

FORMAL CHARGE AGAINST MALONE

Assault With Intent to Commit Murder is Alleged Against Him.

TO BE IN COURT TOMORROW.

When Told He Was to Plead in Court,
Prisoner Assumes More Cheerful Attitude.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock J. A. Malone, who on the evening of April 8 shot down Neils Paulson, will be arraigned before Judge J. M. Bowman on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

The complaint against Malone on this charge was sworn to by Detective J. W. Hurt this morning, and at the same time the arrangements were completed by the county attorney's office for arraignment tomorrow morning. Malone, himself, did not know of the filing of the complaint or the setting of his arraignment until the word was sent into him by a "News" reporter shortly after the noon hour. Owing to the familiarity of the city jail, following the outbreak of amnesia which necessitated the removal of William McDermott, a prisoner, to the isolation hospital, the jail has been closed to all visitors, including even attorneys for prisoners held there awaiting hearing.

When told Malone said: "I'm glad of it. When they file a complaint against me and I am given a chance to answer, then I will be able to get bonds and my freedom until the trial."

The incident which caused the near-drowning of Neils Paulson and the incarceration of Malone followed an altercation engaged in at the store of the J. P. Paulson Co. on the early evening of April 8. While leaving the store Malone drew a revolver and fired a bullet into Mr. Paulson. The latter was at first thought to be mortally wounded, was removed to the Groves L. D. S. hospital, where he has since steadily improved and is now considered out of danger from the effect of the wound.

Immediately after the shooting Malone was taken into custody and has since been confined in the city jail. Since that time the condition of Paulson has been his constant thought, and with the increasing chances of improvement of Paulson's condition, Malone's spirits have risen correspondingly. Several attempts have been made to secure his release under bonds but they have failed because of the fact that no complaint had been tested against him and that he was being held pending the determination of the condition of Paulson.

FOUR YEARS FOR DAVIS.

Joseph Davis, a professional shop-lifter, was sentenced yesterday to serve four years in the state prison by Judge T. D. Lewis. He was convicted of stealing five shirts, waist and four silk shirts valued at $100, from Cohn Dry Goods' store. The goods were stolen on Nov. 7, 1908. Oia Hayden accompanied Davis at the time the things were stolen from Cohn Dry Goods' store. She was implicated in the theft. She was discharged and the complaint dismissed on account of lack of evidence.

SUES ON NOTE.

C. L. Olson has brought suit against William B. Andrew in the third district court to recover $500 on a promissory note. It was executed on Feb. 4, 1906, and became due one year from date.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.

George Axelrad sued his brother, D. A. Axelrad, yesterday in the third district court to recover $87.38 on promissory notes. He also asks for interest from April 1, 1908, when the notes were executed.

Henry K. Higson brought suit Monday against Mary Jane Gleason and Elijah M. Gleason for $150 and for commission notes. He also asks for interest from April 1, 1908, when the notes were executed.

One P. Mullinger, a barber, was made the defendant in a suit for divorce yesterday by his wife, Mrs. Alice P. Mullinger, on the charge of non-support. They were married at Provo March 6, 1900. They have a child which was legally adopted in August, 1904, and she asks for alimony for the support of herself and child.

James Arbuckle and Arthur Hutchinson, charged with contributing to the delinquency of four orphans at the St. Anna's orphanage by buying meat from them which they took from the institution, were arraigned yesterday in Judge Stanley A. Hays' court. They were discharged by the court because there was some doubt as to the intent of the defendants.

Edward Simpson's suit against Salt Lake City was called for trial and Judge Ritchie's court this morning. He asks for $535 for personal injuries sustained by his wife, son, daughters-in-law, two minor children and himself when they were clung into the Jordan river off of the Ninth North street bridge. The bridge was full of holes and the horses that they were driving shied and pitched them into the river.

COMRADES SEARCH FOR SOLDIER ON DEBAUCH

Are Trying to Save Private Ray Mc-Bride from Disgrace in The Army.

Unless Ray McBride, a private of Company F, Fifteenth infantry, appears at Fort Douglas at the reveille call tomorrow morning he will be mustered as a deserter, and today his comrades and friends in the company have been scouring the city in the endeavor to find him and save him from the fate that means disgrace and a long term in the military prison.

A soldier may be absent from his regiment without leave 10 days before he is declared a deserter. McBride's 10 days will be up tomorrow morning, and if he has not been seen by the company at that time, he will be mustered as a deserter. He has been seen from time to time, and although urged by his friends in the company and have him returned to the post before he becomes a deserter.

As this is his last day of grace to escape the charge of desertion from the army, his friends this morning began a search of the haunts which he has been known to frequent, and asked the assistance of the police to locate him. His description has been given the patrolmen and all will be on the lookout for him this afternoon and night and an effort made to locate him and have him returned to the post before he becomes a deserter.

TREASURER'S APPOINTMENTS.

John A. Groesbeck, county treasurer, made the following appointments yesterday to assist in preparing tax valuation notices, which were confirmed by the county commissioners:

TO TRY LUCAS FRIDAY.

Jilted Soldier Who Fired at Sweetheart Pleads Not Guilty.

W. E. Lucas, the jilted soldier who vented his jealous rage in firing two shots at his former sweetheart, Miss Caroline Hassard, last Sunday, was arraigned before Judge Bowman this morning on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. After entering a plea of not guilty, the hearing of his case was set for Friday, April 30, and in default of $1,000 bail he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Lucas, in spite of the objection on the part of the young woman, forced his attentions upon Miss Hassard and Sunday afternoon called at her home, 718 Olive street. Although he was denied admission to the house he sprang into the hallway and in a sudden outburst drew a revolver and fired two shots at the woman who had scorned him. She could fire the third, Miss Hassard, with unusual pluck and nerve.

RESHIPING WOOL CLIPS.

Sanpete Man Says He Saves Money
With Dangler Route.

"It is cheaper to ship wool to Los Angeles and then reship it to Boston, than it is to ship direct to Boston from Man-til," said a well known resident and wool grower of the Sanpete town this morning. "This is rather a remarkable statement, but it is fact." And the sheepman from Central Utah got out his pencil and paper to demonstrate his statement.

It ever there was a case of discrimination against a local industry, this is one," he continued. "Now the rate from Man-til to Los Angeles over the Salt Lake Route on wool is 50 cents per 100 pounds, the rate from Los Angeles to Boston, by way of Salt Lake is $1.10. The rate from Utah common points to Boston is $1.10, so by shipping his wool to Los Angeles, and then reshipping it to Boston, back over the same rails which it traversed to reach the Southern California city, the Man-til wool grower gets a benefit of 25 cents on every hundred pounds.

"One wool company in my home has purchased about one-fourth of the wool clip of Utah sheep, amounting to 4,000 bales, and loading up in cash about $700,000. This company has shipped all its wool to California and then back to Boston, saving the difference of 25 cents. The B. H. Harris company has shipped its wool the same way, as have other shippers. The saving varies a little, depending upon the local rates from the point at which shipment is made to Los Angeles, but in our part of the country, the amount saved by using the route indicated is from 8 to 25 cents.

BUSINESS AND REALTY.

The Mission theater is the name of a new playhouse to be built for the Advance Amusement company, which now operates the Lyric theater, on the property immediately east of the Colonial theater. According to plans which have been prepared the Mission will seat nearly 1,000 persons and will be among the best of its kind. A large stage, asbestos curtain, plenty of exits, seats upholstered in leather, an orchestra of 10 pieces, a modern system of ventilation and a fine entrance are among the things promised to its patrons. Something of special interest to mothers in this connection is the special check room for go-carts. Manager John A. Clark of the Lyric will operate the new theater, which will be opened, it is said, early in the summer.

The contract for the structural steel for the new Keating building on Main street, between First and Second South streets has been let to the Modern Steel Construction company of Waukegan, Wisconsin. It calls for the delivery of about 200 tons of steel. Work on the new building will start early in the fall.

The Independent Electric company, which has filed its articles of incorporation today, has among its stockholders some of the solid business men of the city. The officers are: Nephil L. Morris, president; Heber C. Iverson, vice president; Eugene Chandler, treasurer; Leon J. Haddock, secretary; and manager, Oscar G. Hemmenway and George C. Smith, directors. The company will be located at 11 east Third South street, where it will have a wholesale and retail business in electrical fittings, and also take orders for construction work, on and after May 1.

The board of education secured a permit today from the building inspector for the erection of a brick addition to the Washatch schoolhouse which will cost $34,000. There are nine other permits issued which bring the total up to $76,400 for the 27 days in April and this is an increase of $13,000 over the entire month of April for last year.

Architect J. A. Headlund has completed plans for two apartment houses, for Hol Nelson, one two stories and one three stories, containing four and six apartments respectively, to be erected on Third East street, between Third and Fourth South, at a cost of $35,000.

BLAZE IN TEA STORE.

Early Morning Fire Blazes Damage
To Extent of $2,000.

Fire in the basement of the premises occupied by the Great American Importing Tea company, No. 40 south Main street, this morning caused a loss that will approximate close to $2,000, and for a time threatened the destruction of the Constitution block.

Through the valiant and energetic efforts of the fire department, under the direction of Chief W. E. Glor, the blaze was confined to the basement of the store, where the fire originated. The fire was first discovered by the janitor for the office of the Central Coal & Coke company, adjoining the tea store, about 5 o'clock this morning, and his alarm had hardly been sent in when Night Watchman Bob Nelson turned in another. When the fire department arrived at the scene the basement was a blaze of flame and filled with suffocating smoke.

By strenuous work on the part of the fire fighters, the flames, although beginning to eat their way up through the flooring, were brought under control, and the fire confined within the one basement until it was extinguished.

The origin of the fire is being traced to the fact that the tea store had been used for the purpose of cooking meals. This stove was used last night, and the suspicion is that possibly a lighted match had been thrown aside, and into a pile of rubbish, where it caused a blaze which smoldered until the outbreak of the flames this morning.

The loss, as reported to Chief Glor by the building, $150; on the stock of tea, coffee and broken glassware, $1,500; on stock of Salt Lake, a jeweler owned, a portion of the tea store floor space, $100.

DEATH OF AMANDA RAMSEY.

Mother of Well Known and Accomplished Family is Summoned.

Mrs. Amanda J. Ross Ramsey died this morning at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Emma Ramsey Morris, 127 south Second West street. Mrs. Ramsey was born in Rochester, Ind. Sept. 2, 1840. She was married Jan. 12, 1862, to George W. Ramsey. Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey lived in Lawrenceville, Ill., until 1883, at which time, having united with the Church, they came to Utah, going to Payson to live. For several years they lived in Provo, where their children might have the advantage of attending the Brigham Young university. For some time Mrs. Ramsey has made her home with her daughter in this city. Mr. Ramsey died Feb. 2, 1903.

Mrs. Ramsey is survived by the following children: George J. and L. A. Ramsey of this city; Mrs. R. E. Ramsey of Provo; Mrs. Mattie B. Stark of Los Angeles; Mrs. Rhoda R. Carroll of Grass Valley, California; Mrs. Emma Ramsey of Salt Lake City.

WEATHER REPORT.

The meteorological weather of the traditional April day is obtaining today, with light occasional showers and a moderately high temperature, with predictions of rain tonight and tomorrow. However, a high area, approaching from the east, which is likely to result in clear skies on Thursday.

Clouds and unsettled weather is general over the states east of the Mississippi river, and west of the Rocky mountains. The principal storm is centered over the lake region, and has caused light precipitation over that section. A low pressure area is moving from Washington, Montana, Idaho and portions of the Mississippi valley and of the Pacific coast. Moderate temperatures are general in nearly all districts.

A Salt Lake City Case

Many More Like it in Salt Lake City.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Salt Lake City. It is an essay matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such conclusive evidence.

Mrs. C. M. Dale, living at 455 west Eighth South street, Salt Lake City, Utah, says: "For a year or more I was entirely free from kidney complaint until I began suffering from pains in the small of my back through my joints. When I caught cold or over-exerted myself I became very much worse, and was often laid up for three days to a week at a time. My kidneys were also very irregular and gave me much distress and annoyance. I heard so many people praising Doan's Kidney Pills, that I decided to give them a trial, and procured a box at the F. J. Hill's drug store. They helped me from the first, so I continued taking them until I was cured. I am glad to recommend the remedy that cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Ramsey Morris of this city and Mrs. Julia R. Brown of Provo, Isaac J. Ross of Payson and Mrs. Emily Messick of Noblesville, Indiana, are surviving brother and sister of the deceased.

The funeral will be held in the Fourteenth ward chapel at a time to be announced later.
