IRON WARE

WE ARE NOW MANUFACTURING, IN CONNECTION WITH THE

ST. LOUIS STAMPING COMPANY

A new line of TINNED and POLISHED WROUGHT IRON WARE, suitable alike for

HOUSEHOLD,

Miners' or Camp Use.

And take pleasure in calling the attention of Stove, Hardware and general dealers to the many desirable qualities of this NEW WARE, not only as an article of trade, but of UTILITY, combining as it does, NEATNESS, CONVE-NIENCE and LABOR SAVING in the care of utensils that are in every day use, in the most important of all HOUSEHOLD DEPART-MENTS. We desire and request every housekeeper to see our TEA KETTLES, SAUCE PANS, DIPPERS, DISH PANS, WASH BASINS, POLISHED FRY and STEW PANS, as we are sure they have only to be seen to be appreciated.

Many of the articles are made entirely of one piece of wrought iron which, during the process of manufacture, receives several coatings of block tin; this leaves a surface, when finished, perfectly smooth, easily kept clean and entirely protected against rust. The cost is but little more than common tin ware, and every article will do ten times the service. The shape enables us to pack the various sizes in nests so as to occupy but little space, and being but a little heavier than tinware, the cost of transportation is very small. At present our assortment consists in part of

TEA KETTLES, CAMP KETTLES.

MESS PANS, DISH PANS, SAUCE PANS.

DISH KETTLES, FRY PANS,

LADLES, DIPPERS, &c., &c.

We are now preparing a new Catalogue and Price List, and believe Stove and Hardware Dealers will find it to their interest to send for a copy of each before purchasing elsewhere.

By Telegraph.

The court opened at eleven a.m., managers present. In response to an enquiry from the Chief Justice, Curtis stated that the counsel for the President considered their evidence closed. Bingham said the managers might desire to place on the stand some of the witnesses who had been suspended early in the trial, but who had not appeared hitherto. Butler offered, in evidence, portions of the journal of Congress, relating to drafting a commission for Washington, as General in Chief, its form as issued; also a letter from the Secretary of the Treasury relating to the practice of that department making ad interim appointments. Postmaster General Randall, being called, produced a copy of the indictment against Foster Blodgett. Butler offered Blodgett's answer.
Evarts objected, saying that Blodgett was not on trial. The managers offered to show that the indictment was procured by desperate enemies of Blodgett.
Evarts maintained that it was not relevant, but if it was wished to put Blodgett on the stand, he was prepared to prove that the charges were true. The Senate, without division, refused the evidence. Butler offered the order placing Gen. Sherman in command of the Department of the Atlantic.
Evarts objected, saying it was not in the rebuttal of any of the evidence that had been introduced. The Senate, by a vote of fourteen to thirty-five refused to receive it. Butler then announced that the case for the managers was closed.
The court adjourned till Wednesday, and the Senate went into executive session.

A short executive session was held, the Senate adjourned at 2 o'clock.

Worcester, Mass., 20. — A German meeting at Clinton assaulted an Irish mob; knives and clubs were freely used, one Irishman being killed and several wounded.

Washington.—Manager Boutwell proposes to deliver his entire speech tomorrow before the Court of Impeachment; it contains thirty-three thousand words.

New York, 22.—The Times' Port Jarvis special says, the conductor of the sleeping car reports twenty-three passengers in the rear of the car, which was completely destroyed by fire; only two of the passengers are known to have escaped from this car, and the remains of only six have been recovered, leaving fifteen of whom there is no trace.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

Boutwell proceeded with the closing argument for the Managers. He reminded the Senate that they might now anticipate a speedy conclusion to their labors. The importance of the occasion was, he said, due to the fact that the Chief Magistrate of the principal Republic of the world is on trial on charges of high crimes and misdemeanors.
The official issues of the record between the House of Representatives and Andrew Johnson are technical and limited.
The Managers had met these issues, as they believed, and he maintained, the cause of the House of Representatives by evidence, direct and clear. The President's claim for the removal of Stanton extends to the officers of the army and navy, and to the civil and diplomatic service. This claim has never before been asserted, and surely has never been sanctioned.

Governor Boutwell then proceeded to discuss, at length, the powers of the Senate in the matter of appointments and removals, and set forth that these powers were greater than those of the President.

He next passed to the consideration of the Tenure of Office act, and argued at length to show that the President has no power to remove officers during a recess of the Senate, except good causes are shown. He maintained that Mr.
Stanton, as Secretary of War, was, on the 2d day of March, 1867, within and included under the language of the proviso in the Tenure of Office bill, which refers to the Cabinet officers; that Mr. Stanton was then holding his office under and for the term of Mr. Lincoln; that, that term commenced March, 4, 1865, and would end March 4th, 1869, and was not a new office nor a new term. Johnson succeeded, in Mr. Lincoln's term, and he was serving it out at this point.

Mr. Boutwell then entered into a discussion of the question concerning the succession to the Presidency, and then replied to the opening speech of Judge Curtis for the President, especially that part where he read from General Schenck's speech on the Tenure of Office bill.
