FRAGMENTS.

SHERIFF MCBRIDE was in from Tooele today.

JAMES PRICE was fined $5 in the Police Court today for drunkenness.

JAMES PHILLIPS, for getting drunk and creating a disturbance, was fined $10 today, by Justice Pyper.

MELVILLE D. LANGDON (Eli Perkins) is in the city. He will remain for a few days, and will then continue his journey west.

SALLIE DAVIS, an old offender, was in the Police court today for drunkenness and profanity. She was sent up for ten days.

J. TAYLOR, for being drunk and disturbing the peace, J. Smith for drunkenness, and Oliver Helquist for fighting, were to be tried before Justice Pyper this afternoon.

THE family of John Muzzell, the veteran fireman, at whose funeral the fire department turned out so generously on Sunday, are very grateful to the firemen for thus showing their respect for their old comrade.

THE Sam. Johnson who was fined $5 in the Police Court yesterday for drunkenness is not the young man of that name in the employ of the Utah Central. The culprit was a seedy looking individual about forty-five years of age.

MARY ANN PRICE, who was arrested last night on a charge of having been drunk and created a disturbance at R. Mackintosh's, was discharged today, the complaint made against her in the Police Court having been withdrawn.

THE auction of J. T. Harwood's oil paintings, drawings and sketches will be held at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, at 62 w., Second South Street. There are 104 paintings, many of them of high merit, besides sketches, etching plates, art magazines, etc.

A SPAN of street car mules got away this morning and made the trip at full speed to the Sixth Ward terminus, with the tongue of the car and the double-trees swinging behind them. They were caught by some men and held till the driver came up.

WM. L. ROBINSON, who was convicted of assault with a deadly weapon, and admitted to bail pending appeal, was surrendered by his bondsmen last night, and taken into custody by Marshal Dyer. He was released again this morning, on finding new sureties.

THIS afternoon we received a call from Mr. S. D. Kenworthy, agent in Utah for the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway, with headquarters in this city. He was accompanied by Mr. W. J. Shotwell, also of the Santa Fe route and Mr. W. H. Murphy, contracting agent of the D. & R. G. W.

A BOY about six years old was taken to the City Hall this morning. He was unable to find his way to his home, which he said was near Liberty Park. He gave his name as Robert Snowden, and said that he had been out all night, having slept in a lucern patch. He was given food and an effort made to find his parents.

SAMUEL SMITH was before Justice Pyper today on a charge of having violated the city ordinance by leaving his hack at the Utah Central depot, and going on to the platform to solicit for passengers. He was tried and acquitted. Another hackman, named Shepherd, was held for trial this afternoon for a similar offense.

THOSE who visit Syracuse bathing resort should not fail to inspect the garden to the north of the grove. The growth of vegetables and fruits there is remarkable. Potatoes, corn, peas, etc., are in an advanced condition. As a sample of what the soil there produces, there is in the garden a patch of turnips, some of which measure nine inches in diameter. Grapes, peaches, berries, etc., are also grown there, though within a quarter of a mile of the lake, and so directly exposed to the wind that the leaves of the trees have a coating of salt carried from the water below.

Arrested.

John C. Ostler, of Nephi, who was arrested on June 14th for unlawful cohabitation, was released on $500 bonds to appear for the preliminary examination before Commissioner Morehouse on July 2d.

The Losses.

The losses at Sunday's fire will not be so heavy as at first thought, and will probably fall short of $20,000. The following amounts are covered by insurance: Farrell & Co., $200; R. C. Easton, $800; Howard & Davis, $2,000; Sells & Burton, $1,500; Barratt Bros., $3,000; C. Diehl, $200; Auerbach & Brother, $1,500; S. J. Nathan, $500; E. Kahn, $100. There is about $3,000 which was not insured.

Surgical Skill.

Mr. Henry Honey, of 746 e. First South street, called at this office this morning to make a statement of the results of treatment by Dr. Prentice for cross-eye and deafness. His right eye, which turned inward from birth, was made perfectly straight, by an operation performed in 30 seconds. For many years he has been quite deaf, but after an operation and slight treatment this morning, his hearing was greatly improved. He is 66 years of age.

Old Folks Annual Excursion.

The season of the year is a strong reminder of the duties and responsibilities that still continue to rest upon the "Old Folks Committee" towards every one living in the city and County of Salt Lake over seventy years of age. The committee respectfully inform the public, and especially the older portion of them, that negotiations are going on with Bishop T. R. Cutler and the inhabitants of Lehi, Utah County, and are so far completed that, from the kind and generous spirit manifested, the committee have decided to take the Old Folks to Lehi this year. Two members of the committee are expected to meet the inhabitants of Lehi next Sunday to make all necessary arrangements for that purpose.

The generous public, who have always contributed in every possible way to make the enterprise a success, will again be visited in a few days by a portion of the committee, to receive something that will gladden the hearts of the aged ones.

The day for the excursion, together with all other particulars, will be published in next Monday evening's NEWS. In the meantime, if the Bishop of every ward in Salt Lake City and County and every other denominational minister, will kindly have prepared, a list of every person over 70 years of age in their respective districts who desire to accompany the committee to Lehi, the list to be handed in to John Kirkman, Tithing Office, by Wednesday next, they will confer a favor on the committee. We wish it distinctly understood that age is the only qualification necessary to insure every one over 70 years old one day's pleasure free of cost, no matter what may be the religious, politics or color of the skin. COMMITTEE.

A BURGLAR NABBED.

Most of the Stolen Property Found in His Possession.

Two or three days ago the store of Levi E. Riter, at Silver City, Juab County, was burglarized. Word was sent to some of the railway officials in this city, but the owner of the store failed to convey the news to the officers, and came very near letting the thief slip off through the omission. The culprit was, however, the first to cause suspicion to fall upon himself that he had been guilty of something wrong. He came up on last evening's Utah Central train from Provo, and rode a great part of the distance in the closet. He paid his fare on the train, but his peculiar actions attracted the attention of Conductor Jacobs, who subsequently reported these actions, and those of a man with whom the stranger seemed familiar, to Policeman John W. Sharp.

Just before 10 o'clock this morning the office received the following dispatch:

John W. Sharp:

Look out for the tallest man of the two I gave description of, as it answers to one I have since received of a man wanted. JACOBS.

The officer at once began work, and got hold of the following telegram, received on Saturday afternoon:

SILVER CITY, Utah, June 16.

Francis Cope, Agent U. C. Railway:

A person left this place today with stolen goods. He is supposed to be one of the Moss Brothers, who burglarized the Levan store about two years since. He is about twenty-eight, weighs about one hundred and fifty pounds, is light complexioned, with mustache. Wears black slouch hat, dark coat and gray overalls. Stole about one hundred dollars, mostly silver; five watches, silks, pocket-knives and jewelry. Please instruct your conductors to hold him if he boards any of your trains today or tomorrow, and inform me. L. E. RITER.

With the information thus secured the officer went to the Utah Central depot, and going along the street his eyes rested on a man whom he instantly recognized as the one described by Mr. Riter. He followed the stranger down to the Utah & Nevada depot, where he stopped him and asked: "Where are you going, young man?"

"Oh, I'm going out to the Beach," replied the other.

"I think you had better come with me," said the officer.

"Why? What's the matter?"

"Oh, only a little trouble down south."

The thief saw that he was caught, and came right along. He began fumbling in his pockets, but the officer checked him, and in less than an hour after word of the robbery had been received, the culprit was in the Marshal's office, at the City Hall.

There he was searched, the first "find" being five watches, worth from $20 to $30 each. Then came a handkerchief, in which was tied about $15 in nickels and dimes. Next was a roll of twenty silver dollars, wrapped in a memorandum blank of the Union National Bank, of this city. Then came a couple of pocket knives, a harmonica, four small leather purses, each containing money, a pair of scissors, new memorandum book, several account books, a $1 50 pair of cuff buttons, and papers, letters, etc., in profusion. The fellow also had on two brand new suits of silk underclothing.

The thief was evidently an old one at the business, though yet a young man, showing not the least concern as one article after another was taken from his pockets. He was asked by the Marshal: "Where are you from?"

"Provo," was the curt reply.

"Where do you live?"

"Anywhere I can."

"Did you come to Utah from the east or west?"

"Colorado."

This closed the conversation. An examination of the property taken was made and showed that $86.50 of the money still remained. There was also a Utah Central drawback check from Provo worth 25 cents, and about $1 worth of 2 cent stamps. The prisoner gave his name as J. W. Watson, and this was written in one of his books. But to several letters which he had evidently written, and which had not yet been mailed, "Alford Lubric, Mineral Point, Colorado," was signed. In one instance it was A. Lubricson, and in another J. W. McAdams.

One of the books contained a photograph of a young woman and a $1 bill, North Carolina currency, issue of 1866. There were several letters written in Spanish. These were to dealers in jewelry and notions, and answering advertisements. Those in English were of the same nature. The writer is an expert penman, having been a student of the celebrated C. Madarasz, as could be seen by his work, and from letters which he had received.

The accused will be held here for preliminary examination. Witnesses have been sent for, and in the meantime Lubric, or Watson, or McAdams, or whoever he may be, will find a resting place in the city jail.

"Eli Perkins."

Yesterday afternoon Eli Perkins (Melville Landon) dropped into our office. "Do you remember me?" said he.

The interrogation was a highly colored absurdity, as there is only one Eli Perkins to a planet. It may be bad for the planet, but that cannot be helped.

It is needless to say that the gentleman has an original way of his own. How could he be a humorist if he hada'nt? He is very sudden in conversation, as he rolls an assertion and an interrogation into one and throws it at you in condensed shape. The assertive part of the package is probably not at all what he believes himself, but he just wants to hear what you will say about it.

In answer to a question he said he didn't intend to give one of his truth-economizing lectures here, but was bound for Denver.

One of the most absurdly funny things we ever heard or witnessed was his repetition of the alphabet, on the stage of the Salt Lake Theatre, a good many years ago. In uttering each letter he expressed some human emotion. He wept, he raved, tore his hair, supplicated, pleaded piteously, uttered ferocious shrieks of despair, became frantic with joy and howled with agony from a to z. The effort was so utterly and incongruously ridiculous as to be sufficient to move the most stoical to tears—of laughter.

Board of Equalization.

The Territorial Board of Equalization met in the office of Auditor Clayton yesterday and organized, with Judge Elias A. Smith, president, and James T. Hammond, Secretary. The other members are L. S. Hills, Robert C. Lund, Jonathan S. Page, C. C. Richards, and R. C. Chambers. Mr. Chambers did not put in an appearance yesterday. The remaining members of the board took the oath of office, made a draft on the Territorial treasury for $2,000, and will start on their labors of equalizing the valuation of property in the various counties on Monday next, commencing at Weber County.

At the Theatre.

The Barry & Fay Comedy Company made its appearance at the Theatre, last night, to a moderate sized audience. The play was "McKenna's Flirtation." Messrs. Barry and Fay were of course the principal sources of the Irish humor. The audience laughed themselves tired. Isabella Coe, a contralto, Charles Raymond, and "The Three Lilacs," were repeatedly encored for songs and dances.

NEWS NOTES.

Items Gathered from Various Sources.

Prescott, Ariz., June 16.—A wildcat suffering from hunger or rabies attacked two children of George Denny yesterday in his yard, near here, biting and wounding them seriously. The children were 8 and 10 years of age respectively. On attempting to kill the vicious animal, it attacked Denny, and was only killed after a terrible fight. The children are under medical treatment and the physician think no serious effect will follow.

Kingman, (A. T.), June 16.—A serious shooting scrape occurred at Coyote Ranch, in Apache County, a few days ago. The ranch at which the shooting took place is about eight miles east of Springville, A. T., near the New Mexico line. The annual round-up was at the above ranch, and at breakfast one Jenkins had some words with McGee the Cook. After eating, Jenkins passed around the house, near which the mess wagon was standing, to saddle his horse. McGee had sent for the captain of the round-up, Bob Thomas, and told him he could not get along with Jenkins, calling him a vile name, and had determined to quit. Thomas was attempting to excuse Jenkins to McGee when Jenkins made his appearance and asked, "What was that you called me?" at the same time drawing and covering McGee with a pistol. McGee said, "Hold on," and he drew his pistol from the mess board and began firing at Jenkins, the first shot taking effect in Jenkins' arm, and, passing through, entering his vitals. A subsequent shot struck Thomas, shattering his leg and rendering amputation necessary. On examination Jenkins' wounds were found to be serious and he died after two days suffering. McGee was tried before a justice of the peace and acquitted. He is now nursing the man who was shot in the leg.

Virginia, Nevada, June 16.—William Drysdale was fatally and John Hanna severely injured in the Consolidated Virginia shaft this morning. Drysdale, Hanna and Andrew Fitzgerald had just loaded, at the 1400-foot level shaft station, the upper deck of the double-deck cage with timbers, securely lashed. On the lower deck they placed a few loose 12x14 timbers, and the men named above boarded that deck to ascend to the 1300-foot level, neglecting to lash the timbers, as is the custom. The cage was running up to the 1300-foot level, Drysdale holding the loose timbers in place. The cage began moving, and Drysdale, while conversing, momentarily forgot himself and let go of the timbers, which were standing on end. The timbers fell outward and caught in the wall plate, throwing the cage out of the shaft guides. Hauna was pitched head first from the cage deck, but his face caught between the rim of the cage deck and the wall plate, which saved him from being dashed to death by falling to the bottom of the shaft, 250 feet below. He hung suspended by the heels over the yawning chasm with the bell-cord in his grasp, which he had the presence of mind to seize and give the signal to stop when pitched head-long from the cage deck. After hanging half an hour in that perilous position, momentarily expecting to be dashed to death, he was released almost uninjured. Drysdale was found lying fearfully crushed on the cage deck. He is seriously injured internally and cannot survive.

Scandinavian Immigrants.

By telegram to Bishop Winder, we learn that the company of Scandinavian Saints now en route will arrive in this city at 20 minutes past seven o'clock this evening, by Utah Central train.

"Zion's Home Monthly."

We have received the current number of this excellent periodical. It should have been issued on the 15th, but the publication was delayed a few days, on account of the proprietor having to wait for an engraving of the Manti Temple. The picture is a good one, and is quite a creditable embellishment to the issue. The number is fully up to the standard of its predecessors, each of the departments into which the matter is classified having its quota of excellent articles, such as give instruction and entertainment. The magazine embodies much that is useful, and should be extensively read,

Along the Bear River.

RED CANON, Wyo., June 17, 1888.

A young Finlander got on "the war path" at No. 5 Mine on Friday night. He succeeded in cutting three men very badly. One of the number was his father, who, it is feared, is mortally wounded, being cut in three places. The young rascal was overpowered after several shots had been exchanged. He was placed in the Evanston jail. No doubt he will be set to a job where knife pastime will not be permitted.

The citizens of Almy and Red Cañon met last night to consider the best mode of celebrating the Fourth. The Knights of Labor had taken the matter in hand to get up a programme and submitted their findings to the meeting. A resolution was offered, the effect of which was to endorse the action of the Knights of Labor and allow them to proceed—the community to fall into line. The assembly did not take kindly to this resolution, and when put to a vote it was lost. The matter was fully discussed, but the meeting adjourned without coming to any agreement. No doubt there will be two celebrations in Almy. It is to be regretted that a union could not have been effected as the results would have aided in uniting the people. The citizens thought the Knights of Labor had acted prematurely in the matter and for that reason would not sustain them.

Red Cañon and Almy each have a fine brass band organized. Both bands enlivened the mass meeting last evening.

The weather is very warm; the wind carries the dust in every direction, making things generally very disagreeable.

Measles and whooping cough have had a big run about Woodruff, Rich County, Utah; two deaths have occurred of late from a relapse from measles.

A large ditch has been constructed from Bear River, tapping the stream near Almy, and conveying water to Woodruff and along down the valley. This enterprise will enhance the interests of the county materially.

The hay crop will be light this season, on account of the scarcity of water, as many of the land owners along the river depend upon its overflow to make grass for them.

Randolph people have completed a large canal from Bear River, near Woodruff. This ditch will supply water enough to irrigate a great amount of land, all of which has been secured and is fully cultivated.

The Latter-day Saints of Almy Ward have taken the initiatory steps towards the erection of a meeting house. The site is between Nos. 4 and 5 mines.

Large tracts of land are being enclosed by wire fence in the vicinity of Woodruff and Randolph.

Rich County is building a court house this summer at the county seat. Brick will be used in its construction. O. K.

FIRST GRAND AUCTION SALE OF LOTS

—OF—

Terrace Heights

WILL BE HELD ON

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, June 20 & 21

EASTON, ELDRIDGE & CO., of San Francisco, Auctioneers.

5,000 FEET ABOVE SEA LEVEL.

NO MALARIA, NO FEVER. PURE AIR, PERFECT DRAINAGE.

Terrace Park Hotel, on "Terrace Heights," on the East Bench, Salt Lake City's prettiest suburban addition. Every lot lies high and dry, overlooking the City, Valley and Great Salt Lake. Pure mountain spring water piped to every lot. Ditches supplying water for irrigating purposes line each side of the avenue and streets. Streets are being made and graded. Shade trees are planted before every lot.

TERRACE PARK AND HOTEL,

is now being laid out—and the hotel is under construction, to be completed during 1888. The high altitude of 5,000 feet makes TERRACE HEIGHTS the healthiest location in and about Salt Lake City, which is the acknowledged sanitarium of the world. To make this addition the choicest spot for residences, the Salt Lake City Improvement Company have donated three lots for public school purposes, and have inserted a clause in the deed in which the sale of liquor is forever prohibited on all the lots except those separated for business purposes. The lots to be sold for business are apart from the resident portion. A company is now forming to build a motor line direct to the Hotel and Park. Lots are 50x140 and 50x100 and 50x150 and 50x200. All have alleys in rear.

The site is acknowledged by all to be the prettiest around Salt Lake City, and the location of the better class of residents must necessarily go on the East Bench. The Salt Lake City Improvement Company will offer only a limited number of lots at their auction sale on June 20th and 21st. After the sale prices will be advanced 50 per cent. on the highest average price obtained at auction. Lots on Capitol Hill, Denver, have increased over 600 per cent. in the past two years. The advance in value has enabled many to build elegant homes from the profits gained in buying several lots. TERRACE HEIGHTS is to Salt Lake City what Capitol Hill is to Denver. When the hotel is completed and the motor line in operation, lots that may only bring $300 at auction will readily bring from $2,000 to $3,000. The Salt Lake City Improvement Company (a corporation) has made special easy terms, and will build houses for those who desire to own a home of their own. The liquor clause, inserted in all deeds, will forever bar out any objectionable neighbors, and TERRACE HEIGHTS will become the select quarter of lovely homes in this the most beautiful city between the Atlantic and Pacific.

Title Perfect. Terms, One-third (1-3) Cash, balance in one and two years, With Interest at 8 per cent. per Annum.
