

COLORADO STATE MILITIA ENJOINED.

Judge Seeds Forbids it to Drive
Union Miners Away From Cripple Creek District.

MOYER'S ADDRESS TO THEM.

Governor Peabody Announces That
The Troops Will Soon be Withdrawn.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Jan. 7.—Judge W. P. Seeds of the district court of Teller county, on the application of the attorneys for the Western Federation of Miners, tonight issued a temporary injunction against the state militia, the Mine-Owners' association and for Citizens' alliance, enjoining them from driving any union miners from the district. The hearing on the writ is set for Jan. 11. This is in anticipation of the program of deportation of strikers said to be contemplated by the military. The following notice was posted here today:

"Notice—To all members of the Western Federation of Miners in the Cripple Creek District: It has been decided in many courts that members of organized labor are not vagrants. Keep your union cards; refuse to be driven away from your homes. If compelled to leave by force of arms, union men are advised to resist immediately to the Cripple Creek district. The Western Federation of Miners will provide for all striking miners and their families.

"CHARLES H. MOYER,
"President.
"WILLIAM HAYWOOD,
"Secretary Western Federation of Miners."

President Charles H. Moyer and Secretary Haywood of the Western Federation of Miners today issued a statement in which they declare that the strike in the Cripple Creek district is "not broken" and that the Republican administration has spent nearly $1,000,000 of the state's funds to subvert the corporations and make good their antelocation pledges.

The statement denies that any rebellion or insurrection exists, and contends that every constitutional right of the people has been grossly violated by Gov. Peabody and his military subordinates. The result of the Peabody habeas corpus case is cited as proof that the governor "is afraid to allow the highest court in the state to determine the question as to who is guilty of lawlessness in the Cripple Creek district."

After referring to the vagrancy order issued by the military commander at Cripple Creek, the statement says: "The members of the Western Federation of Miners on a strike in the Cripple Creek district are receiving all necessary support from a fund which they have helped to create, and we challenge the right of any one to deny them that privilege."

Gov. Peabody has announced that the troops will soon be withdrawn from Cripple Creek. "I think the civil authorities will be able to cope with the situation," said the governor; "at least, I hope so. If nothing unexpected happens, all the soldiers will be ordered home from Cripple Creek on Saturday." The governor also said that the force on duty at Telluride would be reduced materially this week.

COUNCIL OF WAR.

Verdeberg Formulates Plans to Enforce Vagrancy Proclamation

Cripple Creek, Colo., Jan. 7.—Col. Verdeberg, commander of the military force in this district, held a "council of war" today with his post commanders, to which plans for the enforcement of the vagrancy proclamation were discussed. The colonel refused to discuss his plans, but it is reported that one more day will be given strikers to leave the district or obtain employment. Preparations are being made, it is said, for wholesale arrests tomorrow. Prisoners against whom no charge other than vagrancy is made will be evicted from Teller county and will not be permitted to return.

THE VAGRANCY ORDER.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 7.—Speaking of the vagrancy order issued at Cripple Creek by Col. Verdeberg, commanding the state troops in the district, Gov. Peabody said today:

"While the 'vagrancy' order in Cripple Creek is still in effect, I do not anticipate that anyone will come under its provision, for I am satisfied that most of the people in the district at the present time are law-abiding citizens. The order simply applies to agitators and disturbers. No one will be forced to work if he doesn't care to, and men can be in idleness as long as they behave themselves. They must not interfere with others who want to work."

LIVESTOCK CONVENTION.

Portland Making Every Preparation for Holding Next One.

Portland, Or., Jan. 7.—Preparations for holding the seventh annual convention of the National Livestock association, which convenes here on the 12th inst., are complete. The indications are that the attendance will be as large as any previous convention and the meeting will be of more importance than any heretofore held because of the magnitude of the subjects to be disposed of. This is borne out by the fact that representatives from several of the bureaus at Washington will be in attendance on the meeting. Probably the most important subjects to be discussed are the land question, forest reserves, packers' combination and transportation.

A number of western governors will be present, including John Sparks of Nevada, Heber M. Wells of Utah, John T. Morrison of Idaho and George Chamberlain of Oregon. Delegates have commenced to arrive and already there is discussion as to who will be the next president of the association and which city will be selected as the next place of meeting. The probabilities are that the city of Portland will be selected as the next place of meeting. The place of meeting will doubtless be a contest between Denver, Colo., and El Paso, Tex.

E. H. DRIGGS THE MONEY O. K.

Jury Finds He Accepted a Bribe
In Return For Securing a Government Contract.

THEY RECOMMENDED MERCY.

Judge Wanted to Inflict a Sentence
Without Imprisonment But Could Not.

New York, Jan. 7.—After deliberating 45 minutes today, a jury found former Congressman Edmund H. Driggs guilty of accepting money to procure a contract between a private company and the government while serving as a member of Congress. The jury recommended mercy.

In response Judge Thomas said the recommendation was entirely fitting, as Mr. Driggs had conducted himself with dignity and because he undoubtedly violated the statute unwittingly. Judge Thomas said he believed Mr. Driggs was guilty only in a technical sense.

After the jury had been discharged the court denied the motion for a new trial and reserved decision on a motion for a stay of proceedings pending an appeal. Judge Thomas told the counsel they might agree on a day for sentence. He said:

"I would like to inflict a sentence without imprisonment, but I cannot under the law. I shall make the sentence as light as I possibly can. You, Driggs, are free to come and go as you please."

Mr. Driggs admitted that he had placed $50 of the Cashier company's machines in various departments of the postoffice at Washington, and that he was paid $12,500 by the company. Mr. Driggs also admitted that he gave money to George W. Beavers, who was a superintendent in the postoffice department. He declared that at the time he gave Beavers $2,500, in 1900, it was not for services rendered, but went toward a foreign fund. At the time Driggs was a candidate for president of a borough of Brooklyn.

"While I was in Washington," Mr. Driggs testified, "Mr. Miller, a representative of the Brandt-Dent company, came to me and said that he had a business proposal to make. After we had talked over the matter I told Mr. Miller I thought the machines were a good thing, and that they should be pushed on their merits."

"I promised to take up the machine and push it. I acted merely as a citizen, and endeavored to get the machine into banks and department stores, and went as far as Denver and the Pacific coast."

All this time I was acting, not because I was a member-elect of Congress, but a good business proposition had been made to me. Finally I got an order for 250 machines which were to be placed in the postoffice."

"I was asked a member of Congress to aid me, nor did I bring the matter before any congressional committee. The machines went into the department on their merits. For my two years' work for the company I received $12,500 through Mr. Miller. This was my compensation for all the work done, and not for any special contract secured."

Mr. Driggs declared that he never paid money to any one in connection with the work for the company.

Opening of Indian Reservations.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The question of opening the Indian reservations comprising nearly 100,000,000 acres, was considered today by the house committee on Indian affairs. The Indian commissioner heard from the committee and he took the position that to throw these lands open to settlement was the proper and the only way to elevate the Indian and to settle for all time the Indian question. He said this course should be pursued with consent of the Indians, if possible, but if not, Congress should take the action necessary to insure the settlement of the lands by whites, all private claims to be guaranteed to the Indians who owned the lands.

ENGINEER IS HELD RESPONSIBLE

Conductor Nagley Says His Disobedience of Orders Caused Rock Island Wreck.

NO VERDICT BY CORONER'S JURY

Whoever Shall Be Found Legally Responsible Will Be Charged With Manslaughter.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 7.—An official investigation of the Rock Island wreck at Willard was started here this afternoon by Coroner Silverthorne of Wabunsee county. Testimony was taken which showed the eastbound freight train had orders to pass the passenger train at Willard. No inquiry as to the responsibility of the passenger crew was made on account of the inability of the engineer, Benjamin, and Conductor Nagley to be present. The engineer is suffering from nervous prostration at his home in Kansas City, and the conductor is in a hospital here.

In a few days, as soon as these witnesses can be present, the inquiry will be resumed in Maple Hill, that being in Wabunsee county, where the wreck occurred.

It is announced that whoever is responsible for the wreck will be held on a charge of manslaughter.

It was announced at the inquest today that the train dispatchers in this city learned that one train had left Maple Hill and the other had left Willard.

"Knowing that no human power could prevent a collision, they immediately ordered out the wreckers. They also notified the Maple Hill doctors to get ready for service. The doctors received this notice eight minutes before the wreck occurred, and reached the scene of the accident 30 minutes afterward."

Dr. Silverthorne, the coroner of Wabunsee county, who has the inquest in charge, is a surgeon and operates a hospital in McFarland for the Rock Island road.

Engineer Raridian, of the freight train, which collided with the passenger train, testified that Benjamin had told him immediately after the accident that he had no orders to meet the freight. Raridian also reported a conversation he had with Conductor Nagley in the hospital.

Nagley said to him: "Engineer Benjamin may as well come here and own up to the truth. It is all in the record regarding the orders caused the wreck."

Heuer of the engineer corps in charge of the river and harbor works on this coast, has notified the secretary of war that Contractor Rudolph Axman has failed to live up to his contract to dredge the channel of San Pablo bay, and has recommended that it be cancelled. Contractor Axman, who is said to have expended more than $200,000 already in machinery and labor during the last 11 months, says he will fail to comply with the exact terms of his contract was due to storms, the time required to get his plant built and the short time he could work in dumping on the shore at low tide, a miscalculation having been made in the estimate in the way of extension of time. In the meanwhile operations have been suspended on the dredger.

Whenever you read the advertisements of

BREAKFAST FOODS

announcing "Predigested" "Brain Food" "Starches turned to Grape Sugar" "Made of Entire Wheat and Barley," etc., etc., you can apply the following

...FACTS...

Seven years ago the original ready-cooked, predigested Grape-Nuts Food was discovered and placed before the people.

Its early history shows that the inventor, after recovery from a long attack of nervous prostration and a well-nigh fatal attack of appendicitis, was brought to realize the urgent necessity for a predigested cereal food that the system could absorb, and that would furnish the body with energy and also rebuild the Brain and Nerve Centres.

That was the PROBLEM

With years of training at his back perhaps no man was better equipped to solve that problem.

He knew that weak intestinal digestion meant, either leave off eating any starchy foods, Potatoes, Wheat, Oats, Bread, Cakes and Puddings, or suffer distress and disease.

He knew that some starchy food is necessary to supply energy. He also knew that delicate particles of Phosphate of Potash assimilate with Albumen in the food and go to build the gray matter in the Brain and Nerve Centres, so, the experiments began and extended over a period of about 2 years resulting in the now world famous food Grape-Nuts.

Special parts of the Wheat and Barley are selected and so treated by moisture, heat and time as to change the starch into sugar which can be seen exuding from every granule of Grape-Nuts.

This form of predigested starch (now sugar) is quickly taken up by the blood and deposited in the muscles and tissues, stored and ready for use when energy is demanded.

Then the little particles (microscopic) of Phosphate of Potash are there as well, and with the Albumen of food, surely, steadily and perfectly do their work in re-building and making new the worn down Brain and Nerve Centres.

That is the reason why people who know these facts and have proven them, use Grape-Nuts.

Truly "There's a Reason." Persons who have been built back to strong, sturdy men and women by adopting scientifically made food, particularly when delicious to the taste, are not quick to forget it.

A great original success is always a bid for imitators, but Grape-Nuts was so hard to copy that for the first five years, but feeble attempts were made by anyone to imitate either the food or the announcements of its merit.

However about 2 years ago a tremendous rush was made to get into the ready-cooked food business.

It was like a stampede to the gold diggings.

Several hundred factories were built and the hopes of the stockholders ran high.

Had these money-seeking followers gone through the days, weeks and years of hard experience, in sickness, investigation, study and experiment that fitted the old originator to bring forth from his food laboratory a genuine article, intended for a purpose, and so skillfully and scientifically blended and made that it would—

Do what it was intended to do!!

Or were they forced from lack of early training, to "grind up something" and "advertise! that will make it go?"

The first year of the life of these imitators they did not assume that their foods were "predigested" or were "brain" foods, but when for some unexplained reason the demand did not come up to expectation, they concluded perhaps it might be because they were not advertised as "predigested brain foods."

So, without any change in the articles, and with most amazing effrontery, the makers of some have now suddenly begun to talk "Brain Food," "Predigested," etc., etc., copying the announcements of Grape-Nuts that the public have been familiar with for seven years past.

When you read our words and phrases, "Predigested," "Made from entire Wheat and Barley," "A Food for Brain and Nerve Centres," etc., etc., fitted to some breakfast food, you may know these claims have been cribbed from the original, and are pretences.

A genuine originator must have as his actuating motive, honesty of purpose. Imitators have but one object, MONEY, and that to be gained from the thought and work of others.

There is but one and only one genuine predigested Brain Food and that it
