WATCHES JEWELRY

ABOUT three months ago all the watchmakers in this city agreed and subscribed to certain prices for work in their line, for the purpose of obtaining uniform and Cash rates. This agreement, however, has already been broken by several watchmakers, who are underselling their colleagues and thereby proving themselves untrue to their written word. In consequence of which, the undersigned has withdrawn his name from said agreement and established his own prices, cheaper than any other watchmaker's in Salt Lake City.

For You,

Madam,

Whose complexion betrays some humiliating imperfection, whose mirror tells you that you are Tanned, Sallow and disfigured in countenance, or have Eruptions, Redness, Roughness or unwholesome tints of complexion, we say use Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

It is delicate, harmless and delightful article, producing the most natural and entrancing tints, the artificiality of which no observer can detect, and which soon becomes permanent if the Magnolia Balm is judiciously used.

The Boat Race Bets.

NEW YORK, 18.—The Times has the following on the Hanlon-Courtney match: Book makers and pool sellers in this city, by common consent, have resolved to pay back all the money staked on the fiasco, whether bet in pools or books on the race or the time. They say this is done to protect the public, who otherwise might have been swindled out of their money by an agreement between the oarsmen or their backers. The amount bet on the boat race is variously estimated from $50,000 to $200,000, and there is good reason for believing it approaches near the latter figure. This was being paid back to betters yesterday, without any deductions for commissions. Pool sellers and book makers claim that had the race been contested they would have made money whoever won, a change in the odds from being strongly in favor of Hanlon to the reverse on the night before the day for the race had given them just the chance to hedge they wanted. Cridge & Co. would not state how much was on their books, but said that $50,000 would not cover it. All the betting in the last 24 hours before the time fixed for the race was nearly at odds of 100 to 70 on Courtney, and sporting men say that the same persons who were in this city last year betting on Hanlon, were here again on Wednesday ready to back Courtney for any amount. From this they argue that it had been fixed that Courtney should win. A pool seller said last night if the bets had not been declared off, the Union Springs Bank would have been burst. Sporting men think that this fiasco will put an end to all "big" boat racing in this country, which will sink to the level of the prize fight. A disgusted better said last night that "a man ought never to bet his money on anything than can talk." Opinions differ as to who have to bear the blame of the Hanlon-Courtney fizzle, but all agree that Courtney's carelessness about the protection of his boats invited their destruction by an enemy. Many still believe Courtney could have outrowed Hanlon, but think that the sawing of his boats was the result of cowardice. The betting on whether the race would be rowed above or under 35 minutes was as near even as could be, but all bets on the time have been declared off.

Murphy the Walker.

Last evening young Murphy was about the Madison Square Gardens with his trainer. They were consulting with some who want to take Murphy to California to give a series of exhibition walks.

The Weather.

The Tribune says: It may be that the warm weather, which has been confusing the almanac, for the past few days, has not had time to show its effect upon the wealth of the public, but the fact remains that the general health of this city is excellent. Indeed, the death rate of last week was smaller than for the corresponding week of last year, in spite of the difference in temperature and the increase of population. This has been the warmest October for many years, but its evil effects will not be felt in force until after a change of weather.

Democratic Duplicity.

WASHINGTON, 18.—News comes from Ohio that the Ewing men will certainly expose the duplicity and treachery of the leading men of the Thurman faction. It is openly charged, that under the lead of John G. Thompson, the Thurman managers arranged in a number of counties a general exchange of votes for governor in return for republican support of such democratic candidates for the legislature as were supposed to be friendly to Thurman.

Going Home.

Sanitary Inspector Wright, of Memphis, writes the National Board of Health that the tendency of the people absent from Memphis to return to some place near there continues. He says: If it were not for the enforcement of the rule which requires all who go into Memphis to have a permit from the superintendent of quarantine, there would be a regular stampede for Memphis.

The Law to be Enforced.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has telegraphed Revenue Agent Blocker, of North Carolina, to cause the seizure of all fraudulent distilleries and the arrest and vigorous prosecution of fraudulent distillers and dishonest officials. He says: I desire that the most energetic measures be pursued to bring dishonest officers and distillers to condign punishment. I expect Collectors Meeth and Brayton to take the initiative in these prosecutions.

The Oliver-Cameron Suit.

To day in the case of Mary B. Oliver against Simon Cameron, in which motion has been made by plaintiff to dispense with the printing of the record on appeal, the case pending in court in the general term, counsel for defendant filed answer thereto. The answer says among other things that it is not sufficiently shown plaintiff is unable to have the record printed, that the cause of action, alleged breach of contract of marriage, is not of the character of cases which calls for a suspension of the rule, and a fair, just and convenient review of the case requires printing.

Indian War News.

In consequence of the stormy weather, which has set in on the route between Rawlins and White River Agency, and of the retreat of the hostile Utes over the mountains southward from the latter point, it has been determined to relinquish the former purpose of reinforcing General Merritt by a direct line from the Union Pacific Railroad; but orders have been issued by General Sherman for the immediate concentration of troops near Almonosa and Pagosa, Colorado, with a view of joining Gen. Merritt, and of co-operating with him in the Uncompaghre region in case the scene of hostilities shall have been shifted thus far to the southward.

No advices are received at army headquarters, either from Merritt or in regard to Apache disturbances in New Mexico. It is believed, however, the latter will be speedily quelled, as Gen. Morrow, if he fails to overtake the marauding Indians will undoubtedly drive them over the border into Mexico.

Encouraging News from Penn.

NEW YORK, 18.—The Tribune's Washington special says: A well-known democrat residing here, who passes his vacation in the iron regions of Pennsylvania, has just returned from that section. He reports that the year has wrought a wonderful change in towns which twelve months ago were filled with idle and dissatisfied workmen. There is now full employment for all who desire it. Some of the largest mills which were established 40 years ago, have now more work than at any period since they were erected. In some towns they are running day and night, a thing they did not do even during the war. The revival is not confined to the iron interests, but extends to all other industries. All classes are satisfied and hopeful.

This gentleman reports that the general effect of this revival is a serious disadvantage to his party, because many democrats among the quieter farmers and business men are arguing that it would be poor policy to change the State administration in the face of such a general promise of good times.

Progress of Mushroom Towns.

The Tribune thinks one of the most interesting features in the development of the western mining country is the rapid progress of mushroom towns in all the appliances of civilization. The spectacle of the quick growth of schools, libraries, churches and newspapers that have sprung up almost in a day, is striking and encouraging. Either common report has done injustice to the gold and silver hunters of the past generations, or these things have not been characteristic of the former settlement of adventurers. The Far West letters of the staff correspondent of the Tribune, now writing from Montana, have described many instances of this energetic tendency of new towns toward respectability and comfort.

New Mexico's Advantages.

The Tribune prints a letter from Chief Justice Prince, of New Mexico, setting forth the advantages of that Territory for emigrants and capitalists. He says he has received so many enquiries from eastern people that he takes this method of answering. He speaks of the fruit prospects as superior to California, the flavor being much finer, and is especially hopeful over the outlook for native wines; and now that there will soon be direct communication by rail with Kansas and Colorado, the valley of the Rio Grande will become the great orchard of the west.

Speedy Just ce.

A private letter from Walhalla, South Carolina, speaks of the two men who shot Bryce, a few weeks ago, and says they are in a fair way to receive speedy trial and punishment by the local authorities unless the political features of their crime are forced into prominence. The criminals have few friends and the sentiment of the community is against them.

A Centennial Celebration.

PHILADELPHIA, 18.—The assembly of governors to arrange the details of the centennial anniversary of the surrender of the English army at Yorktown, met this morning. Governor Halliday, of Virginia, was chosen president. The meeting then adjourned to Independence Hall, where Mayor Stokley and Gov. Hoyt welcomed the Governors to the city and State. Gov. Hoyt, of the committee on resolutions, reported the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the governors and representatives of the original colonies, convened at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, this 18th day of October, 1879, knowing that the purposes for which we have assembled meet the hearty approbation of our constituents, hereby commend to the people of the United States such celebration of the centennial anniversary of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown, as shall be a fit historical significance of that event and the present greatness of the nation.

Resolved, That a committee of one from each State be nominated by the Governors thereof, of which committee Gov. Halliday shall be chairman, and the same be appointed to make proper arrangements for such celebration.

The meeting then adjourned.

To Carey's Memory.

At a meeting of the eastern bar iron manufacturers, resolutions were adopted suggesting to trade associations and industrial leagues throughout the United States the propriety of the erection in Fairmount of a monument to the memory of Henry C. Carey.

Arrival of the Wounded.

RAWLINS, 18.—The wounded of the battle of Milk Creek arrived here this afternoon with Company F of the Fifth Cavalry. Captain Payne, commanding Company D Fifth Cavalry; Lieutenant Wolf, commanding Company E Third Cavalry; Captain Lawson, commanding Company D Ninth Cavalry; the whole force being under the command of Captain Dodge. The wounded, 32 in number, were all doing well. They were met here by Colonel Summers, medical director of the Department of the Platte and Assistant Surgeon Semig, of Fort Steele, and were immediately placed on the train for transportation to Fort Steele and Fort Russell. Captain Payne remains here and is doing well. Major Thornburgh's body was brought in by this party, and was shipped to Omaha. The list of wounded is the same as heretofore published; none of the wounded, as first reported, having died. The party had stormy weather on the road; rain began falling on Fortification Creek, and continued for several days. The command was nine days on the road.

Decline in Provisions.

CHICAGO, 18.—The day ended with rather a demoralized feeling on 'Change. The usual manipulators of the markets having done a big week's work, and kept the ball rolling to and fro at a lively pace for a full week, seemed to stand aloof, the great part of the action taking breath and deliberating on the plan of action during the coming week. Prices were generally lower on every article to-day, but closed up rather firm. Wheat sold on Monday at 1.13½, and on Friday at 1.22½ for November; corn sold at 28¾ to 29; pork for January 9.22½ @ 10.30, and lard 5.85 @ 6.30 for January. Many shrewd dealers are predicting a further and heavy decline next week; but prices in the alley after change to-day were stiff, giving little indication of a break. It looks as though the only thing that could produce a decided reaction is a weak cable dispatch.

A Lively Runaway.

A runaway hay-wagon created considerable disturbance on West Madison Street this evening, running into a street car, overturning a buggy and seriously injuring its occupant, breaking a leg of one horse and killing the driver, Wm. Noll, who leaves a wife and five children in a destitute condition. The driver of the street car was so thoroughly frightened as to become threatened with heart disease.

The Georgia Outlaws.

SPARTA, Ga., 18.—Accounts of outlaws in the eastern portion of Baldwin County are greatly exaggerated. The trouble is political. The outlaws have burned gin and cotton houses and fodder stacks of Mr. Robinson for the purpose of driving him out of his house to shoot him and killed a negro man for reporting them to the grand jury. They burned the tannery and barns of Luke Robinson and whipped a colored woman and her daughter in Hancock County. The gang have taken refuge in the swamps of Oconeeagechee. The grand jury of Hancock County are now in session, and have investigated the outrage. They are determined to bring the perpetrators to justice. The people of Hancock County are indignant at the outrages, and are determined to protect white and black from further outrages and inflict summary justice on the perpetrators. Judge Potter, presiding judge, will vindicate the majesty of the law.

A Bridge Falls Through.

COLUMBUS, O., 18.—The new bridge over Big Walnut Creek, for the Sunday Creek Valley Railroad, about 10 miles from this city, fell last evening with a terrible crash, a distance of 40 feet into the water. Eight workmen were on the bridge at the time, and their escape from death is miraculous. Five of them were slightly injured. A defective trestle caused the accident.

Hayes' Meanderings.

President Hayes left by a special train at two o'clock for Delaware, Ohio, where a reception has been tendered him this evening. He will return this evening and spend the Sabbath here.

Commerce Committee in Boston

BOSTON, 18.—The committee on commerce, of the House of Representatives and Senate, for the purpose of conferring with the merchants of the principal cities with a view of advancing the business prosperity of the country, met here this morning. Owing to the absence of Representatives McLane and Townsend, the committee adjourned till Tuesday morning.

Escape of Prisoners.

Five prisoners made their escape from Middlesex County jail at East Cambridge, to-night. Two of the prisoners, Mortimer Johnson and John Buzzell, were under indictment for murder, each having killed an illegitimate child.

Indian Reunion.

WICHITA, Ks., 18.—Wild Hog, Old Crow and other Cheyenne Indian prisoners, released at Lawrence, arrived here last night. They were met by a large delegation of Cheyennes and their squaws, just up from the Agency after supplies, and great was the rejoicing among the sons and daughters of the plains after their long separation. Between thirty and forty Cheyenne and Arrapahoe boys are here enroute to the school for Indians in Pennsylvania.

Editorial Doings.

MADISON, Ind., 18.—William Howard, ex-City Treasurer, who was shot in an altercation with Major Sempson, editor of the Star, on Thursday night, died at 3 o'clock this morning. Sempson who was out on ball, was re-arrested; also John L. McFetridge, local editor of the Star, who is implicated in the affair.

Indians Driven Away.

GALVESTON, 18.—The News special from Messila, New Mexico, states that the Mescalero Apaches were forced to leave their reservation near Fort Stanton by action of the agent at that place. The Indians have expressed a wish that the soldiers might leave there so they could kill the agent.

Memphis Mortality.

MEMPHIS, 18.—The total number of new cases reported for the week, 59. White, 42; colored, 17. To date, 1,490. Total deaths from yellow fever for the week, 31; to date, 456.

Five deaths have occurred since last night. The weather is clear and cool—the thermometer at daylight fell to 52 degrees.

Albany Verdicts.

ALBANY, N. Y., 18.—A verdict for $5,000 was rendered in favor of Dr. Allport against the Inman line for injuries received on defendant's steamers.

A verdict was rendered to-day for $10,000 in favor of Nancy Campbell against Orson L. Campton in a breach of promise suit.

Indian Depredations.

EAGLE PASS, 18.—A party of Indians passed near here en route to Mexico. They killed horses and drove off a number of cattle. Indian signs are becoming numerous.

Drowned.

IRONTON, O., 18.—Samuel James and two children were drowned in the river to-day, by the sinking of a small overladen coal boat.

Dead.

AUGUSTA, Me., 18.—Hon. S. A. Corker, a prominent lawyer and former member of Congress, died to day of paralysis.

WESTERN.

Racing News.

SAN FRANCISCO, 18.—At Carson City, to-day, Theodore Winters' colt Connor, two years old, by Norfolk, carrying eight pounds over rule weight, ran a three-quarter dash in 1.15½, the fastest time by a colt of its age.
