

SALT LAKERS IN GOTHAM.

New York Relief Society Gives a Pleasant Musicales—
Salt Lake Students Coming Home—George W. Wright
And Wife Will Return to Utah After Twenty-Three Years' Absence.

Special Correspondence.

New York, June 22.—Monday, June 15, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cummings on west One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, the Relief society of the Latter-day Saints gave an entertainment for the benefit of that organization. Elder Cummings' hospitable house was thrown open for the occasion and people came from Brooklyn and Newark to meet with their New York friends. The musical part of the entertainment was under the direction of Mrs. Easton, President McQuarrie acting as master of ceremonies, which office he filled with perfect ease. Miss Shaffer, Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Higgins managed the refreshments; Mrs. Nettie Sloan, Miss Phyllis Thatcher, Miss Arminta Pett, Alfred Best, Jr., H. C. Easton and Lawrence Taylor, made up a program of exceptional excellence. Phyllis Thatcher's violin solos, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Sloan, were gems of beauty and artistic finish. Mrs. Sloan and Mr. Easton gave the duet, "Love is Blind," from the "Black Mambas," with all their old time brilliancy and dash. Mrs. Sloan's voice possesses the volume and sweetness of tone that distinguished it years ago, though she has some very little public singing for some time. At the National Conservatory, where she is studying piano with Joseph, she has taken up a course in singing with another professor, Alfred Best, Jr., sang one of De Koven's latest songs, with musicianly feeling. Miss Luella Ferrin, John Sharr, Miss Bertha Crawford, Misses Kate and Blanche Thomas and W. B. Dougall, Jr., were all down for numbers, but Miss Ferrin and Mr. Sharr were unable to leave their friend Miss Hardy, who has been very ill. The Misses Thomas were also unable to appear, owing to the heavy storms the city has been indulging in for a week past, which have left many with severe colds. Miss Ruth Hildreth and Miss Crawford were also victims of the weather and could not fill their places on the program. But with all the disappointments, the affair proved a success, artistically and financially, and the many friends who braved the storm felt repaid for coming. Mrs. Dr. Ferguson and her daughter Clara, Mr. A. N. Rosenbaum, Mrs. James Ferguson, her daughter Gladys, and her son Alan were among the guests. The 15th of June was the twenty-first anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Cummings' wedding, and after the program was finished a framed picture of the Elders of this conference was presented to them in a clever speech, by President McQuarrie. Refreshments and dancing completed an evening of rare enjoyment.

Miss Pett, with her niece, Miss Irene Strang, left for their home in Ogden last Wednesday. Both have been pupils of the New York College of Music. Miss Pett has studied piano with Lambert all winter. She has graduated with the highest honors, receiving her diploma, and honorable mention besides. She has been offered a position as teacher in the college here next year if she cares to accept it, her talents being thoroughly appreciated by the faculty. Miss Strang is a pupil of Mme. Von Klenner, and made rapid progress in her singing.

Mrs. Marie Gerrans of Salt Lake, a sister of Fred J. Hill, the druggist, with her mother, Mrs. Hill, and her daughter Gladys, will sail Saturday for Paris on the steamer "Masaba." They will remain abroad some time. Mrs. Gerrans intends to continue her vocal studies in Paris, and will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hill, at 25 Rue de Longchamps, where Mrs. A. M. Paul and Miss Bennie Paul also reside.

W. B. Dougall, Jr., who has been the guest of his uncle and aunt, Col. and Mrs. Willard Young, for the past six weeks, left for Columbus, Ohio, on his way home, Thursday evening. Mr. Dougall's visit has been a successful one in a business way, while socially, he has been a great addition to our conference here; his musical talents have been of great assistance to the branch, and his departure from our midst is greatly regretted.

Miss Vera Hardy, who has been very ill for three weeks, is now slowly recovering. Very devotedly has she been cared for by her friends, Miss Luella Ferrin and Dr. John Sharp, who have been untiring in their attention and thoughtfulness for her comfort. She will leave for home as soon as she is able to travel.

The sad news of the misfortune that has befallen Maj. Jas. B. Pond, will be received with sincere regret by many of the major's friends in Utah. Last Tuesday, through the advice of several eminent surgeons of New York, he had to submit to the amputation of his right leg just below the knee. For years he has been a sufferer from locomotor ataxia, but for the past year an intense pain has settled in his right foot, necessitating a slight operation, less than three weeks ago. The wound did not respond to the treatment, and it was thought best by the two physicians attending him, and one other who was called in for consultation, to amputate the leg, in order to save the life of the patient. The major is of a robust constitution and it is hoped will be able to rally from the operation in a short time. His home on Bergen avenue, Jersey Heights, is a rare place to visit, filled as it is with pictures and reminiscences of his public life.

Messrs. Miles Romney, Robert Patrick, Jr., and Stephen Love, all representing Z. C. M. I., attended the chapel services of the Latter-day Saints yesterday. They leave for the west Monday, June 22. Mr. and Mrs. Le Grand Young were also visitors to the afternoon services; Mr. Young, on invitation of the president, spoke to the congregation and was listened to with the strictest attention.

Elders Randall Jones and Richard Roskelly and the Misses Owen Hubbard and Bertha Crawford, leave Monday, June 22, for their homes in Utah. Miss Hubbard has made a great record at Columbia college where she has been studying the last year. Miss Crawford, who is a pupil of Mme. Ashforth, has made great progress in her vocal studies. She returns to New York in September. Both these young ladies have hosts of friends here and their departure will be sincerely regretted.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wright and their daughter leave for Salt Lake, Thursday, June 25, to make it their future home. Mr. Wright left Utah 23 years ago, coming to Philadelphia where he married and lived for many years. He moved to New York 10 years ago and has been engaged as manager of the Guardian Storage and Transfer company, a firm that does an immense business. Mr. Wright has an offer to go to Boston for several years and if he cannot make suitable terms in Utah, will return to Boston for a period of three years. But his destination is Utah, and there he will make his home. He has many relatives there who will warmly welcome him back to their circle. JANET.

TO SUCCEED WRIGHT.

When Carol D. Wright retires from the position of commissioner of labor, which he expects to do by the first of next year, it is expected that E. F. Clark, chief of the Order of Railroad Conductors, will be named to succeed him. Mr. Clark has been recommended to the president by Mr. Wright, who met the railway man during the sitting of the coal strike commission, of which both were members.
