PROFESSOR STANNARD,

FROM
BOURBON COLLEGE, FRANCE,
AND
OSWEGO ACADEMY, ILLINOIS,

GRATEFULLY acknowledges the high patronage he enjoys, and the gratifying recommendations of intelligent parents.

Having successfully taught ENGLISH to many PARISIANS, and FRENCH, with the CLASSICS, MATHEMATICS, &c. to hundreds of Scholars, and scores of Teachers; and being ably assisted in conducting the Thirteenth Ward School, by his Daughter, the Ex-Principal of Wrenningham Seminary, noted (like himself) for training expert Accountants; he can now receive more advanced pupils; requiring either an experienced Female Teacher, or a graduated Collegiate Professor, to facilitate the acquisition of a useful and liberal Education.
