LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

First Company.—The first company of emigrants from Europe, left Omaha, westward bound, last evening.

Appointments.—J. J. Jensen has been appointed postmaster at Elmore, Beaver County, Idaho. A. F. Barron, of Washington, Washington County.

A Rough Customer.—On Saturday evening a party giving the name of John Crutcher obtained a meal at the restaurant of Mr. Morris, Commercial Street. Instead of paying for what he got he made a terrible row in the place, cursing and swearing, smashing dishes and wounding up by drawing a pistol upon the proprietor.

He was arrested and, this morning, for his proceedings in the restaurant, fined $20, and an additional $10 for using profane and abusive language.

The Old Folks Excursion.—We sincerely hope that no person over 70 years of age, who is able and anxious to join in the above excursion will be left behind.

Some assistance will doubtless be needed in the way of picnic, by the kind assistance of the Bishops or Relief Societies. And as many may be unable to get accommodations by the street car, will the Bishops be kind enough to see that stoves are provided, rather than they should be left behind?

BE. E. HUNTER,

In behalf of the Committee.

Theatre.—The Denman Thompson Company played "Joshua Whitcomb" on Saturday to a large and appreciative audience for the last time in this city. The play was increasingly interesting at each performance and the excellence of the acting was better perceived. Mr. Thompson and his company deserve all the success they have received from the press.

The next attraction is a troupe presenting opera, comedy and drama combined, and they are known in Australia as the Halsey Troubadours.

An Old Citizen Departed.—At six o'clock yesterday evening O. P. Rockwell, a pioneer citizen of this Territory, departed this life, at the office of the Colorado State, which he had been using for some time past, while selling stock. He was at the Theatre on Saturday night and went to the office above mentioned about midnight. Yesterday morning he vomited a large quantity of offensive matter. A few moments before his death he vomited again, was seized with a species of convulsive chill and suddenly expired.

We understand that his family, who reside on the Rockwell ranch, in Rush Valley, were at once sent for. The remains were taken charge of by the city sexton.

We are informed that deceased was about 70 years of age, and from the hardships through which he passed in his eventful life, must have had a very powerful constitution.

From Mantle.—This morning we had the pleasure of meeting with our friend, Elder W. H. Folger, who came up from Mantle on Saturday evening.

Regarding the progress of the Temple we learn from him that the hands were somewhat reduced in number on account of the men having to leave to water their crops. They are now beginning to return again, and when he left seven men and several teams at work.

The third terrace wall is nearly completed and the fourth is about half done. It is expected that the ground will be all prepared for the laying of the corner stones and for proceeding with the construction of the foundation by the time of holding the next stake conference, about the middle of August.

A good feeling prevails among the people, a strong disposition being manifested by them to push the work on the temple to the extent of their ability.

The Children.—Yesterday morning, by invitation of Superintendent James Dwyer, the Sabbath school of the 15th Ward had a joint session with that of the 17th Ward, in the handsome hall of the latter.

The room was filled with a large and fine looking assemblage, the constancy of these composing it testifying with intelligence, beauty and happiness. A number of exercises were gone through by both schools, separately and jointly, showing a great degree of proficiency. Brother Dwyer exhibited the picture recently painted by Mr. Ottinger, illustrating the receiving of the plates of the Book of Mormon at the hands of the Angel, Moroni. Several of the brethren present delivered short addresses, and a very good spirit prevailed during the whole proceedings.

The 17th Ward school is in splendid working order, great interest being taken in the welfare by Bro. Dwyer and his assistants, and the same can be said of that of the 15th Ward, under the superintendency of Brother Horace G. Whitney, ably assisted by others.

Last evening the usual preaching service was dispensed with, and instead there was a jubilee of the Sunday school, the hall being crowded on the occasion by the children and their parents, and others. The time was both pleasantly and profitably spent.

Returned.—Elder Christopher Merkle was called to go on a mission to Canada, and left for that point on the 1st of last November. He reached the city, having returned, on Saturday evening. He visited a gentleman in Kingston, who had been formerly in the church and who gathered a number of friends together to whom Elder Merkle preached the gospel. The gentleman referred to, James Scott by name, a builder, concluded to wind up his business and start for Utah as early as practicable.

Elder Merkle next visited Morrisburg, where he spent some time calling upon and conversing with his relatives, by whom he was received with marked kindness, but they did not seem to take much interest in the gospel. He preached occasionally in public but more in private. The school and meeting houses are closed against the Elders. The congregations refuse to converse with them on religious topics. A sister of Brother Merkle, desired baptism, at his hands, but was prevented by the determined opposition of her family.

On enquiry as to the reason of the objection of the clergymen to converse with the Elders, Elder Merkle was informed that it was because they had been so frequently and signally defeated on previous occasions, on biblical grounds, by "Mormon" missionaries, rendering them very cautious.

Elder Merkle returns greatly improved in health.

A Surprise Party.—It was a surprise party of the right kind, Mother Eunice Neelen, wife of father Samuel Neelen, of the 18th Ward, reached the 70th anniversary of her natal day on Saturday. In the evening she was called upon by her two sons, six daughters, some of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. The visitors presented the aged lady, who is still hale, hearty and active, with a number of handsome presents, accompanying the gifts with best wishes for continued life and plenty of happiness. The merry party spent a most agreeable time together till eleven o'clock, when the company separated. We join our congratulations with those of the relatives of the venerable lady.

The Excursion.—It should be remembered by all those who purpose participating in the excursion of the "old folks" to-morrow, to Ogden, that the train will leave the depot at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody intending to go should be promptly at the depot on time.

We sincerely hope that the company will have a time of enjoyment, an agreeable day, worthy of being long and pleasantly remembered. Every preparation for the comfort and convenience of the excursionists, devolving upon the committee, has, we understand, been arranged. The citizens of Ogden have prepared to give the veterans a cordial reception on their arrival in that city.

A Murderous Attack.—On Saturday evening a man named Augustus A. Fisher was attacked by another person, who struck him upon the lower part of the face with a large boulder.

We Ain't That Sort.

While General Thomas was inspecting the fortifications of Chattanooga with General Grant, they heard some one shout:
"Hollo mister! You! I want to speak to you!"
General Thomas, turning, found he was the "mister" so politely hailed by an East Tennessee soldier.
"Well, my man," said he, "what do you want with me?"
"I want to get a furlough, mister, what's that?" was the reply.
"Why do you want a furlough, my man?" inquired the General.
"Well, I want to go home and see my wife."
"How long is it since you saw her?"
"Ever since I enlisted; nigh on to three months."

"That's mighty!" exclaimed the commander. "Why, my good fellow, I have not seen my wife for three years!"
"The Tennessee looked incredulous, and drawled out: "Well, you see, me and my wife ain't that sort."

DIED.

In the first Ward, June 19th, of intermittent fever, MELBA JANE, daughter of Mary and Neil Bell, aged 5 years, 5 months and 21 days.

In the 18th Ward of this city, June 18th, 1877, in her 34th year, MELANETH ADAMS, daughter of George C. and Elizabeth Ferguson. She leaves four small children.

Deceased emigrated to Utah, from London, England, in 1861, and died in full faith of the gospel.
Millennial Star, please copy.

At his residence at Annabella, Beaver County, U. T., on the third day of June, A. D. 1877, of consumption—after a long and severe illness—ISAIAH HUNTSMAN, son of James and Mary Johnston Huntsman. He was born near Bellville, Richmond County, Ohio, September 16th, 1826. In company with his father's family passed through all the trials, tribulations, and final expulsions of the saints in and from Missouri and Illinois. And on the call for conscription United States government, he joined the Mormon Battalion, July 18th, 1846; experienced the untold hardships of that unparalleled campaign across the continent with that party of brave men to Lower California, where he was discharged on July 10th, 1847, returning via Salt Lake Valley, to Winter Quarters in the winter of 1848, where he remained until the spring of 1857, when he crossed the plains to Utah, and has resided in different parts of this Territory up to the time of his death.

He died as he had lived, true in the faith of the New and Everlasting Covenant. He leaves a large family to mourn his loss, being the father of nine sons and seven daughters. Before his death he expressed a desire to be laid beside his father in the Fillmore grave yard, therefore his remains were brought here and deposited as requested, on the morning of the 19th inst.—C.O.C.
