THEATRICAL.—The performance on Saturday night gave much satisfaction, the comedy, thrilling drama and fun-making farce yielding gratification to all. Miss Rice made a most convincing Medea, in the drama of that title, and was well supported.

It will be seen by reference to the advertisement, that a fine entertainment is provided for tomorrow night, on the occasion of Mr. Lyne's benefit. The well-known play of "Pizarro" opens the performance with Mr. Lyne as Roderigo, and Miss Rice as Isabella. The high priest, Mr. Evans, the old blind man, and Miss Delle, the boy. This with the other characters well distributed makes a very strong cast. Miss Rice dances a sailor's hornpipe, in the character of an American tar, after the play; and the roaring farce of Mr. and Mrs. Peter White closes the entertainment.

HISTORICAL.—Hon. George A. Smith related to us today the following interesting little bit of history connected with Mr. Lyne and the performance of "Pizarro," which proves him a veteran actor among our people. About twenty years ago, before the Masonic Hall was finished in Nauvoo, the lowest of the three stories of which it consisted was turned into a theatre, the second forming a gallery, the third stage being finished. Here the play of "Pizarro" was produced, Mr. Lyne appearing as Roderigo, George A. Smith as Almagro, Erastus Snow as Pizarro, Wm. H. Folsom as Almagro, and Miss Delle as Isabella. As Davilla, Amasa M. Lyman as Las Casas, George A. Smith as the blind man, Frank Woolley as the boy, Mrs. G. A. Adams as Isabella, and Miss Margaret Adams as Cora, under the assumed name of Mrs. Town. This was the first play ever performed on the Latter-day Saints, and the brethren named, with others, sustained their parts at the request of the Prophet Joseph Smith, who attended every night the piece was performed. This historical reminiscence throws an amount of interest around Mr. Lyne and the part of Roderigo, that would help to crowd the house to-morrow evening on the occasion of his last appearance here in that role.

THE IMMIGRATION.—We have been favored with the copy of a telegram to President Young, from Captain Mumford and Captain Holman, dated South Pass City, Utah, which states that their trains passed that point, in good order, on the day when the dispatch was sent.

DEATH.—On Saturday morning, Ralph, son of W. and Annie Godbe, died, aged 17 months. The funeral services were conducted yesterday morning at 11 o'clock.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, Warren, son of John H. and Ellen Layton, died, aged 17 months. There was something remarkable in the life-connection between the two departed little ones. They were cousins, Mrs. Godbe and Mrs. Layton being sisters; there was about thirty hours between the time of their birth, and the same between the period of their death. First, Godbe's child, the older born, being the first born child.

DEATH.—In Bethel, Maine, on the 27th of Aug., Mrs. Anne Bartlett, mother of Mrs. Patty Parsons, of this city, aged 109 years and four months.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Of THOMAS OAKLEY, who emigrated from Frogmarsh Branch, Cheltenham Conference, England, to this Territory, about 12 years since. Address: ESTHER CULL, 25 Suffolk Street, Gloucester, England. Also of THOMAS DYCHE, who sailed on the S. J. Rogers, in 1853. Address: Mrs. MARIA BRYCE, 61, Great Freeman Street, Nottingham, England.

"SALT LAKE LUXURIES."—Under this heading the Montana Post of the 7th says: "We refer to apples. A wagon load arrived yesterday. Two thousand pounds were deposited at S. D. Holman's stage office, and will be disposed of to the traveling and resident public at reasonable prices."

DISTRICT COURT.—The District Court for the 1st Judicial District, is in session to-day; his Honor, Chief Justice Wilson presiding.

MISSIONARIES RETURNED.—We had a call today from Elders Joseph S. Horne and John Hoggan, who arrived this morning, having traveled from Benton with Captain Gillespie's train, which they left at Coalville yesterday morning. They started from this city in May of 1895, for Europe. They were appointed to labor in the same mission, over which Elder Horne presided for a portion of the time. They left England on their return on the 24th of June, crossing the Atlantic in the Constitution. Both are enjoying good health and spirits. They informed us that Capt. Gillespie's train will be in to-morrow.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—Through the kindness of President Young we have received the following telegram received by him, per Deseret Telegraph Line:

St. George, 12th. We have had a grand agricultural fair here today. There was the finest display of fruit ever seen in our "Bixie."

Operator.

SOUTH COTTONWOOD.—Elders E. Stevenson and A. M. Cannon visited South Cottonwood yesterday, and report having had an excellent time at meeting. They speak in high terms of the singing, and say the choir under the direction of Brother Gilbert is a very efficient one. While the people there suffered very much from the grasshoppers, those who took the advice given in the News early in the season, and planted peas, have realized the benefit of so doing. Peas have flourished and have been comparatively uninjured, when almost everything else that was planted early has been destroyed. One man raised over 400 bushels, and feels satisfied he has done a wise thing. The heavy hail-storm, reported some days ago as having passed over Salt Creek, would have done a great amount of damage, for trees were stripped of their foliage, and various kinds of tender vines were almost destroyed. Those who had faith to plant corn late, have prospects of reaping a good crop, if the frosts do not come early to seriously injure it. Some slight damage has been done already by the frost.

"DIXIE ITEMS."—The Rio Virgin Time of the 2d is to hand, with quite an improvement in its appearance. From it we glean the following items:

A Fruit Grower's Convention was held in St. George on the 29th ult., which was attended by delegates from various towns and settlements in Southern Utah. The specimens of fruit on exhibition were very fine. We must defer publishing the minutes of proceedings until to-morrow, in consequence of the large quantity of telegraphic dispatches to-day. There were over thirty varieties of grapes on exhibition. The grasshoppers had stopped four or five days eating lucerne, carrot tops, leaves from the apple and other trees, and then, with a few exceptions, had mounted in mid-air and sped away. Some corn and cotton crops were injured along the Clara.

President Snow had gone on a trip to the western settlements.

The editor says: "We picked a 'Ward's' tree peach the other day that measured eleven inches in circumference, and weighed three quarters of a pound. We should like to hear from any one in the Territory (or out) that can beat it." Will somebody respond?

He says again: "We have a patch of rice now ripening, that is seeded heavy, and looks fine." That is interesting. The grape crop was ripening at date, and was expected to be double that of last year. A complete wine mill of large capacity was en route for St. George, and was expected to arrive when it will find employment.
