Considering Plans, but Matter Still Undecided - Return of David Eccles.

peath of Mrs. Sarah E. Anderson, 1Wm, Sharp and Mrs. Lewis - Demented Man Makes Trouble.

Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Sarah E. Anderson died at the family residence No. 354, 23rd street, at 1:15 p. m., of a complication of afflictions. Her death ciphered, came as a very severe shock to her family and many friends. For the past three weeks she had been confined to her bed in a very weak condition, but her family and friends had always hoped for her recovery. Mrs. Anderson was born at Kaysville.

derson January 30, 1888. she leaves two sons, Lee and Dewey, and three daughters, Mrs. Alta Costello, Maude and Florence, and a brother, Charles A. Nelson, and sister, Mrs. H. L Griffin, to survive her. In 1897 she was elected as a member of State Legislature ,and was one of the most highly respected ladies of Og-

The time of funeral has not yet been decided upon, one of her daughters, Mrs. Costello, being in California at the time of her mother's death, and has not yet arrived.

ANENT LOGAN SUGAR FACTORY.

David Eccles arrived home Saturday from the east, where he has been during the past two weeks on business. During his absence he purchased four ew street cars for the Ogden Rapid Transit Co., after the same style as the new cars now in use, but they will not arrive for several months, the fac-tories being over crowded with orders. Mr. Eccles also visited several factories which manufacture sugar factory ma chinery, and obtained their prices on machinery for the proposed factory at Logan, Utah, but no contracts were let, the plans for the factory not having been completed, and the proposition not eing fully decided upon, but if everything goes through all right, and the committee in charge report favorably the factory will be built, ready for operating next fall.

morning at an early hour, a gloom fell upon our community, occasioned by the death of Sister Lavina Richardson Hansen, wife of Bishop Isaac Hansen. She was physically strong and in the very bloom of life, being but 37 years of age when she succumbed, after an illness of one week. Every attention was paid her, but from presentiments she had had, it appeared life's mission was closed. She had been married aineteen years, and leaves a family of s children, 6 sons and 2 daughters, and a husband to revere her memory.
