10 PAGES—LAST EDITION WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 7 1906 SALT LAKE CITY UTAH FIFTY-SIXTH YEAR

Salt Lake County And Utah In Republican Column.

CALAMITY CROWD IS PUT TO ROUT

Decisive and Crushing Defeat for The "American" Party in Salt Lake County.

SLANDER CAMPAIGN IN VAIN.

Republicans Elect Congressman, Supreme Court Judge, Legislature and Other Candidates.

Only Crumb of Satisfaction for "Americans" is a Justice of the Peace and a Lone Constable.

Coming after one of the most spirited campaign seasons, the quietest election in Utah's history returned a Republican congressman from Utah, and elected Republican county tickets generally throughout the state yesterday.

The surprise of the day was the margin shown in "American" party totals. The increase over the last election was only a trifle, and showed that the party has not gained strength in proportion as it did in adversity. In office in record has been its own condemnation, and this result was expected in its voting power yesterday. With all its "barrel," its great force of city workers, and city employees, the others of the Sheets case, and other evidence of its administrative inability, held down its vote to a point that surprised even its most informed leaders.

HOWELL'S BIG LEAD.

Howell goes back to Congress by a majority that is estimated this afternoon to be in the vicinity of 10,000. This was a Republican year in Utah, as it was in almost every other state. The power of Roosevelt was sufficient to call for a Republican Congress to uphold his hands, in New York, as in Utah. Thomas Weil on the American ticket, went fairly heavy in Salt Lake county, and then fell with a dull thud, while O. W. Powers on the Democratic ticket fared better outside of Salt Lake than in the city and county.

REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE.

The next state legislature will be overwhelmingly Republican. It will be more so than any legislature that has ever met before. Last session saw a few Democrats in the house, and three in the senate, who were bidders. The outlook now is that of a Republican Congress to uphold his hands, in New York, as in Utah. Thomas Weil on the American ticket, went fairly heavy in Salt Lake county, and then fell with a dull thud, while O. W. Powers on the Democratic ticket fared better outside of Salt Lake than in the city and county.

LEGISLATIVE PERSONNEL.

Full county returns are not yet in, but Col. Squires at Republican headquarters makes the following claims for his party, in the legislature. They include everything for the senate, and all but one or two representatives:

For the lower house: Boxelder, 1; Clark, 3; Carbon, 1; Davis, 1; Emery, 1; Grant, 1; Juab, 1; Kane, 1; Morgan, 1; Garfield, 1; Piute, 1; Rich, 1; Salt Lake, 10; San Juan, 1; Sanpete, 2; Sevier, 1; Summit, 1; Tooele, 1; Utah, 4; Uintah, 1; Wasatch, 1.

GENERAL LANDSLIDE.

The general Republican landslide through the state, was entirely duplicated in Salt Lake county. With a campaign gained heavily, while the Democrats polled a smaller vote than in the last election. In Salt Lake county the vote of last year, and made it up in numbers from the city's birdman and the disreputable element generally. In the county, and in all other places, the new propaganda fell with a dull thud. Its showing up in Western attempts to obtain a hearing in that direction, while the memory of it in this county can be counted on to do it in this county for some time. Dana Smith, justice of the peace, and "American" party men to gain office. The fear of turning the sheriff's office over to the gang which has operated in effect that might be supposed at first glance. The "Americans" polled about 8,000 votes in the city, and they counted on over 12,000, without counting in a single Mormon.

ON THE STREET.

Sergeant Hempel received a little of the sentiment last night. In the election small boy named Quayle was cut by an angry man who claimed he had been trampled by a gang of boys. The lady who had used the pen knife, a crowd rallied and was investigating. "Don't arrest him—the kid was right," said one man. "Take him money and let him go," said another. "Only don't forget to tell the best thing to do," chimed in a third. "To McWhirter the guy. Rob him and then run him out of town." Outside of this one incident, the remainder were received in a noisy but harmless manner. Main street was turned into a good natured pandemonium early in the evening, and it kept

LOVE "AMERICAN" LEADERS.

The small "American" party vote was a surprise to the leaders. If it had gone up to the 20,000, which they counted on in the state, they would have made a tremendous cry against the sources from which they would have alleged the opposition came. As it is they are aware of the fact that their propaganda hasn't caught on as it was hoped it would, and today radical changes in the party's future policy are being talked over. One suggestion is to unload some of the surplus baggage in the shape of grafters and revenue politicians. In the hope of having a fighting strength left among the people who are more filled with religious prejudice than a desire for graft as a primary consideration. Chairman Darnier wasn't on deck this morning. Neither was Secretary Armstrong, but a good sized crowd of party workers was at headquarters waiting to be paid off.

PAYING THE FIDDLER.

Another big crowd of party workers assembled at Republican headquarters, Secretary Horace H. Smith went to the bank with a big check, came back with a big bag of coin, and Chairman Eldridge then proceeded to pay up all claims that were presented for services of risk and workers on election day.

FIGHT ALL OVER.

When asked for a statement of conditions Col. Squires said: "The fight is all over, and the victory has been most complete. We carry the state by about 10,000 majority. While Powers was not high in Salt Lake county, we led heavily outside, and this tends to equalize their vote. In almost every county the full ticket is elected, and the legislature will be almost unanimously Republican."

Chairman Marincus said: "All you can say for me is that words fall me in which to express myself. I do not care to discuss the result."

County Chairman Cunningham of the Democrats spoke in much the same tone. "I will have to tell you," he said, "as I told the other papers that I am out of politics from now on, and that's all I care to say."

IN THE COUNTY.

The election returns have not yet come in sufficiently to give a full and detailed account of the vote in the various counties, districts outside of the city, or rather during the day they have gone under seal to the office of the county clerk, and therefore in all cases were not available to make a full and complete statement. So far as received, they however, show the following results on congressional, which will be the basis of estimate as to what the other nominees received.

Vote for Congressman.

LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, Nov. 6.—The seven Democratic nominees for Congress were elected in Louisiana.

MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 6.—The election in Mississippi was held in each of the congressional districts. The Democratic candidates were without opposition.

NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 7.—Late returns show that Saries, Republican, is elected governor by a safe majority, and Fiske, Democrat, is elected judge of the supreme court. The legislature will be safely Republican.

A special to the Dispatch from Fargo, N. D., says:

While the state Republican headquarters concede the defeat of Judge Knutson, the Republican nominee for supreme court, it is still hoped that Saries has been elected for governor, but this is not substantiated by claims that came to newspaper offices up to 11 p. m. At that hour defeat of Saries seemed

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTROL CONGRESS

With Incomplete Returns Result Shows 211 Republicans and 155 Democrats Elected.

20 DISTRICTS TO HEAR FROM.

As Matters Now Stand the Democrats Have Gained Twenty Seats.

In Kentucky the Republicans Carried Third District—Speaker Cannon Got His Usual 15,000 Majority.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt's appeal for a Republican Congress was not in vain. With the count still going on, the result so far shows the election of 211 Republican congressmen, 155 Democrats, with 20 districts to hear from. There are 35 seats to be filled in the house and should the Democrats get the remaining 20 they would still not have the control.

THE MOST SINGULAR PREDICTION PUT OUT BY CHAIRMAN SHERMAN PREVIOUS TO THE ELECTION WAS THAT THE REPUBLICANS WOULD RETAIN THE CONTROL OF THE HOUSE BY 50.

As the results now stand the Democrats have gained 20 districts held in the present Congress by Republicans as follows:

Illinois 2, Indiana 1, Iowa 1, Missouri 3, Nebraska 1, New Jersey 3, New York 1, North Carolina 1, Ohio 3, Pennsylvania 3 and Wisconsin 1.

In Illinois the defeated Republicans are Rivers and Dickson of the Twenty-first and Twenty-third districts; in Indiana, Cromer of the Eighth; in Iowa, Lacey of the Sixth; in Missouri, Lacey of the Sixth; in Nebraska, Kennedy of the Second; in New York, Wardsworth of the Thirtieth; in New Jersey, Pickett of the Ninth; in North Carolina, Blackburn of the Eighth; in Ohio, Douglas, who beat Governor for the Republican nomination. In Missouri, Blackburn gives his seat to a Democrat. In Pennsylvania, Dais of the Tenth and Palmer of the Eleventh and Samuel of the Sixteenth.

The Republicans gained the Third Kentucky district, where James defeated Richardson. This is the only Republican gain so far reported. Speaker Cannon received his usual 15,000 majority. The fight against Dalgell of Pittsburgh, who was defeated, Dalgell is re-elected with a reduced majority.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Illinois went Republican by over 100,000, the vote for Snodgrass, state treasurer, footing about 129,000 for a few districts estimated. Complete returns of Chicago on state ticket, 123,786; Piotrowski, Democrat, 72,335.

GEORGIA.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 6.—The contest of Georgia was in the first district, where Edwards, Democrat, was elected by a plurality of about 1,000. The three candidates for judges of the newly created court of appeals were unanimously elected.

FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 6.—All the Democratic Congressmen of Florida are re-elected and the state ticket carried by a decided majority. The vote at midnight indicates the defeat of Edwards, whose drainage constitutional amendment, 2 to 2.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 7.—Slow election returns showed no material changes in results today. Floyd, Republican, led Johnson, Democrat, for governor, by an estimated plurality of 2,220. A majority vote is required and the election will probably be thrown into the legislature, which it is believed will be Republican. Congressmen Currier and Sillaway, Republicans, were easily returned.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—The Republicans have elected their entire slate ticket in Indiana by an estimated majority of between 40,000 and 50,000. The Republicans will be re-elected. The Republicans have elected six congressmen, in the First, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, Tenth and Thirteenth districts. The Democrats have elected two in the Third and fourth districts. Republican State Chairman Goodrich claims the election of Fred Landis in the Eleventh, Democratic Chairman O'Brien claims the election of Mory in the Twelfth and Adams in the Eighth.

IOWA.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—Three hundred and twenty-five precincts out of a total of 1,197, give Cummins 39,490 and Porter, Democrat, 33,408. The same two years ago gave Cummins 43,422, and Sullivan 25,612, a loss to Cummins of 11,738.

LOUISIANA.

Reports from 460 precincts of the state put Cummins 15,665 votes behind his vote of 1904. His plurality that year was 73,000, but if he loses in the rest of the precincts as he has already he may be defeated by a small margin.

MISSISSIPPI.

Both party chairmen claim the election on the ground that favorable territory is yet to be heard from.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Des Moines, Nov. 7.—Reports from about half the counties of the state received at political headquarters indicate that the Republicans carried the state for the entire ticket.

INDIANA.

Chairman Woods says that all the late reports increase the plurality for the head of the Republican ticket and his latest estimate is that Cummins will have more than 25,000 plurality.

MISSISSIPPI.

At Democratic headquarters it was said that Porter will have a plurality of less than 1,000. There is no doubt of the election of Hamilton, Democrat, to Congress in the Sixth district, but the First district is still in doubt.

MICHIGAN.

Detroit, Nov. 6.—Gov. Warner and the entire Republican slate ticket have been elected by 80,000 to 100,000 majority. The Republican congressional candidates in all of the 12 Michigan districts have been elected and the Republicans will have a large majority in the state legislature, with a possibility of entire membership.
