BURNED WITH MOLTEN LEAD.

Joseph Lapey loses the sight of one eye, and may be blinded. Totally blind.

A very serious, painful and unfortunate accident occurred to Joseph M. Lapey, the plumber, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Lapey was engaged in placing fixtures in the house of George Furtner at 223 West East street, and had occasion to carry a pot of molten lead a short distance. As is usual with plumbers, he was carrying the pot with a pair of tongs, when they slipped, dropping the lead to the floor, and throwing the metal all over Mr. Lapey's body. Mr. Lapey dropped in terrible agony while his helper, entering the night he was in, rushed to his assistance. A large piece of the metal had struck Mr. Lapey's eye and was quickly burning its way in the socket. When the helper took out his pocket knife and tried to remove it, it was on us, however, the metal had gnawed its way into the flesh so that it was impossible to remove it.

A conveyance was quickly secured and the unfortunate man carried to the office of Dr. Hughes, where he, with the assistance of Doctors Meadham and Weller, and the services of Mr. Furtner, who had been present during Mr. Lapey's back, arms and face. This operation revealed the fact that the sight of one eye has been entirely destroyed while the other was severely affected, though not so much as to render it a very precarious lampoon side evolution.

Mr. Lapey was later removed to his room at 80 East First Street, and at 11 o'clock, all the light was out, and in point of time, about 11:30, he died at sight. The unfortunate man was for some time a city poundage inspector, and has a wide circle of friends who will sympathize with him in his misfortune, and will sincerely hope that his soul may rest in peace.

Mr. Lapey was a very popular and Lapey considerable pain.

Negligence of City Workmen.

Through the carelessness of workmen engaged in laying a watermain at the corner of South Temple and Third West street, several accidents were last night narrowly averted.

The workmen had failed to place danger signals near the excavation and a farmer, on his road, drove his team right into the hole. The sudden jerk threw the man out of the wagon, but he fortunately escaped without serious injury. Other parties came nearly driving into the hole.

Officer De Young stationed himself at the pit and warned the oncomers of the danger that lay before them.

Quietly Married.

A quiet wedding took place yesterday at the residence of Attorney J. A. Miller of this city. The contracting parties were Mr. P. J. Kline, a prominent citizen of Mississ., Montana, and Miss Lizzie Burnett of Marion, Illinois. The Rev. Dr. McNeese officiated. After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the Hotel Knudson, where a wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Kline left immediately afterwards over the Union Pacific for their future home in Mississ., Montana.

Wild Pete Conquered.

The audience at Prof. Gleason's hall meeting was quite large and in point of interest the program was the best yet given.

The star of the evening was Wild Pete, a vicious killer from the country and a turbulent, determined brute he was. But notwithstanding his strength, as he gazed, the professor conquered him and gave him to understand that man was master of the situation. Crazy Jane did her other round, and among other animals that were brought in, was an alligator which was brought in by Prof. Gleason.

Somebody's Shame.

An uninvited guest was yesterday afternoon discovered lying in a bunch of weeds in the vicinity of Taft and Park, Park South street, in a crowd of boys who were playing the night he was in, outside of his residence. A large piece of the metal had struck Mr. Lapey's eye and was quickly burning its way in the socket. When the helper took out his pocket knife and tried to remove it, it was on us, however, the metal had gnawed its way into the flesh so that it was impossible to remove it.
