LOCAL BRIEFS.

Attorney John M. Zane, who located in Chicago a couple of months ago, is here on a brief business trip connected with his profession.

Judge Judd, who recently sold out his law business in the east and came to Tennessee, is again in Salt Lake, where he will remain on legal business for a few days.

The many friends of the veteran Bishop F. Kesler of the fifteenth ward will regret to hear that he is decidedly ill and is suffering much pain and distress in the head.

Frank S. Hansen, who was employed on the News as a reporter prior to going to Europe, returned this afternoon, after an absence of nearly two years in Holland, France and Germany.

S. P. Shaw, ex-judge of the supreme court of Illinois, and his son, C. W. Shaw, passed through this city today en route to Milford, where the judge has been looking after mining interests.

The Brigham street extension of the Salt Lake railroad, which has been building westward from Third West East to E street, is now almost completed, so far as tracklaying is concerned.

Sergeant H. E. Coolidge of Battery B, Utah light artillery, who arrived in this city from Manila yesterday, will return to his home in the Manti locality with his father, who came to Salt Lake to meet him.

J. & P. Jones, merchant and postmaster of Admiralville, Fayette county, passed by his wife, arrived in the city today. Mr. Jones is here on business connected with the South Grant Mining company and expects to return to Beaver Tuesday.

David Bence, a butcher of Ogden, has filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court. His liabilities are placed at $267.50 secured, and $1,461.96 unsecured, and the assets at $400.00. This amount he is claimed to be exempt.

"Claire," the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Young, had her arm broken by being run over Tuesday afternoon. The Doctors say it is severe, not being located in the elbow, but being at a point near by. The little child's girl is doing as well as could be expected.

Joseph Owens of Strickland, James H. Bullock and I. V. Harris of Raleigh, North Carolina, together with six other recruits for the Utah light artillery, were in town today viewing the sights. They are on their way to Manila to fight for Uncle Sam.

Attorney Jas. F. Smith, who so fearlessly attempted to stop the runaway yesterday afternoon, and who was on quite a run himself, was thrown down and bips, is still confined at his home as a result of his injuries. Some of his friends were up yesterday to visit him, as several days before he will be able to resume business.

A vocal and instrumental entertainment will be given in the Nineteenth ward meeting house, Monday, May 8th, in honor of Elders Joseph R. Smith and Joseph F. Smith, jr., who will leave for their missions in the Southern states that last. An excellent program has been prepared, comprising some of the best talent in the city. Exercises will commence at 8 o'clock.

Word has just been received in Salt Lake that John W. Young will immediately go to New York from Cork, calling on his relatives, Mrs. Nicholl Buell Easton and his former business associate, James F. Wade, without any previous notice to his friends. He has very pleasant quarters. It is not known whether Mr. Young will visit his relatives in Boston or not. He expected to have called from France recently to join him in New York.

W. M. White, editor of the Beaver Blade, is in Salt Lake today attending to business and expects to return on Tuesday next. He contemplates leaving in the near future a 500 edition mining pamphlet. In speaking of Beaver county in general Mr. White said: "I am satisfied that no other section of country in Utah as highly mineralized as Beaver county, and I predict great things for it in the future."

Lehi Thomas, who was an inmate of the State industrial school and who was arrested about nine months ago charged with the theft of a watch from friends, was taken back to Ogden last night. Superintendent Allison came to town yesterday and secured the services of his uncle who went out on parole and found that in all cases except one the boy had kept his word pretty straight. Young Thomas and Joseph Johnson were arrested for stealing from their friends and Pioneer Boiler mill on North Temple street.

The program for the reception of Professor Cooper is about completed, so says the committee in charge. Mrs. A. C. Tapley, president of the Council of Women's clubs, is to be master of ceremonies. An address of welcome will be delivered by Hon. Heber M. Wells and Superintendent Cooper will respond. Many of the prominent educators who will greet the professor are Dr. A. Nadal, J. T. Kingsbury, John H. Park and William M. Stewart. Carbonate, a recitation by Miss Ethel Young and several musical selections will be rendered.

Miss Clara Hollbrook of Peoria, being the only other International patron in Utah. Mrs. McCune will go to New York next week with her daughter Miss Fay McCune, where they will meet Mrs. McCune, who returns shortly from Europe, and remain for a few days in New York. Mrs. McCune will sail for England with Mrs. Jesse Knight of Provo, both ladies going to attend the International Council of Women in London.

BLEW OUT THE GAS.

Turning off the gas too far, is just as bad as "blowing out the gas." At least H. L. Boyce of Deadwood, S. D., discludes that opinion, for with the former proposition he has had experience. Night before last Mr. Boyce, who has boarded at the St. Elmo, went to his room, turned off and put the gas out with his hand and proceeded to sleep. He did not realize his peril until yesterday morning, when he started up in a semi-conscious condition and attempted to reach the door. He was so nearly asphyxiated that he fell to the floor unconscious. At 5:30 R. E. Smith, the clerk, detected a gas odor and started on a tour of inspection. He found Mr. Boyce in a dangerous condition and it was with much difficulty that he was brought around all right. Very fortunately the window of his room was partially open.
