Notwithstanding Whitewash, the Factions of "American" Party Retain Opinion as to Supervisor's Guilt.

Two factions of the "American" party washed dirty linen for two hours in the council chamber last night before a crowd that included many of the party leaders. When the end came one faction was still firmly convinced that Jake Raleigh, the superintendent of streets, is guilty of grafting and incompetence, while the other faction was convinced of Jake's innocence, but was satisfied that Councilman L. J. Wood convinced of Jakes-innocence, but was satisfied that Councilman L. J. Wood in starting the fight was actuated by spite and an endeavor to throw Jake out of his position to make room for ward heelers of his own choosing. Eleven members of the council sat through the Raleigh-Wood wrangle. They were Black, Cowburn, Fernstrom, Ferry, Holley, Hall, Murdoch, O'Doti-nell, Raybould, Reedall and Wood Black occupied the chair. Mayor Brans-ford was an interested listener. The council chamber was filled with city employes and other "American" work-ers. There was a good sprinkling of anxious ones who hoped to get on the city payroll through the influence of Councilman Wood. The council considered the matter in committee of the whole. At the close Fernstrom moved that the committee arise and report to the council that the charges against Raleigh were not sus-tained. This motion carried without division, and gives an idea of what the final decision will be. It is expected to come up for final vote at the meeting Monday evening. WITNESSES CALLED.

WITNESSES CALLED.

WITNESSES CALLED. John Westerman was the first wit-ness. He intimated that his partner, James Hardman, had thrown him down --that he had been induced by triends of Raleigh's to remain away from the hearing. All he knew about the case was hearsay. H. A. Zerbe, an employe of the city engineer's office testified concerning the removal of the sand on north Mala street that he charged 40 cents for one load and 25 cents for another. No re-cord of these collections appears in the city records and there is nothing to show how extensive this system of business was conducted. He said the sand in question belonged to the city and was given to anyone who would haul it away. haul it away.

SAYS HE PAID FOR SAND.

James Hardman swore that he paid Jake Raleigh $4 for 24 loads of this sand, or at the rate of six loads for $1. He paid it, he said, in front of the Sliver Brothers' foundry. Every effort was made to shake this statement of Mr. Hardman's but he stuck to it to the end.

Ed Hill, Isaac Harmon and William

Ed Hill, Isaac Harmon and William Harmon told about the removal of the sand; that no city team hauled the sand; and that no city men assisted in the loading of the wagons. Hyrum Smith and a number of others testified as to a conversation with Hardman in which he was supposed to have said that he paid no money to Raleigh; but as no two of these agreed, and as Hardman agreed with none of them, the testimony was not of value. Thomas Robineon told about calling upon Hardman in company with Joe Redman, one of Jake kaleigh's fore-men, to induce him to stay away from the hearing. the hearing.

its twentieth or thirtieth presentation in Sait Lake. The work was done by Miss Hopkins, whose deimention of Anna Moore is a striking copy of Phoebe Davis in the same part, by Mr. Seigel in the part of the old squire, whose effi-ciency was a little marred by having to play with a broken collar bone, as the result of an accident he sustained in San Francisco, by Mr. Heron who as Hi Holler was excruciatingly funny to the salleries, and by Miss Conner as the village gossip. Some of the others were less efficient. The same bill goes tonight. Paul Gilmore opens tomorrow night at the Theater in his new play entitled "A Wheel of Love." Orpheum-Pater has an excuse for soling to the Orpheum this week, for headliner, "the equestrian queca." with her aggregation of intelligent horses and dogs that keep the or-chestra in a constant state of "nerves," Kronemann Brothers (top-man, Birmingham, Eng, bottom man, Hamburg) comedy acrobats and bal-ancers, and the stunning Maneilo and Marnitz troups of three shnpely wo-men and a sad looking man, are all circus top-liners, in fact two of the acts were with Ringlings show last season. These three turns have not a duli moment in them. Edwin Stev-ens and Tina Marshall are back again in another of their clever sketches, but just why Stevens should waste his talents on "Rich Man, Poor Man, Beggar Man, Thief" when there are so many less talented people doing the same frothy stuff, is not apparent. It goes without saying that Stevens is good in the little protean sketch which runs the gamut of the emo-tions, but it is not Dickens-- and when he was here last season he was threatening 20 minutes with Thack-ers of the same of the best low wonder and dancers the Orpheum has offered to date, while Haida Halv-pstairs. Barry is one of the best low wonder and dancers the Orpheum has offered to date, while Huida Halv-rs looks better than she sings. week's excellent bill. Grand—"Big Hearted Jim," the bill it the Grand for the first half of the week, is a play of the west, western, ind consequently it contains cow-boys, Indians, plainsmen, Chinamun, 'to, and the "girl." There was a good turnout last evening, and the plere met with the unqualified ap-proval of the audience. Harry J. Tackson as Jim Saxon—"Big Hearted Jim"—and Bertha Julian, as Dora Carlyle, the "school marm." shared the honors of the evening, and they received the support of a company hat is well above the average. The tory has considerable of the ele-ments of melodrama in it, though here is a good deal of a light vein "unning throughout. "The Denver Express" holds the boards for the last half of the week.

The children have turned out in great numbers at matinees and heir parents come along in the even-ngs. The bill is a good one and when the low prices maintained by the theater are taken into consider-ation. A double cast is being used to present the same chartcters with 20 years difference in their ages after Rip's long sleep. Commencing with a matinee tomorrow afternoon the bill will be "A Daughter of Old Vir-sinia," a war drama in four acts, with Miss Agnes Johns and W. R. Abrams in unusual roles.

Come to the surface in the spring as in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way: but in spite of pimples and other eruptions. they mostly remain in the system. Thats bad.

Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them and cures all the painful and disfigur-ing troubles they cause. Nothing else cieanses the system and clears the com-Nexion like Hood's.

CARTER WAS THERE. Former Couniciman A. R. Carter told of being with Raleigh when the sand on North Main street was disposed of. He had no knowledge of Raleigh re-ceiving money for eity sand. L. H. Jones gave similar testimony, although as a city employe he acknowledged sell-ing a load of the sand for 45 cents. He denied that all were permitted to hau away the sand. Preference, he said, was given a man named Ashton.

PROMISED A JOB.

Jack Watson testified that Jim Mor-ris, a son-in-law of Councliman Wood. told him that charges had been made against Raleigh, and that if he would help to make them stick he would get a job on the police force.

JAKE DENIES IN TOTO.

JARE DENIES IN TOTO. Jake Raleigh took the stand in his own behalf and denied all the charges made against him. Then S. P. Arm-strong acting as attorney for L. J. Wood, was given 15 minutes in which to sum up the case. He insisted that although the evidence was not strong enough to convict Raleigh of crime it was strong enough to show that he was incompetent and dishonest, and that he should be removed.

SPITEWORK CHARGED.

B. F. Johnson, summing up for Raleigh, said he believed that Arm-Raleigh, said he believed that Arm-strong honestly believed in the guilt of Raleigh, because by reading the papers he was convinced that there was graft in all departments of the "American" administration. Councilman Wood, he charaged with spite work, and with a desire to oust Raleigh to make room for his own henchman, Phillips.

WHITEWASH ANTICIPATED.

Fernstrom's motion was put and car-ried and the committee arcse. It was the general impression at the close of the hearing that Councilman Wood had failed to sustain the charges made, and that the vote of the council next Mon-day night would result in a whitewash for the superintendent of streets.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater-There are plenty of people to whom "Way Down East" is still the law and the prophets. The blass first nighter is not among them, and generally their ranks are conlined to the upper portion of the house, which iast night were black with humanity, while down statrs there were quite a number of empty chairs. But the sort of people who revel in the situations of "Way Down East" are those to whom it is a delight to actors to play before-pression. All these signs of approva-and enjoyment were in evidence tast inght, and the stirring old play, which is well acted on the whole, still shows plenty of signs of life, though it is an to whom "Way Down East" is still
