CONFERENCE IN NEW ZEA-LAND.

TE ORE ORE, Wairsvapa, New Zeatand, Sept. 20th, 1886. Editor Deseret News: We send you a brief synopsis of our half yearly conference held at this place Sept. 18th and 19th. in general. President, Paxman, in a short address, said that these meetings were to learn the condition of the district and make ourselves acquainted with each other and things pertaining to the work of God; to see the growth of our faith to strengthen us and to show our love for the Gospel. It was worth everything to us and gave to us eternal riches. Before we came to this earth we dwelt with God; we came here as free agents, to reject or accept the plan of life. By obedience it would take us of life. By obedience it would take us back to Him and we would again enjoy that knowledge which we once had; but it would depend on our faithful ness. Said he was pleased with the reports, but sorry that all were no feeling well because he realized the position of the disobedient ones. We were worshiping a jealous God, and He would not be mocked. Obedience to true principles and wholesome laws was characteristic of a true Saint of God. He exhorted the Saints to live

At 2 p. m. the reports were read, showing four branches, with a total membership of 184 souls; after which the time was occupied by the Maori brethren, who expressed their feelings n glowing terms, and their joy at reeiving the Gospel. After the Sacrament had been adminstered, President Paxman arose and occupied the time, referring to the or-dinance; said it was in commemoration of the sacrifice made for the human family and us in particular, and was a renewal of our covenants. The Latter-day Saints were preparing for the coming of the Sen of God, and were looking forward with pleasant anticipations to the time when He will the life of the Prophet Joseph as being similar in many respects to that of the Lord Jesus Christ. The same power of Lord Jesus Christ. The same power of darkness fought against them both, but they were the chosen instruments in the hands of God to perform great labors for the salvation of the children of men. Said it would be necessary for the Saints to gather to build temples and perform other labors and it would be necessary for them to hring themselves into subjection to all the laws that were made knows to them, and to have oil in their lamps; they should live up to the Word of Wisdom as it was a law of God; His Spirit would not dwell in unboly tabernacles. A. 1 p. m. the general and local au-thorities of the Church were presented and unanimously sustained. Brother Rangiwhakaiwa was then ordaned to the office of an Elder. President Newby occupied a portion of the time; said we had all been bap-tized into one spirit and come in pos-session of the same, and were brothers and sisters in the Gospel of Christ. We could see the different the Christ. We could see the difemma the outside world is in at the present time, all claiming to worship God, but being destitute of the Spirit they were not able to understand Him nor His works. We must do our best to help to roll the work along and listen to the whisperings of the Spirit, which would warn us of many evils and spares of the devil, and enable us to know one another. He bore a faithful testimons to the truth of the Gospel, and exhorted the Saints to be faithful.
