A TRIP TO THE SOUTH.

Elder Edward Stevenson Preaches the Gospel and Takes Notes by the Way.

FAIRVIEW, Sanpete Valley, Utah, March 26th, 1896.

To the Editor:

I left Salt Lake City March 18, on the U. P. train, and had a very pleasant ride through Salt Lake, Utah and Juab counties, about 9 miles to Nephi. In many places plows were turning up the rich soil, and seed time had come in reality, for the husbandmen was scattering the seed grain with good hope of what the harvest may be—quite a contrast to the work of the winter, which is now fast passing away the waves. "O, what shall the harvest be."

I will relate a little circumstance which took place while riding pleasantly in the palace car. There was a young lady associated with the good old Methodist cause. I had occasion to remark that I once was a Methodist, as was my father's family, until I found a better manner of salvation.

But how could that be? said my lady friend.

In reply I said, by way of explanation I would bring to an illustration. You have a desire to cause some very urgent calls. Your carriage is ordered to be made ready for your trip and mission. What would be your surprise to find your carriage in about up to the house? This brought a degree of mirth. Why, said the lady, I should order a reverse, the horse hitched up to the carriage, of course.

Perhaps said I, when you really understand the issue of the figure, it will not bring forth mirth.

Now for the illustration, and we will take the word of God for it. In Mark 16, we read: "He said unto them, go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved." Not baptized first and believe afterwards. I fear it would be an insult of a surprise to Jesus, if His disciples should have reversed this order, as it would be to you, if your servants should carry your order out by hitching the cart before the horse. To me one is as absurd as the other.

My father and my mother, and my grandfather's and all relations before them, as far back as I can trace them, were baptized before they were capable of believing. This was certainly the case with me, for all that ever I knew of being baptized was the record in the Methodist church and the sprinkling by my parents who taught me to believe that which occurred when I was an infant and incapable of obeying the command of Jesus to His disciples.

Again, I have learned by divine and authorized servants of God, as also taught by Jesus to Nicodemus "Verily, verily, (making it doubly sure) I say unto thee, except a man (not Nicodemus alone, but every man) be born (not merely sprinkled nor be cured with water and of the Spirit) he cannot enter the Kingdom of God. (John 3:5)." Sprinkling little children I learn from history originated in the old apostate church, which was continued in the Reformation. Jesus took the little children in His arms and blessed them, and stated that "of such is the kingdom of heaven." Inasmuch as baptism is for the remission of sins and mantels of immortality, not sprinkling, and should be administered only to those who believe, I have found a better way than that which I was led to follow by the traditions of our fathers, instead of the Gospel of Christ.

Change of cars here brought our conversation to an end.

Mormonism is spreading. There are now about one thousand missionaries preaching out in the world without purse or scrip, with broad openings and a constant call for more. Elders—as evidence that the light of truth, as revealed by our martyred Prophet, Joseph Smith, is fast taking the place of false doctrines and traditions.

Passing up Salt Creek into Juab valley, to Fountain Green, Mount and Chester, where the narrow and standard gauge track already laid to Manti, it was interesting to see seventy men now engaged with the teams, plows, scrapers and other necessary tools widening the track up to the standard gauge, which is fast being made ready. The work will be continuing along from Nephi to Chester, are being placed on the widened track rapidly, although the rate is necessarily running once each way daily. At times the seventy men working on the track and the plowmen hotly engaged, and reels being sown; the cattle on the thousand hills manifestly feeding for the beautiful warm sun to push on the already starting grass on the warm hillside, and then to see the chariots with flaming wheels and lamps ring the lightning through the growing towns on to the Manti Temple of the Lord, with a fair prospect of the standard gauge being completed through prosperous towns; I say for me to witness the contrast of this trip as compared with one I made over the same grounds in the year 1852, just 44 years ago, with ox-drawn carts, rattlesnakes and Indians, filled me with regret.

At that time Brigham Young with his pioneer company, were looking out locations to establish his gathering flock from various parts of the world. It is really marvelous to now witness the change of a barren, lonely, sage brush desert into fruitful fields, towns, temples and countless happy homes. It constrains me to exclaim with Isaiah the Prophet of whom in his 35th chapter in speaking of the day when the Ark of Mormonism should be brought to light and says the Lord would perform a marvelous work and a wonder. I refer to this as an eye-witness, Isaiah's words are literally being fulfilled.

Only a few days ago I attended conference in Salt Lake City, where President C. G. Cannon prophesied that the coming of our Lord and Savior was near at hand as presented in the Scriptures, and on the 11th inst. Elder Joseph Cain, president of the Northwestern States mission, attended the same thing in Independence, Jackson county, Mo., from whence the Mormons were mobbed and driven in the early history of the Church. Should the dedication of the Salt Lake Temple be very favorable change has come over the people, however as a general and liberal feeling seems to be in all quarters, and the men in all parts of the world. And the Mormon Elders have a much better opportunity to make known the doctrines of our Church, as evinced by the opening and meeting in Independence, the center stake of Zion. After the excellent meeting in Salt Lake State conference, on the following morning, I was favored with attending the Hancock Stake conference in company with Elders Ignatz and Karl G. Maeser, nearly 300 miles north of Salt Lake City, holding seven meetings, and another meeting at Lavoyle, in Millard county, and on the following day two more at Eagle Rock at Idaho Falls. The next day I was in Salt Lake City and now I am down here in Sanpete. I still will attend coming Sunday I will fill still another appointment at Eagle Rock, in the Annery Hall.

We owe much of this convenient transportation to God's inspiration to George Stevenson and others, to bring the power of steam to move chariots with flaming lamps and lightning speed. Consequently I feel inclined in the seventy men operating on the hanging rail-road.

After holding twelve-seventy's meetings at Ephraim the Denver and Rio Grande railroad brought me to Fairview, where last evening we held two meetings in the interest of the Seventys. The latter was attended by over 300 souls.

A peep into the People's Co-op. store where they carry $15,000 worth of stock, and do $45,000 business yearly, furnishing the ties for the railroad and reinforced lumber was very interesting. Last year this store sent 1,000,000 feet north, delivered in Salt Lake at $18.25 per 1,000 feet. Fairview is a lively little flourishing country town.

SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR
THE BEST
SPRING MEDICINE
A SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR—don't wait to take it. The Liver gets sluggish during the Winter, and an occasional use of the system-cleanser roused up to a wonderful extent, which helps to relieve Fever and Ague and Rheumatic troubles. Make no mistake about it, but be sure you take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR to do it. It also regulates the Liver—keeps it properly active, when your system will be free from Fever and the whole body recuperated.
Try it. THE BEST BLOOD in your system is in its condition, and the all rely to when the Liver is right. It's a Liver Remedy and not to be confounded with Bitters, Tonics or Drinks. But take SIMMONS LIVER REGULATOR which makes no pretense. Take it in powder or in liquid ready prepared, or make it by the Red Z on wrapper. Look for it.
