ED'S ENTREATIES WON HER

Forced to Leave the Jall Before Arrangements Were Completed-Flight Very Exciting.

Butler, Pa., Feb. 3.-The only matter now of anything like absorbing interest in connection with the Biddles is the fate of Mrs. Soffel and anything she may say concerning the escape and subsequent capture of the trio. Mrs. Soffel is lying in the Butler hospital and will recover. She made a statement tonight to some newspaper men in the presence of Dr. Bricker, in which she said:

"I had not intended going with the Biddle boys on the night of their es-mpe, but Ed's entreaties won me over," sade boys of the interaction work in ever." She told of how she remained in the library on Thursday awaiting the sig-nal for the outbreak. It was her in-tention to let the boys go, and she would meet them later. While sitting in the library, she said, she was almost paralyzed when the two brothers came crashing through the door. In their ex-citement they had lost the key to this door and had to break it down. "Ed asked me to come with them. 'Come with us,' he said to me. I re-stated, and told them to go, They told us they had not an instant to lose, and if the officers were to get away I would he dincovered. I tried to persuade them to go, then I felt myself giving way to Ed's persuasions and yielded. We to Ed's persuasions and yielded. all dashed out on Ross street. W all dashed out on Ross street. We then passed along the court alley. Ed and Jack went along Grant street, and, crossing the river, we met in Alle-gheny at their friend's house. Well, we could not remain there, and we were soon out on the road again. We sesoon out on the road again. We have cured a sleigh and drove through the country all night. The night was bit-ter cold. There was no robe in the sleigh and I suffered terribly. When sleign and I suffered terribly, when daylight came I was nearly perished by the cold. The next day brought us to the terrible scene. We drove through Butler, and knew that we had

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM :- I suppose some of my friends would call it immodest in me to acknowledge to you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me, but I feel that seven bottles which I took last fall and winter made a complete change in my life, and brought new hopes and aspirations to me which I had not dared think of when I was sick.

"For three years I suffered silently every month; I dreaded the time, and while not sick in bed, I felt sick enough to stay there. Cramps and bearing-down pains and wretched headaches were of frequent, often daily occurrence, but your Compound quickly changed all that. I am now in splendid health; I have no pains, and am so grateful to you that I feel I want to express myself, hoping it may help some suffering one to health.
