AMONG BELIEFS FOUNDED ON FACT is the faith which the public entertain in the efficacy of GILLETTE'S SHAVE SOAP as a remedy for skin diseases and a beautifier of the complexion. It has widely superseded the greasy ointments, unguents and other obnoxious compounds used for cutaneous eruptions, and the ladies declare that it is far preferable to any cosmetic, as a means of whitening the skin and removing tan, pimples, freckles, moth patches and the like. Both the medical profession and the press have borne evidence to the salutary qualities of this standard external specific for all diseases affecting the outlet. Sold by all druggists.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE.

A quarterly conference of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion will be held, in the large Tabernacle, in this city, on Saturday and Sunday, the 6th and 7th of July, beginning at 10 a.m., on the 6th. A general attendance of the saints of this Stake is requested.

ANGUS M. CANNON,
DAVID O. CALDER,
JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
Presidents of the Stake.

Painting.—Mr. Carl Dahlgren's large painting of Ophir Cañon has been hung up in the Walker House.
It is for sale.

Nineteenth School District.— The Nineteenth District school will open next week. The services of Brother J. H. Ward, an efficient teacher, have been secured to conduct it.

The Emigrants.—President John Taylor has received a telegram to the effect that the emigrants whose names appeared in last evening's News, arrived at Cheyenne yesterday afternoon, and will probably reach this city on Wednesday night.

Diphtheria.—There are still several cases of this dreadful malady in the city. One death occurred in the 15th Ward from that cause this morning. The victim was the daughter of Brother William and Sister Ann Hart. She was the only remaining child, and was uncommonly bright, beautiful and attractive.

"International Review."—The July-August number of this periodical is unusually interesting. The contents are: Russia; The Chinese Problem; The Moral Problem; The French Exhibition; Elements of National Wealth; Science and Theology—Ancient and Modern;
The Centenary of Rousseau; Size and Organization of Armies; Industrial Reconstruction; Mr. Seward and Mr. Motley; Art in Europe; Contemporary Literature.

Excursion.—The Tenth Ward Band are rapidly selling their tickets for the excursion to Ogden, on the 4th inst. There will be two celebrations, one in Jones' Grove by this band and party, the other by the Ogden Firemen in Farr's Grove.
It will be a big day in Ogden, and passage can be had to the groves for ten cents. Fare for the round trip on the Utah Central, including admission to the dancing floor and hall at Jones' Grove, $1.50. Tickets at Z. C. M. I., Calder and Carless, Jas. Dwyer's, Sears Bros., Raybould's, etc.

New Tabernacle.—We learn from the superintendent of construction of the new tabernacle, Brother Henry Grow, that the carpenters have commenced work on the roof of that building, one of the large substantial beings being in position, and five others being ready to be put together. The commissioners have secured 100,000 shingles, and, providing the necessary help is procured, in the shape of carpenters, there is nothing to hinder the work from progressing rapidly to completion.

Dramatic.—Mr. J. A. Sawtel has engaged the Theatre for a dramatic performance on the Fourth, and has secured the services of talent which is calculated to attract the public. Mr. Sawtel is an actor of no small merit, and is equally at home in comedy as in tragedy.
The programme will be found in our advertising columns, and those who spend the national holiday in town will be able to put a pleasant dash to its enjoyment by attending the Theatre in the evening.
Prices are reduced to popular figures and this ought to insure a full house.

District Court.—The People, etc., vs. James H. Nounan, indictment for assault with deadly weapon; motion of defendant for continuance allowed until Thursday, July 11, at 9 a.m.

The People, etc., vs. J. M. Richardson, assault; defendant arraigned and pleaded not guilty, jury trial; verdict not guilty.

The People, etc., vs. J. A. Nelson et al, indictment for riot, on motion of the United States District attorney, and on good cause appearing, ordered that the indictment be and is hereby dismissed.

The People, etc., vs. Milton Thomas et al, indictment for riot; same order.

Missionary Labors.—Elder J. W.
Harris writes from Cobeco, Cobeco County, New Mexico. He states he has been laboring as a missionary in that part about four months, and that he has travelled about 300 miles, mostly on mountain trails, searching out the different Indian tribes and preaching the gospel to them.

The most interesting people he has visited are the Ammonas. Their principal village is situated twenty miles west of Cobeco, on a high mountain. There is no living water nearer to it than eighteen miles, their only source of supply being from reservoirs, in which they catch the rains as they descend.
They are very industrious, manufacture blankets and cultivate the soil, raising corn and beans. They are kind and hospitable and are all Roman Catholics. They manifested great interest in the Book of Mormon when it was read to them.

Elder Harris, escorted by the chief, visited the Catholic Church, which was built in 1902.

Grand Celebration Concert.—On Thursday, the Fourth of July, our citizens may anticipate an unusual treat. For some time past superbole and extensive preparations have been going forward to make that day one to be enjoyed and remembered by the community, and for this purpose a grand vocal and instrumental concert will be given in the large Tabernacle, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the benefit of the new tabernacle, now in course of erection. The programme is an excellent one, well adapted to the abilities of the different performers, who have been chosen from the best musical talent of the city. Among the choice selections to be rendered on the occasion are: "I Know that my Redeemer Liveth," from Handel's
"Messiah," by Mrs. L. Carless; "Tempest of the Heart," from "Il Trovatore," by Mr. B. B. Young; and an organ solo by Professor J. J.
Daynes. A full orchestra, including Professor Geo. Carless and Mr.
Mark Croxall will perform selections from "Gloria Gioffa" and the overture from "Semiramide." The choruses, chosen from the finest operatic productions of Balfe, Handel and Donizetti, as well as the remaining features of the programme, will be sustained by the ladies and gentlemen of the tabernacle choir and others who have consented to act on the occasion. Mr. Joseph J.
Daynes is the organist, and the whole entertainment is under the direction of Prof. Geo. Carless.
The concert will begin at 10.30 a.m. Admission 25 cents, children 10 cents. Reserved seats, 50 cents. All who wish to spend an agreeable day should not fail to be there.

Water Stealing.—We find it necessary once more to notice and condemn this reprehensible practice. Once speaking would be sufficient, if the culpable parties were in the least degree conscientious, or had any respect for the law, or the rights of their fellow-citizens; but there seems to be a class of persons devoid of a proper sense of honor and justice on this point. Complaints are continually coming in from parties who are being cheated of their rights by their neighbors in the matter of irrigation and water privilege. A person, whose right it is to use the water at a certain time, often finds it necessary to sit up half the night to guard his right, lest some good neighbor, equally watchful, should, on his back being turned, appropriate the water to himself. Others persist in using the water longer than their allotted time, and some as a consequence, do not get it at all. This is wrong.

There is law on this subject, and the proper officers should, as far as practicable, see it enforced. The blame does not rest entirely upon the shoulders of the watermasters, for they are often the very ones who are obliged to lose their sleep in watching for the parties who commit such acts.

Persons who appropriate water that does not belong to them merit punishment as much as those who take any other property belonging to their neighbors. The only way to mitigate if not abolish the water stealing nuisance is to enforce the law on the subject.

Welsh Fund.—In the company of "Welsh" with whom our city in a few days are about a dozen persons whose passages have been paid by the Welsh aid fund. A number of others assisted from the same source are with the company that left Liverpool last Saturday.

We have perused a letter from Elder W. N. Williams, now laboring in Wales, written at Swansea, June 28th, in which the following passage occurs:

"The famine still continues to an alarming extent; and I fail to see any prospect of times being better in the dreadful future. There are some families here, of the Saints, and they are but the ones left by a good deal, who have sold all of their household furniture, and most of their clothing to get bread to eat, and are now left with the title of the necessities of life." Many of them have barely rag-enough to cover their nakedness.

The poor-houses are full, hence they are compelled to go from door to door, begging for something to sustain life. Those who are at work at all are only employed about three days a week, receiving from one to four shillings a day."

Water.—Messrs. Calton and Thomas, who are sinking the preliminary shaft for an artesian well near the city cemetery, have at last struck a small stream of water. As yet, however, there are no indications of bed-rock. They are down between 25 and 300 feet.

Mr. Pierce, an experienced artisian well borer, from California, is in the city. He has succeeded in obtaining a number of wells for the Union Pacific and Central Pacific Railroad Companies, along their respective routes. One is at Bitter Creek, where the stream was struck at between 80 and 900 feet depth, notwithstanding that geologists had asserted that the aqueous fluid could not be found there. It now gives out a copious stream.

Mr. Pierce states he has not the slightest doubt that artesian wells can readily be procured upon the bench lands surrounding this city.
He has come here to ascertain the prospects for procuring the same in Utah. Should it be demonstrated that artesian wells can be obtained here, a wide field will be opened for operations in that line.

Home Again.—Last night Geo.
Q. Cannon, Utah's Delegate to Congress, returned home from Washington, accompanied by Mrs. Cannon and other members of the family. He was met at Ogden by a party of relatives and friends, who escorted him from that point to this city, in a special car, which went up from this city yesterday afternoon for the purpose.

Delegate Cannon returns to his constituents, by whom he is cordially welcomed, after having again, through the labors of another session of the National Legislature, faithfully served them.

Harp.—John Harp, a blind man, formerly from Arkansas, and lately from San Francisco, has come to the city in search of his brother, Leonard Harp, a bricklayer, who is supposed to be somewhere in Utah.
John Harp can be found at the Overland House.

The Arctic Regions.—The lecture on the Arctic Regions, by Captain Tuttle, at the 12th Ward Assembly Rooms, last evening, was not numerously attended, but the audience appeared much interested, with the quaint descriptions of the lecturer.

Fatal Accident.—A private dispatch states that Howard & Harper's mill, near Randolph, was blown up this morning, killing William Howard, Jr., and the engineer, and seriously injuring the father of Wm. Howard. The latter is the son of Mr. W. Y. Howard of Big Cottonwood.

Grand Gala Day.—Wednesday, July 10th, will be, to the members of the Salt Lake fire brigade and their friends, one of festivity and enjoyment. Fuller's Hill is the place of resort, and extensive preparations are being made to have the scene and the day one of unusual attraction. The Ogden fire company has accepted an invitation to participate, and the Ogden and Tenth Ward Bands will also be present to entertain the guests, and to play their music, the spirits of the pleasure-seeking company. A torchlight procession, by the joint companies of Ogden and Salt Lake, at night, as well as dancing in the afternoon and evening, will constitute the prominent features of the day's proceedings.

DIED.
In this Ward of this city, July 2nd, of diphtheria, MARY LOUISE, daughter of William and Ann Hart, aged 4 years, 11 months and 3 weeks. Funeral services at the residence of the parents, at 3 p.m., on Thursday, July 4th.

At Eden, Ogden Valley, July 1, 1902, of diphtheria, WILLIE, son of John and Mir-ron Farrelly, aged 10 years.
