The Semi-Weekly News.

THE GREAT COUNTRY PAPER OF THE WEST.

Is issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Ibex, Capitol county, will have a post office Oct. 1.

The Salt Lake Collegiate institute opens the fall term with 25 pupils.

The great lake shrunk one-tenth of a foot during the last two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville C. Hatch are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son.

There will be a special meeting of the First Unitarian society tomorrow evening in Unity hall.

F. E. McGurkin has bought him a fine $1,150 ten-horse power automobile car, seating five persons.

State Supt. of Schools Nelson received word from Boxelder county today that four teachers are needed in that county.

The Bell telephone people are feeling jubilant over a net gain for the first 19 days of the month, of 101 telephones in this city.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Emma L. Arnold will be held at 213 West Second South at 3 o'clock tomorrow. The remains may be viewed by friends from 1 to 2.

Invitations are out for an opening hall to be given at Christensen's hall by "The Feniches," D. company, First Infantry, on the evening of Thursday next.

The claim of Lena Perkins of Ogden for her mother's pension has been granted. She has been allowed $12 per month from June 15, 1902, amounting to $224 back pay.

Sheriff Bailey of Ogden brought down two prisoners to the state prison yesterday. They are Joseph Turner, sentenced to five years, and Thomas Doyle, one year, both for robbery.

William LaRose, sentenced by the district court of Ogden last January to two years' imprisonment in the state prison for burglary, petitions the board of pardons for a commutation of sentence.

This is St. Andrew's day, and the two local Episcopal congregations united this morning in special service at St. Mark's cathedral, with an address by Rector Perkins of St. Paul's, and holy communion.

John W. Brown and Adeline Andrus, both of Draper, and Tony Lombardi and Cangetto Lombardi, both of Salt Lake, are standing in the doorway of the county clerk's office, by Deputy Clerk David A. Smith.

Clerk Judd of the board of education is making up the teachers' payroll for the first two weeks of the term. They will be ready for payment on Friday. The board will in a few days call for bids on coal to be supplied to the various buildings the present school year.

Manager Vogeler of the new salt manufacturing company that has erected a plant on the south shore of the lake near Black Rock, expects to harvest this fall 10,000 tons of salt. He says his company will expend $20,000 in the erection of a refining plant later on.

The colored people of this city will celebrate Emancipation day on the evening of the 27th inst., in Federation of Labor Hall, instead of on the 22nd inst., on account of the frequency of political conventions happening about that time. The celebration will be under the auspices of the McKinley club.

A large local show window is made "attractive" by an ingenious window dresser arranging a burglary scene, with the burglar drunk and fast asleep on a bed, while the room about him has been turned topsy turvey. The lady of the house, and a policeman—all in wax, are standing in the doorway of the bedroom in "mute astonishment."

For the first time in three years the Lake Branch school was thrown open Monday and the attendance the first day was about 30 pupils. The board of education has rented and fitted out a room for the school, and the children instead of being transported to the neighboring schools at the expense of the board can now attend school in their own district.

There is continued complaint about reckless shooting by boys about town, of 22 caliber guns. One bullet recently struck the face of a horse belonging to the Wells-Fargo Express company, and yesterday a bullet struck the leg of a carriage horse belonging to Supt. Sanborn of the Pacific Express company. It was fortunate that no serious damage resulted.

A special from Denver says that several of the leading officials of the Rock Island system are to arrive in Denver today and that they will take a trip over the Colorado and Southern from Fort Collins to Trinidad in a special train, accompanied by some of the Colorado & Southern officials. It is understood among railroad men that it will ultimately lead to the absorption of the latter road by the former.

Henry Frost filed suit in the district court yesterday against the Rio Grande Western Railroad company to recover $15,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received while in the employ of the defendants. The suit is alleged to be for the plaintiff was employed at the shops and while tapping a vat containing caustic soda, he slipped and fell into the same and severely burned his left leg, causing him permanent injuries.

Mrs. Eva Dryer, who came to this city from Montana recently in destitute circumstances, with her two-year-old son, Vernon, has disappeared, leaving her husband, John, in a state of distress. The husband is alleged to be a gambler and the wife is alleged to be a prostitute. The husband is alleged to be a gambler and the wife is alleged to be a prostitute. The husband is alleged to be a gambler and the wife is alleged to be a prostitute.

Mrs. Sarah Partington Quayle, wife of Thomas Quayle, died of dropsy, yesterday in Oakland, Cal. Mrs. Quayle was well known in Salt Lake, having come here with her parents in the early pioneer days and resided for many years in the Seventh ward. She removed to California 15 years ago for the benefit of her health and has since resided there. She was the mother of 12 children, nine of whom survive her.

Henry Quayle and Mrs. Ida Q. Van Cott left for Oakland last evening to attend the funeral.

H. L. A. Culmer has completed his $10,000 oil painting of Shoshone Falls, and the same has been removed to the gallery of Colonel E. F. Holmes. The latter expresses himself as well satisfied with the work of the artist. Mr. Culmer also painted the fine view of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado which hangs in the Utah building at the world's fair, and in connection with this, the following letter received by the artist from Nat. M. Brigham, dated Chicago, Sept. 15, is of interest:

"Will you accept my sincere congratulations on your painting of the Grand Canyon shown in the Utah building? Next to Moran's painting, it struck me as the best I have seen."

Tracy Cannon, an organizer at yesterday's Tabernacle organ recital, did very well, and the large audience evidently thought so, too, by the applause given. This was Mr. Cannon's first public appearance in his home town at a Tabernacle recital, and he was naturally just a trifle nervous, but he "got there, just the same." His treatment of the "Sweet and Low" vox humana number, was unusually good, and evidenced a truly musical soul. He was complimented on this later. Mr. Cannon is a good performer, and he was naturally and his technical requirements have been his excellent promise. Mr. Cannon has every reason to feel satisfied with his vespertine appearance. Prof. McClellan will be home tomorrow, in time to officiate at the afternoon performance. Saturday's recital will close the season.
