Saturday News.

There was a very pleasant meeting of the members of the University club and their lady triends last Saturday night, when Principal Eaton read an entertain-ng and instructive paper on "Athens and he Greeks." Music, dancing and light refreshments followed ents followed.

It was children's day in a number of the city churches gesterday, and the dis-play of flowers was profuse and beautiful, ind the children were out in full force to mjoy the day. The flowers from the First Confregational Sunday school were taken to the cemeteries and strewn on the graves of deceased members of the school.

al flag day services were held las alght in Westminster church in honor of the Grand Army. An eulogistic address was delivered by the pastor, Rev. John Richelson, who said that one of the first joints of patriotism was respect for the lag and pride in the army. The attend-ince was good, and the entire service in-ercating.

Judging from the replies sent to Secre-ary Harris of the Commercial club in response to the invitations to the Clark sunquet, the feast will be well provided with guests. For half an hour prior to the banquet there will be an informal ocial gathering in the club parlors, where guests will have an opportunity to meet the senator from Montana.

After smashing almost to atoms all the furniture in the house and beating and abusing his wife in a shameful man-aer. Frank Edison was arrested late Sat-irday afternoon by Officer Cottrell, who went to the scene of the rumpus, on Ninth East between Thirteenth and Four-centh South streets. The charges against Edison are disturbing the peace and as-suut with a deadly weapon.

The funeral of the late Peter Moss was held yesterday morning from the chapel of J. E. Taylor, with burial in the city remeters, At the same time a memorial cryice was held in his honor by the state Prison Christian Endeavor society. Ind the members of the society of which was in life an enthusiastic member, poke feelingly of his character and influence for good in the prison.

Fort D. A. Russell will be garrisoned by headquarters, band and the second bat-alion of the Second United States infau-ry under Colonel Cyrus Roberts, the Thirteenth light battery and E troop of he Tenth cavalry, in all 550 men. The First and Third battalions of the Second estiment will be stationed at Fort Logan hear Denver. Colonel Roberts was for-merly stationed at Fort Russell as cap-ain in the Seventeenth infantry.

Hide and pelt men say that with oak ark up to $15 per cord, there are in-reased efforts to discover suitable ex-racts as a substitute. There has been uite a rush in pelts the past few weeks in the Salt Lake market owing to so nany sheep dying in transit from the vinter to the summer ranges. But now hat the trailing of the sheep is over until all, there is only a moderate market in pelts. Very few South American hides and their way into this market.
