There are now upward of sixty thousand Germans in Paris. Ten million slate pencils are used up in the United States every year. The most promising young sculptor in Paris is George Warren, the son of American parents, but born in France. The Prussian Court spends daily five hundred dollars for charities; the Russian Court twelve hundred rubles.

Prince Charles of Prussia, having teen too intimate with the wife of his valet, paid the offended husband $40,-000 in preference to suffering an untimely death.

The English papers express them-selves much gratified at the manner in which the defeat of the Harvard crew was received in this country.

A paper lately started in Madrid bears the ominous name of the Galloting and is understood to be the organ of the public executioner. The annual reports of the National

Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows show that 44,000 persons were initiated last year. making a total membership of 260,000. The Pull Mall Gazette says: The Holy Father is said to have derived from the Peter-penny, from 1860 to the present year, the large sum of eighty million france, which gives an average of ten Whenever King Stanislaus, of Poland, was intoxicated, which happened to him very frequently, he would cry in a maudin tone, "Poland is reeling, Poland is tottering! Poland can no longer keep erect!

Dietrich Deiss, of Meriden, Const, at City Drug Store, kept by Ormsby Lieutenant in the Hanoverian regiment & Canton, where Drugs and Chemicals can be brated his golden wedding lately. He came to this country only eight years

Hon. Humphrey Marshall pronounces the penitentiary system of Kentucky a disgrace and public shame,—worse than the slave trade ever was. He says, despondently: "It is monstrous as it which men can extract wealth, it is a heavy job for any man or set of men to undertake to reform."

A domestic romance comes from New Twenty-two years ago a couple were married, had one son, lived to-gether ten years, and then, after losing The woman married again, and got a foctune; the busband didn't, and remained poor. And now that the woman has become a rich widow, she has remarried her first husband,

The Charleston (S. C.) News reports that a Northern man, who is extensively engaged in planting on the Sea Islands, having been struck with the remarkable speed attained by some of the negro boatmen in his employ, has determined to extend in their behalf, to the rowing clubs of the world, a challenge to a grand contest.

When Prince Alfred, the midship-man, happened to be in some British harbor or other, he went ashore and wood. Don't T address the Duke of Edinburg?" asked the carpenter, quaking and removing his hat. "Yes, I'm the Duke of Edinburg," said Affred, "but I don't want any nonsense about

It is stated that experiments are now in progress in some French colonies to try, on a large scale, Messrs. Rousseau and Bonneterre's plan of converting the saccharine juice of cane or best-root into a peculiar saccharate of lime, and to transport that salt, instead of raw sugar, for the purpose of refining. It is said that this compound is as hard as sand, and can be transported without the risk of damage and injury sugar is subject to, and be kept for any length of

The following concerning color will be valuable to those wishing to dress for a photograph: 1st, Dark-brown, dark-green, maroon, and plain black goods, without gloss, will take a rich color. 2nd, Silks of the same color will take considerably lighter. 3rd, Snuff-brown, dark-leather, darkdrab, scarlet, cherry, dark-orange, crimson, and slate, will take a very rich drab color. 4th, Violet, blue purple, pink, and magents, will take very light and should be avoided in dressing for photographs. 5th, The hair should never be very wet or glossy.

Mr. S. Shorey, of Galesburg, Illinois, a well-known inventor of that State, has just patented an apparatus for the perfect measurement of the human foot, even of the unpleasant protuberances which sometimes trouble these valuable appendages. The measurer enables the ast-maker to secure a perfect model of FOR THE SEASON. the foot under review, and thus gurantees the prospective boot wearer a per-fect fit, and the corn-grower protection from the penalties usually attendant on the raising of that crop on soil so un-

The preparation of liquid glue is based upon the property of the concen-trated acid of vinegar and diluted nitric trated acid of vinegar and diluted nitric acid to dissolve the gelatine without destroying its cohesive qualities. Dumoulin has given the following recipe. He pregares his "liquid and unalterable glue" by dissolving one pound of the best glue in a pint of water, and then gradually adding three and a half ounces of nitric acid of 36 deg. Baume. Effervescence takes place under generation of nitrous gas. When all the acid has been added, the liquid is allowed to has been added, the liquid is allowed to

"Threw Physic to the Bogs," says Muc-beth. Much of it might be so disposed of with advantage to mankind, but it would be hard upon the dogs. The "sweet oblivious antidote!" which Macbeth asked for in vate, is however vouchsafed to the dyspeptic and bilious in TARRANT'S EFFERVENIENT SELTZER APERIENT. It regulates, purifies and invigorates the ays-tem; is a positive specific for indigestion and constipation; promotes perspiration and redu-ces fever.
