary Harding, and was born July 29, 1828, at Tombridge, Kent, Eng. Was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints March 10, 1847, by Elder William Smith. He was married to Mary, nee Jeanette Stone, and the family started for Utah in 1852, arriving at Salt Lake in the fall of the same year. After they moved to Provo, where he has lived ever since. Mr. and Mrs. Harding had 12 children, 10 of whom, six boys and six girls, are living. They also have 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren. The Harding family were woolen manufacturers in the old country, and for some time Mr. Harding followed that business here. He also engaged in farming and stock raising, and was a Provo publican 30 years ago.

In addition to the immediate family mentioned above, Mr. Harding leaves two brothers and two sisters. Funeral services will be held in the Third ward meetinghouse, Provo, Sunday, at 11:30 o'clock.

LATE LOCALS.

The calendar dealers report an unusually dull August for this year, to their surprise, as the same month of last year was very good.

The state board of education will hold a meeting tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the office of State Superintendent Nelson for the purpose of considering the application of state teachers' certificates and diplomas.

Two car loads of fat beef cattle have been received at the Salt Lake stock yards, for local consumption, from the Sweetzer Land & Cattle company, at Yale, Idaho. The Sweetzers are Yale men, and have named their postoffice after their college.

The new Second South street entrance to the White House hotel was opened this morning, and the East Temple street entrance was closed up. The new entrance is handsomely vaulted and floored with oak, and leads up into the remodelled hotel reception apartments.

Local Express officials say the oft repeated and familiar yarn about the consolidation of express companies, still continues to be unsprung from entirely unauthorized sources, and affords considerable amusement in express circles. They state there is no prospect whatever of any such reported consolidation.

The attention of the "News" has been called to a nuisance existing near the hot springs, adjacent to the Salt Lake & Ogden railroad. It is in the nature of a "swimming hole" scooped out in the ditch, to which a number of boys, some of them in the teens, resort every afternoon. On the approach of the excursion trains, the swimmers make no effort to conceal themselves, but display the most brazen impudence. This was especially the case last evening, and proper authorities will doubtless abate the nuisance.

Cashell, be restored to her.

PRICE HAS BEEN REDUCED.

Butte Ball Fans May Now See Games For Only Fifty Cents.

(Special to the "News.") Butte, Mont., Aug. 19.—Providing the other towns in the league are willing, Butte ball fans will be given the chance of seeing games for 50 cents, including our fare to and from the Columbia Gardens park. An arrangement has been entered into between the ball club and Manager Wharton of the street railway company whereby each team ticket will be issued for 50 cents. Now it costs the fans 70 cents to see a ball game, 20 cents being necessary for the car fare to the grounds. The new arrangement will practically make the admission to the games only 30 cents, while but 10 cents more than is charged at Spokane.

All that now remains to be done to put the new plan into operation is to secure the consent of the other towns. This seems practically assured, as it is realized that unless the tickets of the Butte club can be increased it will be unable to conclude the season.

Under the constitution, said President Nelson, it requires unanimous consent to make any such change. McJocoy is in favor of the plan, and I think Spokane is Salt Lake remains to be heard from.
