

SUMMER.

The balmy breeze and whispering trees
And azure skies so clear,
The springing flowers and refreshing showers
Proclaim that summer's here.

The dove's sweet strain is heard again,
As in gladness it greets the day,
While the purling streams reflect the beams
That with their ripples play.

The wild bee roves o'er the flower he loves
And rifles all its store,
Then away it flies and the blossom dies—
For the bee returns no more.

The dew-drop glows on the opening rose
Like a tear in a loved one's eye,
'Till the sun's warm rays lure it away,
And it rises again to the sky.

As daylight fades in evening shades,
And night her reign resumes,
With scented breath just waked from death
The evening primrose blooms.

The moonbeams break o'er the silvery lake,
Reflecting liquid light,
The heavens gleam beneath the stream
In constellation's bright.

St. Petersburg, August 1.—Kutkoff, editor of the Moscow Gazette, died to-day.

Political Points.

FORT WORTH, August 1.—On the occasion of the anti-prohibition state barbecue on the 27th inst., a strong letter was read from Jefferson Davis to ex-Governor Lubbock denouncing prohibition on the ground that the world is governed too much. The Gazette will to-morrow print a reply to Davis' letter from Senator John H. Reagan expressing surprise and sorrow that Davis should have taken sides on the question. Senator Reagan says Davis' letter has cost prohibition thousands of votes in Texas.

CINCINNATI, August 1.—The indications to-night are that the working-men have carried the state ticket in Newport, Kentucky, by 900 plurality and in Covington by 260 plurality. They are elated and sanguine of success in Kenton and Campbell counties.

LOUISVILLE, August 1.—The election for state and legislative officers for Kentucky passed off quietly. The length of the ticket and the local contests make the returns slow. The democratic gain in Louisville City and county is 3,000. Meagre returns from the state indicate republican gains, but it is estimated the democratic state officers will be elected by a large majority. The democratic losses are mainly in local contests. The legislature will be largely democratic.

NEW YORK, August 1.—About eleven o'clock this morning James Martin, aged 17, fell from the Brooklyn bridge. He was carrying a pail of water along the south track when he and fell between the sleepers down in the river. He was about fifteen feet west of the center bridge when he fell, the light above the water being 130 feet. He struck the water on his chest and came up a moment later in a dazed condition. The tug Wm. Cox, having in tow canal boats was near when he fell. The tug steered toward him and the boat's fireman jumped into the water and seized him. He was obliged to release his hold however for a moment, and Martin again went under. The fireman dived and brought him up. Martin was taken to the Chambers Street hospital. It was found he had sustained no serious injury. He complained only of a slight pain in the chest where he had struck the water.

MISSED HIS FOOTING

has been wrecked off the Falkland Islands. The first officer and seven of the crew are drowned.

CHICAGO, August 1.—In the boodle trial this afternoon, there came a surprise.

Commissioner Michael Wasserman left his place among the defendants and took the witness stand in his own behalf. Wasserman was very pale and his voice trembled.

HE DENIED

seriatim all the charges of bribery against him, and in explaining how he came to receive certain sums of money said: "In 1884 the County Democratic Club appointed me as one of a committee to go to Washington to bring the convention here. I collected money everywhere. We went down to Washington and kept open house to show the people of Washington the hospitality of Chicago. The result was that we brought the convention back here."

The state did not take the trouble to cross-examine Wasserman.

A second bondsman was required of Dr. St. John, but after many hours' search could

NOT BE FOUND.

The doctor had been confident that Columbus R. Manning, the gas magnate, would become surety. Notwithstanding incessant urging Manning failed to put in an appearance and late in the afternoon Dr. St. John was immured in a cell. The charge against him is conspiracy against the people in aiding McGargle to escape conviction. It entails a penalty of three years' imprisonment at hard labor or a fine of $1,000.

CHICAGO, August 1.—Another wild sensation has been created in the county board by a discovery that the wholesale grocery firm of this city which secured the recent contract for supplied the brownest sugar in the market, the soap was the poorest to be had, and the "Java coffee" was half chickory. The firm has been called to account.

Chief of Police Ebersold admitted this afternoon to having sent a dispatch to the chief of police at Sarnia, asking that McGargle be arrested and held. Chief Ebersold said to a reporter: "Under certain circumstances a chief of police will recognize a esprit de corps that exist among the heads of police departments." When urged to express himself more fully as to what action would be taken by the Canadian authorities, he became absolutely

NON-COMMITTAL.

CHICAGO, August 1.—A special to the Evening Journal from Sarnia, says: McGargle was secluded all morning, but just where could not be ascertained. He was met on his arrival by a party with a carriage, one of the party being Patrick Maloney, of Quay, formerly of Port Huron, Michigan. Everything had evidently been arranged for McGargle's reception, and one of the parties remarked that the entire plan of rescue was mapped out before the escape was attempted. Had any attempt been made to seize McGargle, a desperate fight would have been the result. The reported effort to disguise the schooner Blake by painting her red is explained differently by the sailors. They say the red blankets were hung over the schooner's sides to prevent identification.

MCGARGLE'S WIFE

and child are expected in Sarnia to-night.

The matter of the forfeiture with reference to McGargle's bonds has been continued to the October term.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—No application has been received by the State Department for a writ of extradition in the case of McGargle, the escaped Chicago boodler, nor has the department received any intimation of an intention to ask for such a writ beyond what has appeared in the newspapers. If the usual course in such cases was pursued the department would have no knowledge on the subject till the agent of the city of Chicago appeared at the State Department and applied

FOR A WRIT.

SARNIA, Ont., August 1.—McGargle is in hiding. The crown attorney has advised the chief of police to proceed no further on the warrant which he had last night, as it was defective.

Train men on the Grand Trunk report that McGargle went to London, Ontario, to-night. They recognized him from photographs.

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, August 1.—This morning the jury in the case of Alf. McCoy charged with Dr. Northrup's murder, returned a verdict of guilty in the second degree.

THE KILLING

occurred in May last, at Haverhill. The victim was a noted prohibitionist, and it was claimed McCoy, who owned a saloon, felt an enmity toward him on that account. On the day of the murder the men had a dispute about Guinea fowls. Northrup was attacked by Alf. McCoy, the prisoner, and his brother, Jas. McCoy and Pierson McCoy, James' son. McCoy was postmaster of the village at the time of the murder. There is much dissatisfaction with the verdict. The shooting was done in daylight in the street and most people regard it worthy of punishment.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., August 1.—Geo. W. Whetstern, furniture dealer, this noon shot his wife three times, then pointed the pistol at his mouth and shot himself.

KILLING BOTH

JERSEY CITY, N. J., August 1.—Mrs. Lillie Schlimmer 16 years of age was murdered in cold blood by her youthful husband Joseph this afternoon. The couple were married with the consent of the girl's parents but on account of his age it was agreed they should not live together for two years. It is said young Schlimmer has been endeavoring to persuade the girl to leave her parental roof. She refused and he has been around ever since. This afternoon she was walking down Erie Street with her mother and grandmother. At the corner of Second Street Schlimmer walked up and placing the pistol at her breast fired. She fell to the side walk and died. Schlimmer stopped to tell the grandmother that she was responsible for the tragedy and then fled.

HANGING SUSPICIOUSLY

DETROIT, August 1.—The preliminary trial of Sergeant Clark, of the 23d regiment United States Infantry, for the shooting of Private Albert Stone resulted in his discharge to-day, the court holding that he must obey any legal order of his superior officer. ## MILITARY DISCIPLINE, tried to escape and Clark, who was guard, shot him.

PALATKA, Florida, August 1.—Wm. F. Forward, clerk of the circuit court, chairman of the democratic executive committee and a son of an ex-circuit judge, has been suspended by the governor on the charges of malfeasance, embezzlement, mutilation of records and various private disreputable transactions involving, as estimated by his friends, $25,000.

CHICAGO, August 1.—A. J. Whiteman, bookkeeper for the Central Union Telephone Company, was arrested to-day for forgery and, waiving examination, was committed to the criminal court under $25,000. Three years ago Whiteman entered the Telephone Company's employ and rapidly to a position of confidence and responsibility. Within three years, so far as ascertained, he has acquired a deficit of $20,000. Whiteman was unable to furnish bail and went to jail.

WON HIS WAY

POTTSVILLE, Pa., August 2.—A movement which may eventually exercise a sensible effect upon labor in this region will have its inauguration to-day. A party of 40 picked miners under the charge of traveling passenger agent Pott of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, will leave here, via the Pennsylvania Railway, for Fort Alberta, British Columbia, where they will be employed in the anthracite coal mines recently opened in that region. Other parties will follow as soon as they can be organized.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 2.—Mrs. W. P. Lisle, of Kingsburg, with three children, left on the train last evening for Glenn's Falls. When the train stopped at Fort Edwards Mrs. Lisle thought an accident had occurred and attempted to jump from the coach to the platform. She threw one of the children first and then sprang after it with the other. The lady fell under the cars and received injuries from which she died, also killing her child. The other child was rescued by the engineer.

EATON, Ohio, August 2.—John Beall, thirteen years old, who has been in jail six weeks on a charge of killing his mother, has made a confession. On June 18, the boy was at home alone with his mother at the farm house, and about four o'clock alarmed the neighbors by saying that three tramps had killed his mother, and that he was asleep, but awakened in time to see them leaving with a watch and money. The watch has since been found where he admits he hid it. He had shot his mother twice, then nearly beheaded her with an ax. It is supposed that he was with the dead body three hours before giving the alarm. No motive for the crime is assigned except he was angry at what seemed to him to be evidences of favoritism shown to his sister by his mother.

CINCINNATI, August 2.—Kentucky election news is slow in coming, and is fragmentary. The vote in Kenton County, in which Covington is situated, gives Buckner (democrat) for governor a plurality of 699 over the union labor candidate. Bradley (republican) runs 390 behind the union labor candidate. In Kenton County the vote for governor has not yet been received, and there is still a question as to who is elected to the other offices, though the union labor party concedes the election of a new man (democrat) for representative. It is thought the republicans have the county on the state ticket.

In Lexington the democrats have carried the city for the first time in 20 years. General Buckner's majority over Bradley is 88. Democratic gains of 141 in the county, and 200 in Carter County are shown, though the republicans carry both counties.

In Fleming, while the democrats carry the state ticket by 200 majority, the candidate for representative is defeated by the republicans by 600 majority.

In Mercer County, Phil. B. Thompson, Sen., is defeated for the legislature by D. J. Carry, republican prohibitionist, by 200 majority.

The vote for Fox, prohibitionist, for governor in the county, will be 400 or 500.

WOMEN

were at the polls working in the interest of the prohibition cause.

In Jessamine County there was much excitement. It is claimed that the democratic candidate for the legislature is defeated by a few votes.

In Mason County there is a heavy republican gain.

In Garret County, which is the home of Bradley, the republicans have 300 majority.

LOUISVILLE, August 2.—The returns from yesterday's election come in very slowly from the state, but there is nothing to change the estimates of last night. The is elected by 25,000 to 30,000 majority over the republican ticket and will have a majority of 20,000 over all the tickets.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET

Despite the efforts of many willing hands, they could not be saved.

LONDON, Ont., August 2.—It is stated that McGargle arrived at Ingersoll, east of London, in time to catch the Atlantic express which passed east at 12:05 p. m. He is supposed to have passed around London from Strathroy. The London authorities seemed to have determined to arrest him, but he appeared to have been warned in time.

READING, Pa., August 2.—One of the most terrific storms witnessed in this section passed over Stroudsburg, this county, last night, and many fields and buildings were flooded. In the midst of the storm, four wide flashes of lightning were seen and were followed by loud peals of thunder; immediately thereafter the historic Christ Lutheran church, a mile from town, was discovered on fire, and in an hour the beautiful church was in ruins. The loss to the congregation will be $20,000; insurance $6,000. This edifice was one of the landmarks of the Lutheran Church in America. Its corner stone was laid in 1748.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—An election was held to-day in the Bridgeton divisions of Glasgow to fill the parliamentary seat made vacant by the resignation of Mr. E. R. Russell, home rule liberal, who at the last election received 4,364 votes against 3,567 for his conservative opponent, Mr. Colin McKenzie. The election to-day resulted in the return of Sir George Otto Trevelyan, liberal, by a vote of 4,654, Evelyn Ashley, the conservative nominee, receiving 3,363. Sir George Trevelyan's victory is felt in conservative circles to be the

SEVEREST BLOW

the unionists have ever yet experienced. Intense interest pervades the clubs. This evening the Carlton, National, Liberal, Reform and others were thronged with members at 10 a. m., awaiting news of the result in Glasgow. Each side attached supreme importance to the election as the first fought since the general election between Gladstone and the liberal-unionists, the other contest having been between the conservatives and the Gladstonians. Leaders of both sides actively joined in the fray, Mr. Gladstone's speech on Friday and the letters of Mr. Bright, Mr. Chamberlain, Lord Hartington and Sir William Vernon Harcourt being

SPECIALLY INTENDED

to influence the result. The unionists expected that Trevelyan would be returned. The character of the constituency, which consists of purely radical workmen, infused with a large Irish element, made it a safe Gladstonian seat, but they were also confident of a reduction of the former Gladstonian majority, which would prove the beginning of a reaction in Scotland from the faith in Mr. Gladstone's issues. The immense increase in the Gladstonian vote has caused a panic among the unionists. When the result of the election became known in the house the members deserted the benches and flocked to the lobby, where they earnestly discussed the political outlook. The home rulers

WERE JUBILANT.

The ministerialists admit that a modification of the government's Irish policy is probable under this conclusive proof of the spread of Gladstonianism.

Sir George Trevelyan, in a speech this evening, said that his victory made it next to impossible for the government to proclaim the Irish National League. The election, he declared, largely settled the Irish question. Henceforth Ireland must be treated in a spirit of conciliation, kindness and confidence.

LONDON, August 2.—In the Commons this evening Dillon complained of the statement made in a provincial paper, which he suspected was supplied by a conservative member, charging him in front of the debate with laughing in approval of the stalling of a daughter of an agent of Lord Sligo, during a school procession in Belfast. This offensive and disgusting passage was too much for him.

Messrs. Halsey, McLean, Webster and Price claimed the statement was true.

Dillon replied it was false and part of the system of infamous and atrocious falsehoods by which an attempt is being made to hunt Irish members out of public life.

THE SPEAKER

called him to order, saying he must not make such charges against members.

Dillon replied by asking if Irish members were to have any protection in the house. He had heard the Speaker call members of the house to order before for language beside, which this sinks into insignificance.

The Speaker replied he was the judge of the order, and that members who said the accusation was true, put their own version upon what occurred.

McLean reiterated his statement but he added that he would acquit Dillon of sharing in the laughter if he repudiated it.

Dillon said the occurrence had been misrepresented. If charges of this character are allowed to be there will be an end to all public decency and order in Parliament.

HURLED AGAINST US

The Speaker said the laughter which the members declared they heard was meant to be interpreted in an offensive manner. If Mr. Dillon repudiated the statement the house could accept the repudiation. He refused to consider the matter further. The incident closed with the following remark from Dillon: "Then these measures are for one set of members and there is no justice for the others." [Home rule cheers.]

HALIFAX, August 2.—Captain F. A. Scott has received from Admiral Luce, United States navy, now here on the flag ship Richmond, six questions on points in connection with the present condition of the fishery affairs. The questions are in writing and have been answered in the same manner, being signed by Captain Scott as commander of the Canadian fishery protection service. The questions and replies are as follows:

First—Are there any Canadian ports where American vessels engaged in fishing may replenish their stock of provisions, and if so name them? Answer—Not any, but in the autumn, when the American fishermen are out of provisions and leaving for home, they are permitted to take such as they may require for that purpose only.

Second—Will it be insisted upon that every American fisherman anchoring in port or other places on the coast for shelter must enter and clear at the customs house? Answer—At all times when practicable to do so, but if at an inconvenient distance from the customs house, and the cruiser is present, her captain will enter and clear those who apply.

Third—What construction is placed by the Canadian officers on the word "repairs" as expressed in the treaty of 1818? That is, may a fisherman who needs repairs to his rigging enter to buy rope? Does the word "repair" include everything on board such vessel that is necessary to a complete fishing vessel?

Answer—This must be left to the discretion of the collector of customs or the captain of the cruiser, as it is liable to great abuse.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., August 2.—A movement which may eventually exercise a sensible effect upon labor in this region will have its inauguration to-day. A party of 40 picked miners, under charge of traveling passenger agent Pott, of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, will leave here via the Pennsylvania Railway for Fort Alberta, British Columbia, where they will be employed in the anthracite coal mines recently opened in that region. Other parties will follow as soon as this can be organized.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., August 2.—The coroner's jury in the railway holocaust here on July 6th, brought in a verdict this morning.
