

BOERS WILL NOT COME TO AMERICA

That is the Opinion of the Afri-kander Envoys.

STILL SOME MIGHT DO SO.

In That View They are Willing to Listen to Inducements from the Western States.

[Early Dispatches.]
Chicago, June 7.—Renewed resolutions of sympathy were extended to Messrs. Fiebert, Wessels and Wolmarans, the Boer envoys, last night—this time by the members of the Holland society and their guests at a banquet at Kingsley planned especially in honor of the delegates. The visitors were told that their cause was a holy one, and they were advised that "if ever their people had to trek again they should trek across the sea to America."

Paul Kruger, President Steyn and Orange, the "lion of South Africa," were extolled in words of eloquence. The distinguished Afrikaners replied, in brief speeches, in which they earnestly pleaded for the moral support of a sister republic.

"Speak out your voice," said one, "and you may wake up the sleeping conscience of Europe."

"Proud as we would be to live under the Stars and Stripes," said another, "we are going to plant the flag of freedom in South Africa, and some day you will be proud to see these banners entwined—one in the sense of dedication to liberty."

The chamber in which the function was held, was draped with the green, red, white and blue flag of the Transvaal republic, and the respective colors of the United States and Holland.

Before leaving for St. Paul, Mr. Wessels, in an interview on the question of the Boers coming to America, said: "While we believe that the Boers will obtain freedom or at least partial freedom, within a year or so, if not at once, we are very uncertain as to the future. If any definite offer is made to us as the official representatives of the Boers in South Africa, we shall be glad to lay it before our people, and give them an opportunity to decide whether they wish to come to America or not."

"If we were to find that many were willing to emigrate it would be necessary to send agents ahead to look over the field and not lead the people into a barren country. This would take some time. We like the country and the people. We are the Boers to come to America, their recent trials would never be repeated."

"Personally I do not think all the Boers would come, and I doubt whether a majority of the Boers in the Orange Free State and in the Transvaal would be ready to leave their adopted homes, and go to live in a new country. But we are willing to trek farther into the interior if they have any assurance that the Boers will not follow them, but generations have come and gone in South Africa, making it a fatherland to those who there. But we shall be glad to hear from the citizens of the great western States and learn whether they will make us offers."

Negro Politician Talks.
Boston, June 7.—Former Judge E. G. Walker, who was mentioned as a presidential possibility at the meeting of the National Negro party in Philadelphia, says:

"I have heard rumors of the formation of such a party. It is a beautiful thing. I believe one of the principles of the party was for colored men to refrain from voting or vote for this new party. So far as not voting is concerned, I believe in voting if I were up to my neck in blood."

"I regard to a presidential nomination I have no desire or ambition to be dragged around in the mud."

"The action of the colored people making a new party is no doubt inspired by the recent talk about repealing the fifteenth amendment. The United States will never repeal the fifteenth amendment."

"There is a pretty general feeling among the colored people against the Republican party this coming election. If President McKinley is the standard-bearer."

"McKinley has no sympathy for the negro."

KRUGER SAYS FIGHT TO THE END.

Respectfully Declines an Offer of 100 Acres of Land in America for Each Burgher, and Says They Will Fight for Their Own.

New York, June 7.—A dispatch to the Herald from Lourenzo Marques says:

In response to a telegraphed inquiry to President Kruger informing him of the offer of 100 acres of land in America to each burgher, the president replied:

"We thank you for this generous offer of land, but the burghers are determined to fight for their own land and independence to the bitter end."

FORMING A NEW SUGAR COMPANY

Two Million Dollars to be Invested in a Plant in Illinois.

WILL MAKE BEET SUGAR.

Four Factories to be Constructed in the Kankakee Valley—The Scheme
Nearly Ready to Launch.

[Early Dispatches.]
Chicago, June 7.—The Record says: Two million dollars, it is said, will be used to promote the beet sugar industry in the Kankakee valley. Of that amount over two-thirds will be subscribed by Chicago capitalists, who will control and dictate the company's policy. The name of the corporation is to be the Kankakee Valley Beet Sugar Co., with headquarters in Chicago and branch offices at each one of the four proposed factories.

John Farnsworth of Detroit, Mich., has been engaged in organizing the proposed company. Mr. Farnsworth today said:

"I am not in a position to give out any of the proposed plans of our company. As soon as we have secured all of the capital stock we shall apply for a charter under the laws of Illinois. I think three weeks will see our company incorporated."

FOR THE CONTROL OF CUBA

Congressman King Introduces a Measure Giving the Islanders Self Government.

Resolution Declares Cubans to be Entitled to This—U. S. Occupation Unconstitutional.

Congressman William H. King has introduced in the House the following joint resolution, directing the President of the United States to issue a proclamation declaring the purpose of the United States with respect to Cuba and its people, and also to leave the government and control of the island to its people:

"Whereas, the people of the island of Cuba revolted against Spain because of the cruelties and wrongs to which they had long been subjected, and the United States, in the interest of humanity and because of the abhorrent conditions which had existed and were continuing, intervened and extinguished Spain's authority in said island; and

"Whereas the United States declared at the time of intervention that the people of the island of Cuba are, and of right ought to be, free and independent, and that there was no intention to exercise sovereignty, jurisdiction, or control over said island except for the pacification thereof; and with that accomplished the United States would leave the government and control of the island to its people; and

"Whereas by the treaty of Paris the United States further recognized the right of the Cuban people to absolute freedom and independence; and

"Whereas since the protocol of August twelfth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, the United States have been in possession of the island of Cuba, and said island and its people have been governed and controlled by the military power and authority exercised by the President of the United States, who in so doing has granted extraordinary and unlimited power to agencies employed by him in governing said island and its people; and

"Whereas in violation of the solemn declarations of the United States that upon the pacification of the island its government and control would be left to its people the United States still hold and occupy the said island and give no evidence or assurance of any intention to carry out the pledge so made, all of which results in disquietude and suspicion among the people of Cuba; and

"Whereas the continuance of the military control of said island by the United States, and the failure to announce the purpose as to the withdrawal of the armies of the United States, and in regard to leaving the government and control of the island to its people, to-

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the President of the United States be, and he is hereby requested and directed to immediately issue a proclamation to the people of Cuba, stating that it is the purpose and intention of the United States to turn over the control of the government of said island to the inhabitants thereof as soon as they organize a civil government; and the President is further requested and directed to immediately provide for a convention of the representatives of the Cuban people, to be held in Havana, Cuba, the first Monday in July, nineteen hundred, for the purpose of framing a constitution or organic law.

"Sec. 2. That when said constitution or organic law so framed is adopted by the people of Cuba, and the civil government thereof is organized and the officers are elected and installed, the President of the United States is hereby directed and requested to withdraw all the military forces of the United States from said island, and to turn over and surrender to the people of Cuba all civil and military power, and leave the government and control of the island to its people."

WARD ENTERTAINMENTS.
The performance of the operetta "The Sleeping Beauty," at the Second ward assembly hall last evening was a most creditable affair, each performer being entitled to much praise. They were Messrs. Thomas S. Ashworth and John Robinson, and Misses Luella Ferron and Elsie Barrows.

The entertainment was opened with a one-act drama, "Red and White," presented in good style by Messrs. Lovejoy and Ashworth, and Misses Linobeth Davis and Della Little. The same bill will be presented at the same place on Friday evening.

SEASON OPENS TOMORROW NIGHT

The Bicycle Races on the Salt Palace Track Begins.

AN INTERESTING PROGRAM.

There will be a One Mile Open Professional for the 2:10 class and Three Amateur Races.

Tomorrow night marks the opening of the season for bicycle races at the famous Salt Palace track and the program will be one of interest. Those who will enter, both professional and amateur, are in almost perfect condition, and every event promises to be exceedingly close. Among the professionals upon whom the public will keep its eye are J. M. Chapman, Iver Lawson, and Clem Torville. The former declares he is in much better condition than when he appeared last summer, and promises not to disappoint his numerous friends, who expect him to do some speedy work.

Yesterday Benjamin Green, the champion colored rider of Denver, arrived in town but is too late to secure a place in the first meet, so will, therefore, have to wait until the second. He tried the track yesterday and pronounced it perfect.

Among the amateurs Joe Edmonds is expected to lead them all. The little rider has done some swift pedaling in practice during the last few days and if he continues to improve will ere long be classed among the professionals.

Iver Lawson received a letter from his brother, the "Terrible Swede," the other day, in which he says he expects to arrive in Salt Lake in a few days. Tomorrow evening's program includes a one-mile open professional for the 2:10 class, and three amateur races. The first of the amateurs will be a novice race. The next a one-mile handicap and the last a five-mile open. The Salt Palace management expects an enormous crowd and has made every arrangement to make the people comfortable.

SHARP MAY RESIGN.

Impertinent Letter Makes the N. C. Representative a Bit Angry.

Representative John N. Sharp, Jr., of the N. C. A. is seriously contemplating tendering his resignation. Not long since he received an impertinent communication from W. I. Doty of Denver, who is a member of the racing board for the Western division. Doty probably thinks he is about three-fourths, if not the whole thing.

He demanded information regarding sanctions granted to promoters of races in Salt Lake, and wanted to know why applications had not been made to him instead of to Sharp. Doty also intimated that Salt Lake was to resign his office, but it is hoped he will not resign for he is well thought of in Salt Lake.
