The Assessin's Trial.

WASHINGTON, 14—The panel was stanusted after the five jurors had been obtained, and at the suggestion of the district attorney an order was assued for the drawing of 75 names from the box. The prisoner at this point slowly rese and informed the court that he would like to make a speech to morrow morning, but he was ordered by the Court to take his seat. He then passed his manuscript speech to a newspaper man, but before the latter could leave the court made compelled him to return it. This raised the angerof the prisoner, who arcitedly declared that he was not under control of his court who arcitedly declared that he was not under control of his court should be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. daily, allowing half an hour for recess, the court adjourned.

Nothing can be more absurd, te-cause General Garfield died of mal-practice. General Garfield was a TURNER & RAY, good man, but a weak politician. Being President, he was in a posi-tion to do vast harm to the Republic, and he was doing it by the un-wise use of patronage, and the Lord and himself took the responsibility of removing him; that his duty to the Lord and to the American people overcame his per-sonal feelings toward Garfield, and he sought to remove him. Not being a marksman, General Gar-field was not fatally shot, but in-competent physicians fluished the work, and they, not himself, are responsible for his death. He then speaks of the breach in the republican party, and his resolve to remove the President, and claims that the Deity ordered him to fire the shot. He refers to his work on theology, insanity in his family, his married life and his life TAN MANGER, COMMERGE, GLIPPER, AMBER,

A decision was rendered in the supreme Court of the United States lo-day, in the case of Davis & Patrick vs. Wells, Fargo & Co., which settle some points in law of guaran-tee which have hitherto been the subject of controversy. This Court holds that, A, in consideration of one dollar to him paid, executes and causes to be delivered to B, an unconditional agreement to guarantee payment up to the specified amount of C's present and future indebted ness to said B. It is not necessary for B to formally notify the guarantor A, of his acceptance of the terms of agreement, or to keep the latter informed from time to time of the amount of C's indebtedness. In the opinion of this Court, the written instrument in question is not merely an offer to do a certain thing, which to be valid, must be formally which to be valid, must be formally accepted by the party for whose benefit it is made. It was on the contrary a completed contract, by virtue of an acknowledgment winch it contains of a receipt by guarantor of a valuable consideration for services

New York, 14.—The syndicate to introduce black Indian tea into this market, referred to in a recent cablegram, have arranged to place 1,000 half chests here and at Beston, and the same quantity in Philadelphia and Chicago. Col. John Howard Welles was to day arraigned in the Tombs Police Gourt charged with attempting to blackmail Jay Gould. Inspector Byrnes applied to Judge Bixley for a remand to enable him to procure the necessary evidence to sustain the complaint. The prisoner was then taken back to police headquarters and locked up. It is intimated Inspector Byrnes is in possession of documentry evidence of an important charcter against Welles not published. Jay Gould did not appear in court.

Nugent's counsel examined Martin, to show counsel examined Martin, to show octions in other names. One account was in Baldwin's wife's name but the amounts involved were not over $5,000. His brother Theodore, the bank teller, also had an account which became so large that Oscar was notified. He appeared surprised, but afterward said it was all right. The account increased, and some-times he sent from $20,000 to $40, 000 in cash for margins by messen-gers, and they had borrowed for him

London, 14.—The announcement of the proposed increase of the American navy is generally discussed. The Pall Mall Gazette says. The lesson in navy construction which the Americans administered to be supported by the Americans. to us some 70 years ago, may still serve to remind us of the advisability of carefully watching any change in the organization or development of the United States navy. It is fully time that our constructors should realize the fact that the strength of a navy is not in huge iron-clads only, nor in crawling small craft, but in a certain, per-haps large preparation of fast and powerful cruisers.
