By Telegraph.

EASTERN.

Murdered.

NORFOLK, Va., 1.—James Batton, of Princess Ann co., was murdered this a. m., by two negroes, while driving home with his son.

Sworn In.

WASHINGTON, 1.—H. M. Atkinson, the new commissioner of pensions, was sworn into and took charge of the pension office today.

Suspicion of Murder.

BOSTON 1.—RoseSewell, the white wife of a colored man, was found dead in her room this morning, her body badly burned; several colored men have been arrested on suspicion of having murdered her.

A Fight with Indians.

OMAHA, 1.—The following has just been received by General Ruggles from Camp Stambaugh, W'y.: "A small party of Indians stole stock on the Big Papoagie, and were followed by citizens and a fight ensued; two men were wounded and three Indians killed, and the stock recaptured. The operator at Julesburg reports that seventy-five Indians crossed the South Platte this morning, twenty-five miles west of Julesburg, going north.

Defaulted—True Bills Found.

NEW ORLEANS, 1.—The city defaulted on the interest and bonds maturing to-day; the Louisiana Levee Co. also failed to pay the interest on its bonds.

The grand jury are reported to have found true bills against five persons, charged with bribing members of the legislature, with the intent to influence their votes.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

New Palace Opened.

LONDON, 1.—The new Alexandria palace, erected on the site of the structure of the same name recently burned, was opened by the Lord Mayor to-day in the presence of thousands of people, notwithstanding the rain.

PRUSSIA.

Anti-Religious Legislation.

BERLIN, 1.—Dr. Falk, minister of public construction, introduced a bill in the lower house of the Diet to-day, providing for the suppression of religious orders in Prussia; the bill provides that all religious orders shall be excluded from Prussia. Existing establishments are forbidden to receive new members, and their present organization must be discontinued within six month after the passage of this bill. Partial exception is made in favor of religious bodies engaged in the work of education, which may prolong their existence for years. Those whose object is the care of the sick may continue their organization, but are liable to dissolution at any moment. Associations thus continuing are to be subject to supervision by government officials. The property of convents is not to be confiscated, but will be temporarily administered by the State.

The British Mission.—The following are from the Millennial Star—

"BERNE, Switzerland, March 29.—I am just returned from a trip through the Mission. I received your very kind letter and order to emigrate sister Dietrich. I have visited nearly all the Branches in the Mission since I wrote to you last. I found the Saints well as a general thing, enjoying the spirit of the Gospel. Elder Theurer accompanied me through the East Swiss Conference. We held two or three meetings in each Branch, all of which were well attended by the Saints, and at most places we had a goodly number of strangers present. We also held meetings in several new localities, which were well attended, particularly at Langnau, near Lake Zurich. At this latter place a large room was furnished us, which was completely filled; and a good many, we are told, had to go away, as there was no more room. The entire congregation except three were strangers. The Parson of the town was also among the listeners. The greatest attention and order was observed during the meeting, and being blest with a goodly portion of the Spirit of God, we spoke with freedom for over an hour and a half. The Congregation did the singing for us and we had altogether an excellent time. Our intention to hold meeting at this place had been published two days before in a newspaper, which no doubt was the means of drawing so many people together.

"In the west part of the Mission we have also good prospects for the future; we have been asked to hold meetings in several places, and an interest seems to be awakening in different localities to inquire after the truth. At Mirchel by Grosshoechstetten (the place I made mention of in a former letter), we have now a branch of ten members, all feeling alive in the Gospel.

"We have baptized thirty-five persons during the past three months, and our prayers are that the Lord may continue to bless our labors who are endeavoring to bring salvation to the honest in heart. Elder Zundel has been visiting the Saints in Chaux de Fonds, St. Imier and Scherli; he enjoys pretty good health, and will start for Zurich in a day or two, and after two or three weeks he intends to go to Germany again and labor among his relatives. Elder Walser is still laboring in the Office here and paying occasional visits to the western Branches.

"Elder Eyring has commenced translating the Book of Doctrine and Covenants since his arrival from Germany. The particulars about his labors, etc., at the latter place, I believe he has communicated to you. Some of the revelations have been translated by Elders Maesar and Schoenfeld, and were published in the Stern, which we find is quite a help. If it meets your mind Elder Eyring will continue in the work, until the entire book is translated, so as to have it ready for printing, whenever you think it wisdom to do so. We are also engaged in publishing a new edition of the hymn book, as it is very much needed everywhere.

"We have not got a great many names yet on our emigration list, still I think we will get a nice little emigration again. A good many are straining every nerve to obtain means enough from their labor to enable them to gather home to Zion; there are however a great many others that, on account of their poverty and circumstances, have to look to Zion for deliverance, and these latter ones form by far the greater part of this Mission.

"My health is good, for which I feel very thankful, the rest of the brethren are also well.

"J. U. STUCKL"

"God forbid," said Elisha Williams, an able attorney of Columbia county, New York, years ago, that I should say anything derogatory to the character of this court, for heaven knows,"—turning aside in an undertone—"it's low enough now."

STEEL PENS

Were sold in 1874, being a gain of more than 1,000,000 over the year previous; this, with the marked increase in the sales of the other numbers shown, that the superlative qualities of these Pens are being more and more appreciated, and that they are destined to take their place as the most popular Steel Pens in the market. They are made of the best steel by the most skilful workmen in Europe, and are a nearer approximation to the real Swan Quill action than anything of the kind hitherto invented.

The Spencerian Steel Pens are now extensively used in the principal Counting Houses throughout the U. S., more largely than any others by the United States Government, and quite generally in the Banks, Counting Houses and Schools of the country, and are for sale by the trade generally.

We claim for the Spencerian superiority over all other pens in durability, elasticity, flexibility and in evenness of point.

 The Spencerian Pens are comprised in 15 numbers, varying in flexibility and fineness of point, and, for the convenience of those who may wish to try them, we will send a CARD containing A SAMPLE OF EACH NUMBER by mail, securely inclosed, on receipt of 25 cents.
