DR. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION is very strongly recommended by the Medical Faculty, and is largely prescribed among their female patients. It is worthy of all confidence, as may be seen from the following testimonials:

ATLANTA, Ill., July 14, 1873.

Dr. E. F. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

DEAR SIR.—I have not words to express my gratitude to you for your advice and assistance in my case. There is not one who has used your medicines since they have been brought here but that can say with me they have been greatly benefited. Since I have been so helped by his use six or seven around me left off all doctors and other medicines, and now use it in their families, after being cured of the same disease as mine. You do not know what a wonder it created in our city, by its restoring my sister I wrote you about, for she had been under the care of three of our best doctors, but could not get up but for a few minutes at a time. I became of her to try your medicines, and before she had used half of the bottles she could go around the yard, and now I just came home from a visit to my mother.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer 55 degrees F. in the shade, at 1 p.m. to-day. Fine day.

Gone East.—Hon. Thomas Fitch left for the East to-day. He is accompanied by Mrs. Fitch.

Good.—Geo. W. Davis's Swiss cheese is as delightful to the palate as it is big to the eye.

Good.—There have been no criminal cases in the police court for a couple of days. The officiating J. P. naturally thinks his occupation is gone.

Spring.—To-day started in with a light shower, and it has tried to rain several times since. Mud appears to be everywhere.

Lecture on the Martyrs.—Mr. S. J. Jonsson will deliver a lecture on the Martyrs, to the Scandinavian Young Men's Literary Society, to-morrow (Friday) evening, in the Seventies' Hall. The lecture will commence at 7.30 o'clock.

Crossing.—The city is putting down another of those excellent plank crossings on First South Street, extending from the corner opposite the residence of F. Little, Esq., to the American Hotel.

Strangers.—Quite a large sprinkling of strangers from a distance have been around town to-day. Some of them were out, viewing the city, in a coach drawn by four spanking horses, a span of blacks and another of light greys.

A Fine Present.—The Ladies' Relief Society of Ephraim, Sanpete County, have purchased a very beautiful sacramental service, which they purpose presenting to the settlement, to be used for religious purposes in the spacious and substantial new meeting house at that place. The service consists of thirteen pieces, five chalice, two patens and six cups, all neatly chased. It was purchased at a cost of $114. The articles are in the show window of Mr. C. C. Amundsen, from whom they were bought.

Youman's Dictionary of Every-day Words.—This is the title of a book handed in by Mr. W. S. Treco, of about 550 pages. The amount of information this book incorporates can scarcely be estimated, as it comprehends almost every conceivable subject of a useful and practicable character. It has twenty thousand different receipts, and could not fall to be a valuable work in any household library. Mr. Treco is the agent for the work, for the Territory.

Postal Change.—Washington, March 22. Name changed.—Deseret, Millard County, Utah, to Oak City. d102 1w

This far too common fashion of changing names of cities and settlements is productive of little good, but of many difficulties, misunderstandings and mistakes. Many places in this Territory are called by two or three names, or have been so called. The best way is to choose an unobjectionable name at first and then stick to it, on no account changing it for any but an imperative reason, and there are few such.

The Apple Worm.—A gentleman called at this office this morning with living specimens of the apple worm, the predecessor of the codling moth, he having found nests of these in the chipped bark on several of the trees in his orchard. He expressed his intention of making a thorough search for them on all his trees, believing that he can by that means destroy a large number of the pests. If this item should induce others to do the same, the ravages of the codling moth will undoubtedly be curtailed to some extent in their orchards the coming season, and almost any effort promising success in this direction will be worth the attention of fruit growers.

Hyperbole.—From force of habit, or characteristic peculiarities, some people can never make an unprejudiced statement. They have a strong penchant for exaggeration, and manifest it on all occasions. The tendency of such a habit is to injure those who indulge in it, as much as anybody else, as it never fails to detract from the influence of their opinions, or what they give as their opinions, for it is quite natural for people to make large allowances and receive with extreme caution the supposed views of those who are predisposed to hyperbole. No class of men have so much influence or carry so much weight as those who have rightfully earned a reputation for sobriety and truthfulness. Finesses, froth and exaggeration may tickle the mental palate of some for a season, but they do not last. That is one reason why the men of newspapers who undertake to run down the "Mormon" community with Munchausenisms, lies, false statements, rebukes of worn out and exploded calumnies, exaggerations and the like never succeed in accomplishing what they aim at. Their course causes even those who would like to be their friends to have not the slightest confidence in them; and it is utterly impossible that they can have any confidence in themselves, so far as honesty is concerned.

"Working Men's Co-operative Association."—The employees of Z. C. M. I., lately engaged at the Big Boot, have organized themselves into a "Working Men's Co-operative Association," and incorporated yesterday, under the laws of Utah, with a capital stock of $10,000.

The following are the officers: James Woods, President; T. F. H. Morton, Vice President; Duncan McAllister, Secretary and Treasurer; and James Poulton, John L. Ness and William Bates, Directors. James Woods and John L. Ness have been appointed auditors of accounts and S. P. Crompton is General Superintendent.

Dead.—The following dispatch, from Paris, Dear Lake Valley, was received to-day: "Frederic Olesz, the young man that attempted to commit suicide at St. Charles, on the 24th, died this evening, at 6 o'clock. He was unconscious to the last."
