

up the hatch. The hurricane struck the Reynolds' broadside and she keeled over until the top masts touched the water. The crew scrambled over the bulwarks out of the high side and hung there, the seas running heavily and soon washed masts and deck houses away. Then the vessel righted, but the decks were ripped away and the cabin washed out and all food, water, clothing and nautical instruments were gone. The crew huddled aft with no protection save a strip of canvas, while the seas broke continually over the schooner. All Sunday night they watched for help. On Monday at 11 o'clock the Elmar hove in sight well to the south and sighting the wreck took off the Reynolds' crew.

FAIRMONT, Minn., Oct. 14.—The Sherburne bank robber confined in the Martin county jail has made a statement to Sheriff Hill, which has been verified giving his name as Lew Kellihan, and his home Rock Rapids, Iowa, where his parents reside.

He gives his age as 21 and states that his brother, who was killed was but 18 years of age.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 14.—Through a misunderstanding of orders, the north and southbound trains on the Florida Central & Peninsular railroad had a head-on collision early this morning just south of Swansea, about thirty miles from this city. The trains came together on an embankment.

The engineers and firemen jumped and escaped without injury. The engines of both trains were demolished and the tender of the southbound engine telescoped into the combination mail baggage and express car. Baggage and Express Manager W. D. Lines and Mail Agent L. A. Thomas were pinned in the wreck, which caught fire from the coal-oil lamps. The crew of both trains tried to cut them out, but the flames spread so rapidly that though the rescuers were stimulated by the piteous appeals of the two men, they could do nothing to aid the unfortunate, who were roasted to death. Flagman Ulmer was standing between the second-class and baggage cars, and he is supposed to have been burned to death also. Two other cars were consumed, but no passengers were injured.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Oct. 14.—Gov. McIntyre, who has been here for two days, has held numerous conferences with the officers of the Miners' union with mine managers and with delegations of leading citizens. There were reports when he came that he might be able to arrange a compromise of some kind, but he has not done this.

The action of the miners in attempting to call out the engineers, firemen and pumpers, following on the Coronado and Emmet attacks, proved the last straw for the managers, and they now decline to recognize the union in any manner. They will fill their mines with men and work them up to their full capacity as fast as possible.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A special to the Herald from Valparaiso says: An earthquake of great force has just shaken the city. It was accompanied by alarming noises from the earth. There was a panic in the city, but the damage done by the earthquake was slight. The shock was felt at Santiago heavily, but no damage was done there.

There is a scheme afoot to organize a company to transform Juan Fernandez Island, which is famous as the original "Robinson Crusoe" island into a fashionable bathing resort.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A special to the Herald from Cadiz, Spain, says: If Spain has not put down the insurrection in Cuba by the 1st of March, it is the intention of the government to give up the struggle and let the island go.

The significance of this statement coming direct from an officer of rank in the Spanish army within the week must certainly be regarded as of no little importance. The above declaration is an open secret among those who are close to the government and it is said that the policy is being adopted of exaggerating the magnitude of the trouble in the Philippine islands with a view of preparing the people for the ultimate design of letting Cuba go. By way of further corroboration of this estimate of the situation it may be remarked that while Spain is sending more than 200,000 troops to Cuba, who are in the main very young and undisciplined, she is carefully keeping her 80,000 well disciplined and efficient soldiers who may be available in case of an outbreak at home.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—A special to the World from Kingston, Jamaica, says:

Serious riots are reported from Georgetown, the capital of British Guiana. The police in trying to restore order, were obliged to fire on the mob. Three rioters were killed and many were wounded.

DENVER, Oct. 15.—According to the latest advices from Meeker, Colo., which is ninety miles from the nearest telegraph office, the three men killed there after robbing the bank, have not been identified. One who lived two hours after being shot gave names which are believed to be fictitious. It is believed one of the robbers is Thomas McCarthy who aided in robbing the banks at Telluride and Delta. Those killed are:

Charles Jones, leader of the bandits, aged 45.

William Smith, aged 21.

George Harris, aged 35.

Wounded, Game Warden W. H. Clark; bullet in right breast; not fatal. Victor Dickerman, clerk, shot through the right arm.

C. A. B. Oth, clerk, scalp wound.

W. P. Herrick, finger shot off.

The robbery was one of the most daring ever perpetrated in the West, occurring in broad daylight, when there were twenty people in plain sight.

Joe. Rooney, clerk of Meeker hotel, had stepped into the bank, located in the general mercantile store of J. W. Hagus, to make a deposit, and stood talking to Assistant Cashier David Smith. As he turned to leave he felt a heavy hand on his shoulder, and glancing up, was looking into the muzzle of a revolver. The man with the revolver commanded: "Hands up." At the same instant two shots rang out and two bullets whizzed by the head of the assistant cashier, who threw up his hands. Meantime, the two other robbers had covered the crowd in the store, compelling them to assemble in the center of the room, and guarding both doorways. Then Cashier Moulton was called and one of the men said to him: "Open the safe, and be quick about it."

At the point of his gun he was conducted to the safe, which he opened and the contents of the drawer, $700, were emptied into a sack the robbers brought with them. Not a word was spoken, the robbers going about their business with a deliberation that was astounding. After getting the money in the till, they quietly gathered in all firearms in the place, helped themselves to cartridges, and then the leader ordered the crowd all to go outside with them. The crowd fled through the doorway, followed by the robbers. The robbers were not aware that the place was surrounded. The crowd they had driven from the store ran for cover.

Citizens of the town had been warned by the two shots fired in the store, and arming themselves to the teeth, surrounded the bank and quietly awaited the appearance of the robbers. Deputy Game Warden W. H. Clark noticed that three horses were fastened at the rear door and surmising the robbers would leave by that route, took up a station a short distance from the back door, and centered more men at this place than at any other, not neglecting, however, to keep the front door just as well watched.

When the robbers saw they were cornered, Charles Jones raised the rifle he had taken from the store and fired at Clark. The bandits were commanded to hold up their hands, but answered with a fusillade of shots. From a dozen different directions they were fired upon. Jones and Smith fell to the ground literally filled with bullets. Harris, mortally wounded, held his revolver, and still staggering, continued to battle until he fell.

The money was all recovered.

SIMLA, Oct. 15.—At the vice consulate today the minister of agriculture stated that local authorities in a large portion of India reported that distress was expected as a result of drought and the consequent rise in the price of wheat. But, the minister added, the construction of government works and the importation of wheat from California would prevent acute famine.

MADRID, Oct. 15.—An official dispatch from Manila, the capital of the Philippine islands, announces that the rebellion in the island of Mindanao, the second largest of the group, is ended.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Constantinople says Armenians have added assassinations to the crime of bombthrowing. Three or four days ago Cololian Avadis, the Armenian advocate in the service of the foreign office, received a letter from the Armenian committee demanding £1,400. This system of blackmailing has been wisely and successfully applied by the Armenian anarchists with rich but unwilling Armenians.

Cololian asked for police protection last evening. A little later there came a knock at his door, which one of the policemen opened. One man immediately entered and was quickly followed by two others.

The latter attacked the policemen from behind while the first began to attack them from the front with a large knife. Nouri Effendi, one of the policemen, was wounded in the stomach, being well nigh disembowelled;
