BY TELEGRAPH

FOR THE DESERET EVENING NEWS.

AMERICAN.

Wired From Washington.

WASHINGTON, 22.—The President and party left Washington this afternoon for New York. It is not definitely known how long the President will remain in New York, but it is probable he will be there until after Decoration Day.

The Post will publish to-morrow a letter from Secretary Chandler to ex-Congressman Dezendorf, of Virginia, in reply to a communication received from the latter, calling attention to the levying of assessments for political purposes on employees of the Norfolk navy yard. The Secretary, after answering the charges concerning the alleged violations of law, says: None of your letters which you have made public indicates that you take a very strong interest in the reformation of the navy yard at Norfolk, and your long familiarity with the yard as a constant candidate for Congress since the war, seeking special support from the voters here employed, will undoubtedly enable you to make many more valuable suggestions for the suppression of abuses therein, which will gladly be received and considered. That you should now for the first time call the attention of the department and the public to such abuses after you have ceased to expect any personal benefit from the management of the yard, is a most commendable performance of public duty by a private citizen.

The Attorney General has given his opinion to the Secretary of the Treasury, that under the provisions of the act approved March 3rd, 1883, no tax can be collected on the capital and deposits of National Banks since the first day of last January, and no tax on the capital and deposits of State banks since the first day of last December. The Attorney General says he is of the opinion that duties are not assessable and collectible on deposits and capital stock of National Banking Associations for the period between the date of the act, March 3rd, 1883, and January 1st, 1883, nor on deposits and capital of other banks and bankers for the period between the date of the same act and December 1st, 1882.

Major General McDowell has arrived from San Francisco.

The following story is published here: Quite recently a prominent army officer was ordered away from Washington to join his regiment in the field, at his own request, as stated in the official order. The fact then came to light, that he had sold his pay account to no less than three or four banking concerns which made a practice of discounting army officers' pay. The name of Colonel A. P. Morrow is freely mentioned in connection with the above publication. He was until ordered to join the regiment, an officer on General Sherman's staff.

The President to-day appointed Henry W. Lord of Michigan, to be Register of the Land Office, and Abraham A. Whipple of Minnesota, Receiver of Public Moneys at Creeksburg, Dakota.

The Secretary of the Treasury has prepared a series of regulations to govern the importation of sugar, and they will be promulgated in a day or two.

The President issued an order to-day closing all the Executive Departments on Decoration Day.

Murch has notified Folger that he will on Wednesday next commence the submission of evidence in the investigation of supervising architect Hill.

Col. Thomas F. Barr, Judge Advocate U. S. A. has been sent to Philadelphia by the Secretary of War to take notes of judicial proceedings now pending in that city in the matter of the alleged fraudulent divorce recently obtained there by Col. A. R. Nickerson, U. S. A. and the letter's subsequent marriage. No other action has yet been taken by the War Department, but it is thought in army circles that the proceedings in Philadelphia will lead to an official investigation, and that when Col. Barr returns and makes his report upon the case, court martial will be ordered to try Col. Nickerson, on the charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman.

The Catalogue of Crime.

JERSEYVILLE, Ills., 22.—Walter Dodson shot and killed Mrs. Nellie Dodson this afternoon, then shot himself, but only inflicted a slight wound. He is in jail.

New York, 22.—James H. Marriette, arrested on the charge of absconding from Paris with $75,000 worth of diamonds entrusted to him by a jeweler named Kramer, to show Wm. Waldorf, the actor, is convicted on a charge of grand larceny, with a recommendation to mercy. Marie Peseux, who accompanied Mariette to this country, and to whom he has been married since his arrest, manifested deep grief when the verdict was announced. The case will be appealed.

New Orleans, 22.—David Todd, son of Justice Todd, of the Supreme Court, and Joseph Lovesy, of the Mascott, fought a duel this morning near this city. After an exchange of harmless shots at 15 paces, both parties declared themselves satisfied. The trouble grew out of an article published in the Mascott, reflecting on Todd's father.

St. Louis, 22.—Ex-Judge C. H. Krum, one of the best lawyers in St. Louis, a prominent republican and appointed United States District Attorney by Grant, and subsequently counsel for defendants in the celebrated whisky trials, has been absent since April 26th. His father reported him under treatment by Dr. W. A. Hammond, of New York, but a telegram from New York stated Hammond had no knowledge of him. His father to-day refused to answer inquiries. A few days ago the probate court issued a citation in the estate of Charles W. Ford, of which Krum is administrator. He has failed to make report to the court since July, 1882. He has also failed to report in the estate of Daniel W. Bell, of which he is also administrator. Under these circumstances, Mr. Krum's disappearance, if it may be so called, causes much comment.

New York, 22.—Giane Bettini, the young Italian lieutenant who recently shot himself on account of a love affair, has so far recovered that he was arraigned in the police court to-day to answer the charge of having attempted to end his life. He was accompanied by his friends, the Duke of Cost Elaces and General de Cesnola. Bettini said he did not know what he was doing when he shot himself. He was held in bail to be on his good behavior, which was furnished by friends.

Memphis, 22.—Gen. J. R. Chalmers of Mississippi, arrived in this city this morning. Owing to rumors afloat the chief of police thought proper to arrest both him and McGalloway of the Appeal. Before a magistrate they were made to give a bond of $1,000 each to keep the peace.

Death and Disaster.

WILMINGTON, Del., 22.—Emlen Hewes, extensive commission dealer in lumber, has failed; liabilities estimated at $100,000; assets less than $25,000.

Chicago, 22.—The two men imprisoned since Sunday night on the crib a the end of Fullerton Avenue, only a few hundred feet from shore, having sought shelter there during the great storm on the lake, were released this morning by the life-saving crew, after considerable exertion. Great crowds lined the shore to witness the rescue. The men displayed evidence of their severe siege, but were otherwise uninjured.

Bismarck, Dak., 22.—A Tribune special from Deadwood says: The flood in Whitewood has subsided, and the stream returned to its natural state; the former channel is changed somewhat, however. Business is generally resumed. It is impossible to travel the old road leading through Boulder Park, but repair forces are at work. First estimates of loss were too great, and it will not exceed $200,000. No work of renovation is as yet commenced.

Chicago, 22.—Pieces of wreckage identified as belonging to the schooner Wells Burt which came ashore north of the city limits today leave no doubt that she was wrecked in the storm Sunday night, as she was due here about that time from Buffalo. Her owner, J. S. Dunham, of this city, has no doubt the upper rigging of a sunken schooner visible above the waves off Grosse Point, about 20 miles north of the city, is that of the Burt, and that her crew of eleven souls all perished. She was a first-class vessel valued at $30,000, and insured for $25,000 was loaded with 1,500 tons of coal for this port. Her captain, Thomas Fountain, was one of the most capable and experienced men on the Lakes.

The Churches.

SARATOGA, 22.—The General Assembly opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Brans, of Buffalo. Rev. Dr. Geo. D. Baker read the annual report of the Board of Home Missions, showing the great field of work beyond the Mississippi among the Indians, Mormons, Spanish speaking people and along the Northern and Southern Pacific Railroads and Alaska; 1,889 missionaries are supported by the Board, and 133 teachers by the women of auxiliary societies. The report recommends that the General Assembly ask the pastors and sessions of the churches to raise $800,000 for the imperative wants of the coming year. Receipts last year, $504,000.

Saratoga, N. Y., 22.—The National Baptist Anniversary began to-day; Bible convention assembled at 10 a.m., J. L. Howard, of Conn., moderator; Rev. Z. Grunnell, D. D., Mich., secretary.

Dr. Griffins stated that the object of the convention was a determination by the Baptists of the United States to know how their Bible and missionary work shall be done. The question for debate was, "Do Baptists Need a Distinctive Bible Society?"

Dr. John W. Sailes, of New Jersey, spoke. Fealty to God makes a distinct society necessary. The Baptists have everything to do in making and bringing about a revised Bible, because of the indefinite views of a large number.

Rev. Dr. L. Goss, of Indiana, said the proposition was one of business. They did not need a distinctive society; that it should be left to the American Bible Society, of New York.

Osborn, of Mass., spoke upon economy in Bible work. He stated the publication society expended 98 per cent. of its receipts in Bible distribution; but that the American Foreign Bible Society, which many wanted to close up, had expended 80 per cent. for office work and but 14 for Bible work. It had made Bible grants of but 3 per cent. of its income.

Rev. Dr. Howard Osgood, of the Rochester Theological Seminary, said after the treatment received from the American Bible Society no self respecting Baptist could sustain any relations with it.

Lexington, Ky., 22.—The Assembly at 3 p. m., took up the question "How shall fraternal relations be carried on, whether by letter or delegates?" The committee reported in favor of the letters. The question was under discussion when the Assembly adjourned.

Dr. J. J. Bullock spoke in favor of delegates. Dr. R. K. Smoot favored by letter. The question of foreign missions is being discussed to night.

Philadelphia, 22.—The evening session of the reformed Presbyterian Synod was devoted to discussion on a paper in which the Rev. Alex. Robinson, of Nova Scotia, asks for an appointment to preach, solicits the sympathies of the General Synod in losses by fire, which he sustained, and expresses a desire to return to the United States in order that he, with his family, may enjoy the ordinances which he is deprived of where he is, and finds fault with a ministerial brother in regard to his preaching. Dr. McLeod offered a resolution that the Synod sympathize with Robinson, and that his case be referred to the Eastern Presbytery. Rev. Mr. Thompson characterised Robinson as a living disgrace to the General Synod. Resolution adopted. Adjourned.

FOREIGN.

British Items.

LONDON, 22.—The Commons, 185 to 85, decided to adjourn over to morrow, Derby Day.

The Japanese Government has purchased the man-of-war lying in the Tyne which was originally intended for the Chilian navy.

Dean Bradley has made arrangements to place the bust of Longfellow in Westminister Abbey between the tombs of Chaucer and Dryden.

Latest betting on the Derby, 100 to 20 against Galliard; 9 to 2 against The Prince; 6 to 1 against St. Blaise; 7 to 1 against Lasthaie; and 2 to 1 against Highland Chief.

General Items.

BERLIN, 22.—In the session of the Reichstag to-day, Scholz, Minister of Finance, refused to reply to a question of Johannesen as to whether Germans living in North Schleswig who became Danes after the Danish war would be readmitted as German subjects, if they so elect. On Johannesen persisting in demanding an answer to his question, all the members of the Bundesrath left the House, stating they would not participate in the debate.

A Nihilist emissary from Russia was arrested in South Bavaria.

The Imperial Procession.

Moscow, 22.—The signal for starting the procession was firing of artillery and ringing of bells at the Cathedral of the Assumption. Upon the Emperor's mounting, other salutes were fired. The order of procession was as follows: The chief officer of police and twelve gend'armes, private escort of the Emperor, first squadron of Cossacks of the guard, and one squadron of dragoons; mounted Asiatic deputations; representatives of the nobility; court servants, carriers and huntsmen; master of ceremonies in a carriage drawn by six horses, and followed by a large number of court officials and their suites; foreign princes; members of the Council of the Empire; grand marshal of the court; squadron of chevalier guards; the Emperor on horseback, followed by the court; Alexander Adlerberz, Minister of War, and aid-de-camp; General Czarovitch, and the Grand Dukes George, Michael, Alexis, Paul and Constantine; a son of Constantine and others. After all the male members of the Imperial family who were on horseback came the Empress, accompanied by the Grand Duchess Xenia Alexandrovich in a state carriage drawn by eight horses, a groom leading each horse, equerries on either side of the carriage, mounted pages and grooms following. Then came stale carriages, the first containing the Grand Duchesses Marie Paulovna and Alexandra Josephovna; the second, Grand Duchesses Olga Feodorovno and Marie Alexandrovna and Duchess of Edinburgh; third, the Grand Duchess Constantina Michaelovna; fourth, Princess Marie of Baden. Princess Eugenie of Oldenburg, and Grand Duchess Iselin of Gleckenburg-Strelitz. A squadron of the cuirassiers regiment of the guards, ladies of honor in carriages, a squadron of lancers of the guard. The mayor and deputations of tradesmen joined the procession at the old triumphal arch. The marshals of the nobility of Warsaw and several other districts did homage to the Emperor at Tverskais Palace. The civil governor of Moscow, judges, and other city officials received the Emperor at the Gate of the Resurrection, where His Imperial Majesty and the Grand Dukes and Empress alighted and knelt in prayer before a picture of the Virgin. The Archbishop of Warsaw received their Majesties on the steps of the Cathedral of the Assumption with the cross and holy water. At this point the cheering of the people was perfectly deafening. The procession then entered the Kremlin.

The Emperor wore a broad blue ribbon of the order of St. Andrew over his uniform. The Empress and Grand Duchess wore the national Russian Dress. After entering the Kremlin, the court officials presented their Majesties with bread and salt on plates of silver and gold. When their Majesties retired the bells pealed, and a salute of 101 guns was fired.

The streets through which the procession passed were badly paved. The Duke of Edinburgh rode in the rear and on the left of the Czar. The Duchess of Edinburgh sat in the second coach from that in which was the Empress. In the Red Square six thousand school children in white robes sang, "Life for the Czar." At this point the enthusiasm of the multitude and the playing of the bands produced a great effect.

The general verdict is that the pageant was a great success.

Gen. Sturm, head master of ceremonies, was thrown from his horse and had his skull fractured.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Chicago, 22.—Chicagos 4, Bostons 3. No other League games played; rain.

Baltimore, 22.—The races at Pimlico are postponed until to-morrow on account of rain.

New York, 22.—Regulations are issued for the practice of the American International Rifle Team of 1883.

New York, 22.—Williamsburg (Eastern District Brooklyn) Sunday school children, about 20,000, paraded to-day.

Cincinnati, 22.—In the competitive drill in Music Hall of the Knights of Pythias to-night, free for all, Dayton No. 6 took the $300 prize.

Harrisburg, 22.—The bill providing for a tax on crude petroleum was defeated in the House, failing to receive the constitutional majority.

Chicago, 22.—The Bicycle race, close second day: Mmle. Armaindo 286 miles, Woodside 285 miles. Morgan 283 miles.

Chicago, 22.—The Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars began its twenty-ninth annual session this morning, but engaged only in preliminary work, all the delegates not having arrived.

Lexington, Ky., 22.—About 500 delegates to the State Republican Convention, which assembles here to-morrow, have already arrived, and they are busy canvassing the situation. A lively set-to between the Stalwart and Half-breed factions is expected to-morrow. The appointment of Hon. Walter Evans as Commissioner of Internal Revenue appears to give the delegates great satisfaction.

St. Louis, 22.—The backbone of the coal miners' strike, in St. Clair County, Ills., has been broken. Two operators induced new men from this city to go to work this morning. As 60 of these arrived at Buckner Station, they were met by 500 strikers. No hostile demonstrations were made, but the strikers induced several of the new men to quit work. A sheriff and posse of deputies are on the grounds.

Chicago, 22.—The authorities of the town of Lake sent a force of police to Fifty-first Street to-day to prevent the Chicago and Atlantic Road's western connection from Erie, from laying a track across that thoroughfare, and trouble seemed imminent till the president of the road exhibited a lease from the Western Indiana over its right of way, when the police withdrew and the tracks were laid.

St. Louis, 22.—An Indian chief named Whiteman, of the Maguata tribe, from the vicinity of San Carlos Agency, who is one of a party of Indians, giving an exhibition here, says that General Crook will be successful in his campaign against the Apaches in Mexico. He says a chief known as Juh, but whose real name is Juan, is a very able leader, and has some 500 warriors, including about 160 renegades, whites and Mexicans. But he will not be able to cope with General Crook and the Mexican forces, and he and his band will share the fate of Victoria, and be exterminated.

New York, 22.—The reunion of the Ninety fifth Virginia Infantry and the Twenty-eighth New York volunteers took place here to-day. The visiting regiments were escorted to Prospect Park by a number of G. A. R. Lodges, where the Virginia regiment was welcomed. Capt. Bumgarder, of Virginia, presented to the Twenty-eighth a flag that the Virginians captured from them during the rebellion. The Southerners are in ecstacy over their treatment. Weather rainy and cold for the visitors. They leave for home to-morrow.

A rheumatic young lady at Vassar, whose teacher declined to pass her, St. Jacobs Oil bought, and the cure it wrought, showed that none could out class her.
