Cheerful Women.

In marrying, men should seek happy women. They make a terrible mistake when they marry for beauty or for talent, or for style; the sweetest wives are those who possess the magic secret of being happy under any and every circumstance. Rich or poor, high or low, it makes no difference, the bright little fountain bubbles up just as musically in our hearts. Nothing ever goes wrong with them—no trouble is too serious for them—to make the best of it. Was ever the stream of calamity so dark and deep, that the sunlight of a happy face falling across its turbid tide would not wake an answering gleam? Why, then, joyous tempered people don't know half the good they do. No matter how cross and crabbed they feel, no matter if your brain is full of meditation on "afflicting dispensations," and your stomach with medicines, pills, and tonics; just one of those cheery little women talking to you, and we are not afraid to wager anything she can cure you. The longer drawn lines about the mouth will relax—the cloud of settled gloom will vanish, nobody knows where, and the first thing you know you will be laughing. Oh, what blessings are those happy women! How often their little hands guide the ponderous machine of life, with an almost invisible touch! How we look forward through the weary day to their fireside smiles! No one knows, no one will ever know until the day of judgment reveals, how much we owe to those helpful, hopeful, uncomplaining happy women.

DIPHTHERIA.

MARSHALL'S HUMBUG OIL, when used internally and externally, will positively cure Diphtheria, even in its worst form thousands can vouch for the truth of his assertion. The raw Oil may be used freely on the tenderest infant, leaving no parts exposed to the air to dry and scab. For internal use, the Oil must be diluted with water. Four table-spoonfuls of water to one teaspoonful of the Oil—taste to taste; bathing the throat with it frequently and often. Dose, one teaspoonful, repeating frequently. The Humbug may be found prepared for internal use under the name of Marshall's Canker Cure.

Dr. D. D. Wright, of Cincinnati, sends us the subjoined professional indorsement: "I have prescribed Hall's Balsam in a large number of cases and always with success." He adds that "in one case a patient with every appearance of confirmed consumption was restored to his usual health soon after commencing to take the Balsam."

John Kuhn, of Lafayette, Ind., writes: "One year ago I was to all appearance in the last stages of consumption and got so low our doctor said I could not live twenty-four hours." Mr. Kuhn further states that "after taking nine bottles of HALL'S BALSAM he is now in perfect health, having used no other medicine."
