However, the general fruit prospects have not been impaired and the outlook is favorable for large crops of apples and prunes. Farm work progressed, grass made good growth and seeding was completed in many districts.

Central Sections: Cold and unseasonable weather has prevailed, consequent.

able weather has prevailed, consequent. ly grass on the range grows slowly and very little plowing has been done. Stock is in good condition and sheep shearing has begun. Eastern Sections: Owing to the latter part of the week having become warm, snow disappeared rapidly and agricul-tural lands dried sufficiently to enable plowing and seeding to make good progress. Grass and lucern made good months ago, and never recovered from the illness that followed. She was born at Kaysville, about 29 years ago, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. King. H. H.
