

VETERANS HOLD SUCCESSFUL CAMP

Old Warriors Abandon Annual Campfire With Rousing Program at Armory.

COL. KENT FOR COMMANDER.

Former Head of Maxwell Post Is Selected as Chief Officer in Department of Utah.

With a business session in the afternoon, and a great camp fire in the evening at the state armory, the annual encampment of the Utah department, Grand Army of the Republic, came to a close last night.

The social features of the encampment began with a banquet at 6 o'clock, following which a general program of speeches and musical numbers was rendered. During the afternoon resolutions were passed setting forth the G. A. R. attitude to various national laws and officials.

The afternoon session was called together at 2 o'clock, the men of the G. A.
R. going into a business meeting, while their wives and daughters enjoyed a trip around Salt Lake City on the "Seeing" car. After reports from the various committees had been read, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we express our earnest thanks and warm appreciation to President Roosevelt and the Congress of the United States for the service pension law enacted for the old soldiers of the war of the Rebellion at the recent session of Congress.

Resolved, That we express our thanks to Hon. George Sutherland, U.
S. S., and Hon. Reed Smoot, U. S. S., and Hon. Joseph Howell, M. C. Utah's delegation in Congress for their uniform kindness to the old soldiers in Utah and their earnest and successful efforts in securing so large a number of pensions by special acts for our disabled comrades and that the adjutant general be directed to communicate this resolution to these gentlemen.

Resolved, That in the National Tribune, so ably edited by our comrade, John McElroy, we recognize a valiant champion and earnest friend of the old soldier and a valuable and interesting newspaper; and we urge our comrades to give themselves the pleasure of becoming its subscribers and readers.

OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY.

Resolved, That we again appeal to the good and patriotic people of our state to join with us in a proper observance of Memorial day, by abstain-ing from races, games and other unbecoming amusements and dissipations. Surely this people can well afford to solemnly and reverently devote one day of the year to the honor of the nation's patriotic dead.

Resolved, That this department is gratified that a camp of the Sons of Veterans is in process of formation in this city of Salt Lake, and that we pledge them our earnest support and help.

Resolved, That our warmest regards be extended to the brave and gallant young comrades of the Spanish-American war, they fought under and for the same flag that we bore; we recognize them as brothers and comrades and we welcome them into full participation with us in all our patriotic work and public observance.

They wish our sons and daughters must take up and carry on the work when we lay it down.

Resolved, That our thanks and commendation are due and are hereby extended to the patriotic and women of the Women's Relief, Aid and the Circle of the Ladies of the Grand Army for their good work, unfailing to the posts of the Grand Army, and we wish them God-speed in their efforts.

Resolved, That following the suggestion of the national encampment in its recent annual report, to the rules and regulations, chapter 2, article 2, section 6, that this department restore and recognize the honors of comrades in good standing in any post of this department, which in any way may be in other departments.

And that each post be directed to furnish the assistant adjutant general with a list of comrades.

M. M. KAIGHN,
W. M. BOSTAPH,
S. D. CHASE,
Committee on Resolutions.

KENT FOR COMMANDER.

The list of officers chosen for next year was headed by Alfred Kent, who served as first lieutenant in the Third Michigan cavalry during the Civil war, and who has three times been chosen as head of the George R. Maxwell post, No. 5 of Salt Lake. The other officers selected are: Senior vice commander, W. L. Russell of Ogden; junior vice commander, Alfred Saxey of Provo; chaplain, W. D. Corser of Salt Lake; medical director, Dr. Joseph Milliron of Salt Lake; adjutant and quartermaster general, R. G. Sleator of Salt Lake; delegate to the national G. A. R. encampment at Saratoga, George B.
Squires of Salt Lake.

BANQUET OF BEANS.

More than 400 members of the G. A.
R. with friends and families gathered for "beans" at 5:30 o'clock. There were other dishes, of course, but in memory of an army ration eaten through four years, there was no other dish, this course was featured.
Following the dinner, the installation of officers occurred, Comrade Wardley of Ogden officiating in this ceremony.
On its completion he introduced Col.
M. M. Kaighn as toastmaster, and in taking charge of the festivities, the colonel reviewed briefly the present status of the G. A. R.

THE OLD GUARD.

Of the 2,500,000 soldiers who plunged into the great political convulsion that characterized the organization of the confederacy, he said that only 700,000 now remain, and these are dying at the rate of 50,000 a year.

In closing Col. Kaighn said:
"Our meeting here tonight in this splendid armory of the national guard of Utah is to commemorate those terrible days of 1861 to 1865; to rejoice in the triumph of freedom and preservation of the Union; to honor the memory of the citizen soldiers, the men who died that their country might live; to highly resolve to be worthy of the civic liberty and blessings bequeathed to us from the past; to love honor and defend our flag and to maintain our government in justice, purity and honor."

Gov. Cutler's Eulogy.
Gov. Cutler, who was introduced as the first speaker, eulogized President Roosevelt as the peacemaker of the world, declaring that his loyalty to the nation was as great as that of Lincoln. After reviewing the history of the Civil war he declared that the time was at hand for settling disputes by arbitration, and called upon all people to emulate the example of the G. A. R. veterans in living lives of loyalty and devotion to the flag.

Miss Nellie Bowering rendered patriotic airs in a medley upon the coronet, ending the series with the Star Spangled Banner during which

AVOID ALUM

AN UNSEEN DANGER IN FOOD

TO GUARD SHIPS against the unseen dangers at sea, the United States Government maintains lighthouses.

To guard your home against the unseen dangers of food products, the Government has enacted a pure food law. The law compels the manufacturers of baking powder to print the ingredients on the label of each can.

The Government has made the label your protection—so that you can avoid alum—read it carefully, if it does not say pure cream of tartar hand it back and Say plainly— ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ROYAL is a pure, cream of tartar baking powder—a pure product of grapes—aids the digestion—adds to the healthfulness of food.

the audience rose and waved little flags in harmony with the music.

Senator George Sutherland was too ill to attend, but sent a letter of regret in which he spoke very highly of the sentiments symbolized by the G. A.
R. and assured them of his hearty support to their cause.

Rev. H. J. Talbot spoke of the "Greed of Gold" as the nation's menace, declaring that so long as "gold is god," the perils of swollen fortunes will surround us, and the ghost of national disaster will hover over us."

MUSICAL FEATURE.

Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris sang with great feeling "The Flag Without a Stain" and "The Old Flag Never Touched the Ground," both of which were received with hearty applause.

Rev. J. E. Carver, whose topic "The G. A. R." declared that no poet had ever half sung the glories of the Civil war, and that the "Charge of the Light Brigade," was not so glorious a thing to immortalize in verse as the charge of Keenan's troop of Chancellorsville, when Stonewall Jackson's 20,000 men were repulsed by 600 Federal cavalrymen.

Past Commander B. M. Sperry followed Rev. Mr. Carver, thanking the veterans for the support given his administration. Commander-elect Alfred Kent outlined the policy of his incoming term of office by declaring that he would keep the organization out of politics, and consider its mission to be to promote loyalty, and better citizenship.
"Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," by the Maxwell quartet, and a brief speech by Col. Geo. B. Squires closed the program, except for a number of songs which were sung by the whole audience, led by the quartet. Taken altogether the encampment was one of the most successful in the long G. A. R. series.

STUDENTS PROTEST.

Do Not Take Kindly to Proposed Changes in Medical Class.

A written statement was received yesterday by President Kingsbury of the University of Utah from students of the medical department, setting forth their views relative to the proposed changes in that class. In the opinion of the students an injustice will be done by Dean Chamberlain in the rearrangement contemplated. To him more than to any other person or persons they attribute the present standard of the department, and they feel that he should remain just where he now is.

Concerning the complaints made by a few against Dr. Chamberlain, the signers of the statement allege that the persons thus finding fault were not representative of the class.

After reading the statement, President Kingsbury met with the medical

A Coffee Fact!!

Many Highly Organized People Are Definitely and Distinctly

Diseased by Coffee

Not with all people, but many, particularly those highly organized—brain workers and their kind—the alkaloid—caffeine —contained in ordinary coffee, has a direct action upon the delicate nerves of the stomach, and by a pathological law the nervous system is gradually and surely affected.

The result will show in a variety of ways, such as headaches and bowel or kidney trouble in some people; in others, smothering sensations about the heart, dyspepsia etc., and in many the power of the brain is impaired.

Different people will be affected differently, but common sense should teach that if you have any disease or symptoms of disease you should endeavor to locate the source and cause.

It is useless to take medicine and at the same time continue the use of some injurious article of food or drink that not only causes the disease but continues it from day to day.

Leave off coffee. Take away the cause and the natural food elements obtained by long boiling of go instantly to replenish and rebuild the delicate gray matter in the nerve centres throughout the body.

Mental poise and sturdy physical health can be turned into wealth, fame and happiness.

student body, and freely discussed with them the situation. He believed the change would relieve Prof. Chamberlain of a vast amount of overwork, and that only the good of the class was being sought by himself and the board of regents. The matter will be further considered at the next meeting of the board.

CHILD DROWNED.

Little Rector L. Lee Meets Death in Ditch at Blingham Junction.

While at play in his parents' yard at Bingham Junction, Little Rector L. Lee was drowned in a ditch Wednesday evening. He was missed for some time, and when search was instituted, the body was found in the stream, a considerable distance from the house. The father of the child who is engaged at one of the smel-lers is ill and was in bed at the time of the sad occurrence.
Mrs. Lee formerly lived at Provo, and the little fellow's remains will be taken to that city for burial. Rector was just past 2 years of age, and was an unusually bright and lovable child.

NEW LAW DISCUSSED.

Provisions of Pure Food Statute Subject to Analysis by Jobbers.

The provisions of the new pure food law were discussed yesterday afternoon, in the governor's office by some 25 retail merchants, jobbers and manufacturers, with Governor Cutler, and it was finally left discretionary with the state dairy and food commissioner as to the confiscation of foodstuffs because of failure to comply with the statute in labelling or standards of purity. A problem was presented in the fact that smaller grocers had, prior to the passage of the act, bought stocks of goods that are now legally improperly labelled, but cannot be immediately disposed of. The use of saccharine was brought up when Dr. Beatty said in small quantities, it was not harmful, only sugar is nutritious, it is food, and George E. and J. V. Lightheart of Vancouver, B. C., are at the Knutsford. The gentlemen are on their way home from a visit to southern California. "Vancouver is an island little understood, for the most part," said George Lightheart, "and Victoria perhaps less. While transcontinental tourists travelling over the Canadian Pacific necessarily make Victoria, comparatively few tourists from the states visit our city and yet the town is almost as American as British in many respects. Some of your American cricket players come over now and then, however, and some of the splendid cricket games in Vancouver, some of the crack matches of the continent are played there. The resources of Vancouver island are scarcely known. The island itself is about 200 miles long, extending up the coast from the San Juan de Fuca strait to the Queen Charlotte sound on the north. The township course and the island, and is one of the most beautiful trips in the world. The central and northern portion of Vantensive wood pulp factories are in operation on the island. Timber concessions from the government include the manufacture of a certain amount of wood pulp with the establishment of every sawmill. There are many beautiful rivers and inlets on the island, and ideal hunting and fishing grounds. Vancouver is coming to the front, and will be known for what she is in the not far distant future."

BOY MISSING.

Albert Tibbs Has Apparently Started
Out to See the World.

Albert, son of Peter Tibbs, residing at 889 west First South street, has been missing from his home since Monday forenoon. The boy, who is 13 years of age, went about 11 o'clock on the day mentioned toward the Jordan river to drive a cow to pasture, and since that time his relatives have not seen him, nor have they heard anything concerning him, except an uncorroborated statement that young Tibbs was seen by some boys to join a party travelling westward by team, and he said that he was on his way to Nevada.

The parents are much wrought up over the boy's disappearance, and they have offered a reward for information that will lead to the discovery of his whereabouts. He is described as being of slight build, light eyes and hair, with upper front teeth crowded. When he left home, he wore a blue serge suit and cap, black stockings and a black and white striped shirt.
