Gen'l Tht. and Pass'gr Agt., Chiengo, Ill. CATARR-IS IT CURABLE?

THOSE who have suffered from the various and complicated forms of disease assumed by Catarrh, and have tried many physicians and remedies without relief or cure, await the answer to this question with considerable anxiety. And well they may; for no disease that can be mentioned is so naiversally prevalent and so destructive to health as Catarra. Bronchitis, Authma, Coughs, and serious and frequently fatal affections of the lungs follow, in many instances, a case of simple but neglected Catarra. Other sympathetic affections such as dealness, impaired eyesight, and loss of sense of amell, may be referred to as minor but nevertheless serious results of neglected Catarra, bad enough in themselves, but as nothing compared with the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs likely to follow. IT CAN BE GURED.

I can be cured. There is no doubt about it. The immediate relief afforded by Sanyond's Radical Cure pon Catarann is but a slight evidence of what may follow a persistent use of this remedy. The hard, incrested matter that has lodged in the nasal passages is removed with a few applications, the ulceration and inflammation subdued and healed; the entire membranous linings of the head are cleaned and purified. Constitutionally its action is that of a powerful purifying agent, destroy.

A COMPLICATED CASE.

head. My head was at times so full of catarrhal matter as to injure my sense of hearing and compelme to get up several times in the night to clear it and my throat before I could sleep. Every one of these distressing symptoms has disappeared under the use of not quite three bottles of Sanfoille's Radioal Cruss. My heaving is fully restored. I have no asthmatic symptoms, no cough, no droppings in the throat, no headache, and in every way better than I have been for years. I could feel the effects of the Curs on my appetus, on my kidneys, and, in fact, every part of my stam. What has been done in my ease is weelf; the sloct of the Radioal Curs. Very respecting. Indorsed by a Prominent Druggist.

I hereby certify that Mr. Lawrence purchased the Radical Curs of me, and from time to time made me familiar with his case. I believe his statement to be true in every particular.

On the 11th of May, a great battle took place at a point between Thringport and Sauhawalla. A powerful Zulu chief named Matcons, with all his people, numbering some thousands, had resolved to surrender to the British. He was surrender to the British. He was joined by Dabalmar zi, Cetywayo's brother, who commanded the Zulus at Giogiholovo, and a remnant of that army, its chief having kept away from Cetywayo since their their defeat through fear. When nearing Thringpest, they were unexpectedly attacked by a powerful force, supposed to be commanded by Cetawayo, couling from the northward. A fearful conflict ensued, resulting in a great slaughter of Zulus, who wished to surrender, and they were dispersed and driven back. Matcona escaped.
