SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE

Large Assembly of Superintendents and Teachers Listen to Interesting Papers.

SUGAR MEN GOING TO CUBA.

Utah Capitalists May "Pick up" Anything Good Lying Loose—Other Junction City News Notes.

Ogden, March 18.—The annual conference of the Weber stake Sunday schools was held yesterday in the Ogden Tabernacle with sessions at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 4 p. m. The attendance was unusually large, the tabernacle being inadequately large for the occasion. The meetings were presided over by Supt. T. B. Evans. The congregational singing in parts of the Sunday school songs afforded an excellent practical demonstration of the great work that is being accomplished by Prof. Ballantyne, musical director, in advancing singing in the Sabbath schools.

One of the interesting papers given was by Sylvester D. Bradford, on "How to Increase Attendance and Promote a Livelier Interest in Union Meetings," he showed that by making the union meetings instructive the interest and attendance would increase.

A creditable demonstration of what can be accomplished with the children in developing the thought contained in the songs sung in Sunday school was given by Miss Genevieve Bingham, who, with a class of 50 pupils selected from the five wards, developed the thought contained in the "Winter Song," a Christmas hymn, and after Miss Bingham had completed her demonstration Prof. Ballantyne took the class and showed how proficient they were in two part singing.

Assistant Supt. Charles J. Ross delivered a short address on Sunday school work and gave an interesting report of the schools, which have an enrollment of 7,095 including officers and teachers which is an increase of about 1,000 during the past 12 months.

"The Spirit in the Sunday School Work" was the subject of an instructive talk by W. M. McKendrick.

"The Parents' Class," was discussed by C. C. Richards, who showed clearly that if the parents are interested in the Sunday school cause, their children are sure to be, also the vast amount of good parents themselves are deriving from this class.

George D. Pyper of the general board was present and briefly expressed the pleasure he had experienced in attending the conference, and thanked the workers of the Weber stake in the name of the general board for the splendid attendance. He complimented the promptness and spirit of the officers and the singing and felt that much is being accomplished in the Weber stake for the advancement of the Sunday school cause.

Encouraging talks were given by President L. W. Shurtliff and Supt. Evans.

There were visitors at the conference from Salt Lake City, the Davis, Morgan and Boxelder stakes.

dustry, so soon after the latter's return from Cuba, is taken as an indication that Ogden capital is to be invested in that country in a sugar plantation, although the gentlemen had little information to give out concerning their business to Cuba.

All three gentlemen leave for the east today. Mr. David Eccles, when asked by "News" representative, whether he and his associates were going into the sugar business in Cuba, said they were going down merely to "look around," and if anything good was found "lying loose" they might pick it up. What they did would be governed entirely by circumstances.

FUNERAL OF JUDGE MALONEY.

Impressive Ceremonies Mark the Burial of Prominent Jurist.

Ogden, March 18.—All that was mortal of Judge Thomas Maloney, who died Friday morning was consigned to rest in the silent tomb in the Mountain View cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held in the presence of a large number of friends, which slowly told of the high esteem in which he was held in Ogden, where he has lived during the past 29 years. Among the most beautiful of the floral offerings was one from the Ogden Bar association, which bore the inscription "Honest Tom Maloney."

The Presbyterian church, where the impressive funeral services were held, was crowded with sympathizing friends who gathered to show by their presence their sympathy for the widow and only daughter, Rev. John E. Carver, preached a comforting funeral sermon on the resurrection, and eulogized the many excellent traits of character possessed by the deceased. A quartet sang several beautiful selections. The Grand Army of the Republic attended the funeral in a body, also the Bar association.

Among the members of the bar from out of the city were: Atty. Gen. M. A. Breiden, P. L. Williams, C. S. Varian, County Atty. P. P. Christensen and Mr. Willis of Salt Lake.

At 1:30 o'clock the Weber County Bar association met at the county building and after adopting the following resolutions, marched to the church in a body.

Whereas, Our brother, Thomas Maloney, long a resident and valued citizen of this community, has departed this life; and

Whereas, We recognize in him strong personal and civic virtues, and fully appreciate his valued services to his fellow citizens; and

Whereas, We do now sense the loss the officers of the courts of this state and the members of the bar have sustained, and feel keenly the shadow cast upon his bereaved wife and daughter; therefore, be it further

Resolved, That we are penetrated by the calamity, which we, in common with his family and the people of the state, have sustained in the death of Thomas Maloney, and that we will ever cherish his memory, which is endeared to us no less by his lovable nature and his many strong personal traits of character than by his profound wisdom and devotion to duty; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of the bar attend the funeral services in a body, and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be presented to the court and embodied in the record thereof, and that they be published in the papers of this state.

TIMPANOGOS PIONEER EXERCISES.

Interesting pioneer exercises were given in the Timpanogos school Friday and Saturday evenings, commemorative of the settlement of Provo, March 15, 1843. A pantomime presentation of pioneers crossing the plains, arranged by Samuel R. Brown, was one of the notable numbers of a very fine program, which was alike appreciated by the parents, who attended Friday night, and the children, who were present Saturday night.

COAL FOR NEXT WINTER.

C. H. Strato, a Spring City, Sanpete county, coal dealer, was in Provo Saturday on his way home from Salt Lake, where he interviewed the coal companies on the question of getting coal for storage the coming summer in order to be prepared for a probable shortage again next winter. The promise of coal was not very generous, only two cars a week being guaranteed. The Sanpete people, however, need not have a coal famine if they know of the impending danger in time to haul coal by team from the mines in the mountains, which they can do in the summer but not in the winter.

TRAGIC DEATH ON HIGHWAY.

Life of Walter Green of Hooper Crushed Out by Falling Horse.

Ogden, March 18.—Walter Green, a young man about 35 years of age, had his life crushed out Saturday night at Hooper, Weber county, by his horse falling upon him. Mr. Green had gone to the home of Adam Patterson, a short distance away, to purchase a cow, riding to the place on horseback. He went into the house and transacted his business, then made the family good night and started home. It is supposed he got on his horse to ride home and that in crossing a large ditch in front of Mr. Patterson's, the horse stumbled and fell, throwing him beneath and that the horse in trying to get up rolled on him so much that his life was crushed out. The sound of the horse's floundering attracted Mr. Patterson, who went out to see what the matter was. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to his friend dead on the ground. He was picked up and carried into the house, and his wife and one child were notified of the sad ending. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to his family. A coroner's inquest was held yesterday afternoon, resulting in a verdict of accidental death. The funeral services will be held Tuesday night, 8 o'clock, at the South Hooper meeting-house.

New Era Paint Saves Money

The other was prejudiced and insisted upon using "hand mixed lead and oil." The same painter did both jobs. Last week the lead and oil brother gave us an order for "New Era" Paint. His house needed painting again. The "New Era" house is in first-class condition today.
