

WORST PHASE OF FIGHTING IS OVER

Still There Are Isolated Attacks
In the Suburbs of Lodz.

THERE IS A GENERAL EXODUS.

St. Petersburg Seemingly in the Dark
As to Occurrences—Social Democrats Issue Proclamation.

Lodz, Russian Poland, June 25.—The most serious phase of the fighting between the military and strikers is at an end, and there are still isolated attacks in the suburbs.

At Baluty this morning Cossacks attacked a Jewish family of five persons, who were driving in a cab to the railway station, and shot and killed all, including the cabman.

At Pabianice, near Lodz, workmen attacked two policemen and shot and killed one and wounded the other.

There is a general exodus from Lodz. Two thousand persons have already left, and all trains are crowded.

During the disturbances 35 government liquor stores were destroyed by the mob, which appropriated all the cash and stamps found on the premises. The cash and stamps were added to the funds of the Socialist party.

The workmen in all the factories will strike tomorrow.

Some prominent citizens this morning telegraphed Gen. Skoslov, commanding the troops here, asking for protection against the brutality of the strikers and especially the Cossacks, who in one instance killed and robbed the servant of a millionaire named Rosenblatt, who was carrying $5,000 to the bank. The general promised to punish the offenders, but said he required witnesses to testify against the Cossacks.

ST. PETERSBURG WITHOUT NEWS.

St. Petersburg, June 26, 3:35 a. m.—Beyond the bare announcement that fighting was again heard at night in the Jewish quarter at Lodz and that the Jews are leaving the city in great numbers, there is almost nothing known about the situation at Lodz and the developments of Saturday and Sunday.

Even an adequate estimate of the magnitude of Friday's fierce struggle in the streets and the extent of the casualties cannot be obtained here, as practically all telegrams, except brief and unsatisfactory messages to the agencies, are held up by the internal censorship. The newspapers are without information and Gen. Trepoft's assistant told the Associated Press that the censorship of police had nothing to communicate. Ambassador Meyer is also without news, though American consuls are under orders to telegraph immediate happenings of importance in their districts.

The lack of information prevented any manifestation of feeling on the part of the workmen of St. Petersburg, many of whom are in sympathy with social revolutionary doctrines, and for the same reason there is little discussion in the clubs and cafes, most of the people not being aware that anything unusual is happening in Poland.

When the details become known it may be expected that the news will create the deepest impression in all industrial sections of Russia and bring about disorders which would be particularly unfortunate, coming just at this juncture, when the government is bending every effort to induce the people to be patient and to await the issuance of a ukase announcing the convocation of a national assembly, the proclamation regarding which cannot be long delayed.

In Poland itself the events at Lodz may initiate an era of open resistance to the troops lasting for months. Besides Lodz, Warsaw, Kalisz, Poznan and other manufacturing centers have been on the verge of anarchy for several months and disturbances similar to those at Lodz are a constant menace and whenever military conditions give the slightest encouragement.

PROCLAMATION BY SOCIALISTS.

Warsaw, June 25.—The proclamation issued yesterday by the Social Democratic party of Poland and Lithuania, calling out workmen as a protest against the Lodz massacre, declares that in order to show the solidarity of their brethren and to protest against "the new and increasing crimes of the emperor's government," all Warsaw strikers will work tomorrow.

The proclamation orders that a single factory or workshop shall not be operated, and that offices, shops, restaurants and coffee houses must close, and all traffic must cease. It says that the red flag, the flag of the workmen, must float in the streets of Warsaw and call upon all workmen to join their brothers in a general strike.

The military is patrolling the streets in the factory and Jewish districts to night. In the suburb of Praga today Cossacks shot and wounded two persons.

On Orowodowa street there was an encounter between gendarmes and a big crowd, and shots were fired on both sides. Three civilians and one gendarme were wounded. On other streets processions of workmen were dispersed.

POSITION OF JAPANESE AND RUSSIAN ARMIES UNCHANGED

St. Petersburg, June 25.—The emperor has received a dispatch from Gen. Linvitch, dated June 25.

"There is no change in the position of the armies," "After the Japanese advance on our right flank, which I have already reported, the enemy advanced against our front east of the railway, where the Cossacks, noticing the enemy's advance, had withdrawn slowly."

On June 19 our cavalry, having been reinforced, met the Japanese advance, when the enemy hastily withdrew to the southwest.

On the morning of June 20 our cavalry occupied points on the Mandarin road. Japanese infantry began at 5 o'clock on the same day a determined advance against Gushiki, opening an artillery fire on our outposts. At noon our men to the north withdrew and the advance guard of the Japanese retreated still further to the heights north of Schichusa in face of superior forces. Finally falling back as far as Liaojiao, the fight ended in the evening, the enemy remaining some four miles south of this spot. It was found later that two regiments of cavalry, with machine, mountain and field guns, had advanced along the Mandarin road.

To the west three battalions of infantry, a squadron of cavalry and three

DANGER SIGNALS.

No engineer would be mad enough to run by the flag which signaled danger. It is different with the average man or woman. They attempt constantly to run by the danger signals of Nature and that attempt costs thousands of lives every year. When the appetite becomes irregular or entirely gives out, when sleep becomes restless and broken, when there is a constant feeling of dullness and languor, Nature is holding the danger signal. The stomach and its allied organs are failing in their work and the body is losing the nutrition which its strength depends.

Such a condition calls for a prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies and enriches the blood and builds the body with sound, solid flesh.

"I have had so much benefit from your medicine as to say a few words for you for publication," writes Mrs. J. E. Downes, Crystal Lake, Conn. "I had been troubled with a complication of diseases for over two years, but kidneys and liver bothered me most. Some of my worst ailments were headache, frequent pains around heart and under right shoulder-blade. My hands and feet were cold nearly all the time and I had such chilliness between shoulders. Some days I could not get to bed at night, but I felt so tired and miserable I could not do any longer work. Took medicine from my physician, but received no benefit. Bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and after taking it I felt so much better we determined to give it a fair trial. Appetite soon improved and gradually the disorders disappeared until now I am well."

guns advanced. We resolved to advance on June 25 in order to drive the enemy back and to enable our advance guard to recover their former positions. For this purpose the troops selected began to move toward Liaojiao. Scouts were thrown out and the Japanese retired before our advance guard.

"In the evening of June 20 our advance troops occupied Manchuria and a pass to the west of that place."

"On the morning of June 21 our further advance began and the enemy, pursued by us, retired gradually to the positions near Rescopingao. A lively fire was opened by degrees, four Japanese batteries engaged. The Japanese showed a disposition to offer an obstinate resistance, and the appearance of our troops here caused them to retreat. Medical and supply trains followed them. The object of our advance being fully attained, our troops were withdrawn in the falling darkness, the positions which the enemy had occupied before our advance remaining in our hands."

"A Japanese battalion and 200 cavalry approached north of Chajushan, Korea, on June 20."

WILL FIGHT SPRECKELS.

Sugar Factors Co. of Honolulu Resolves To.

Honolulu, June 25.—The Sugar Factors company, representing all of the sugar interests here outside those of the Spreckels Sugar company, has purchased for approximately $2,000,000 the controlling interest in the Crockett, California, refinery. The company intends to begin next January refining the Hawaiian product in competition with the Spreckels company.

It is expected that there will be a lively fight. The Sugar Factors company controls 340,000 of the 400,000 tons of the annual sugar crop of Hawaii and has, it is stated, received for three years its contract with eastern refiners to dispose of the crop, with the provision of being allowed to refine up to 150,000 tons of the Pacific coast.

The Sugar Factors say they have paid yearly $1,250,000 to the Spreckels refiners because they were unable to compete, and they now propose to renege on the contract. The Sugar Factors company was organized last year for the purpose of combining interests here to oppose the Spreckels company.

CASHIER ARRESTED.

Thomas M. Casey Charged With Forgery Notes.

Clinton, Mo., June 25.—Thomas M. Casey, cashier of the defunct Salmon & Salmon bank, was arrested today on a charge of forging bank notes aggregating $10,000, preferred by W. M. Stevens, Casey had hypothesized the original notes in Kansas City, and copies were found in the bank by Bank Examiner Cook. Casey is a son of the late George M. Casey, known as the "cattle king of Missouri." The Salmon bank affairs are in a deplorable shape, and it is feared depositors will realize little.

AN INSANE MOTHER.

Mrs. W. C. Gregg of Grand Lake, Colo., Kills Her Four Children.

Denver, Colo., June 25.—A special to the News from Grand Lake, Colo., says that Mrs. W. C. Gregg shot and killed her four children and attempted to take her own life there today. The woman is in a critical condition from a wound in the side and may not live till morning. The tragedy is believed to have been committed by the woman during a fit of temporary insanity. Her husband says that recently Mrs. Gregg has shown signs of mental aberration. The husband, who was on his way to a neighbor's house, heard shots in the direction of his own home, and hastily returning found his wife lying wounded on the doorstep, and three of the children lying on the floor in pools of their own blood. The other child was sitting in a chair, dead. The children ranged in age from 6 months to 5 years.

THE RACE PROBLEM.

Prominent Colored Man Advocates Miscegenation as Solution.

Boston, June 25.—Amalgamation of the white and colored races through intermarriage as a solution of the race problem was advanced today by Charles W. Chestnut, a well known negro author of Cleveland. In an address before the Boston Literary and Historical association, Mr. Chestnut, who is here to attend his son's graduation from Harvard, spoke on "Race Prejudice: Its Cause and Cure." After discussing the differences between the two races, the speaker said: "The most difficult of the differences which hold us apart from our fellow citizens is our difference in color. Should this difference disappear entirely by practice and the race problem would cease to exist. I not only believe this, but I believe it is the only way."

WE NEVER waged a more spirited Clearing Campaign than the one now in progress all over this store. A sale, the merit of which was manifested by the rapidity with which the merchandise sold last week. It is the most aggressive campaign of after-season selling ever participated in by the people of Utah. Our paramount aim is to effect a quick and absolute clearance of all Summer stocks, and every energy at our command is devoted to that purpose. The reduction we have made from our former selling prices are destined to establish new standards of value giving, and effect entire stocks. If Bargains ever brought crowds, there'll be the biggest kind of crowding every day of this week's sale.

British Army Scandal.

Preoria, Transvaal, June 25.—John H. Snodgrass, the American, consul here, has called to Ambassador Reid at London in behalf of H. J. Meyer, whose name is mixed up in the army stores scandal, as one of the contractors. Mr. Meyer requests Mr. Reid to use his influence to discontinue the aspirations in the house of commons and in the press, pending inquiry. He holds out that War Secy. Arnold-Forster's instructions to withhold further contracts are tantamount to condemnation without evidence, and says that they are inflicting serious moral and material damage.

GERMAN EMBASSY.

Purchases Site and Will Build Residence in Washington.

Washington, June 25.—The German government has purchased a splendid site for its embassy here opposite the property of the new French embassy, overlooking Sheridan circle on 8 street. In the northeast corner of the property, which is surrounded by magnificent trees and rises to a considerable height above the street, measures about 300 by 185 feet. The negotiations for the purchase of the property have been in progress some time and have just been successfully concluded.

On this site will be erected a splendid stone structure of the style of Frederick the Great, reproducing perhaps in general outline the famous Sans-Creut castle, or the new castle at Potsdam. The plans have not yet been completed, nor has the Berlin government decided the exact amount it will expend on its new home. Emperor William has taken a keen interest in the subject and will personally approve the plans for the building.

CHIEF ENGINEER WALLACE

Believed to Be Dissatisfied With Matters on Panama Canal.

New York, June 25.—Secy. Taft had a conference at the Manhattan hotel today with John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal. T. F. Shonts, chairman of the canal commission and William Nelson Cromwell, counsel for the commission, but refused to make any statement as to what matters had been discussed. Immediately after the conference Secy. Taft left for New Haven.

There will be other conferences before Mr. Taft starts for the Philippines. Today's conference was brought about, it is believed, by the recent return of Mr. Wallace from the isthmus, but it is not known whether his visit portends his resignation unconditionally or conditionally, if certain plans decided upon already are not changed. It is believed he is dissatisfied, whether about dredging contracts already let or generally he will not say.

Friends of Mr. Wallace are of the opinion that he has not yet resigned and that if certain suggestions he may make after a close inspection of the ground are adopted he may remain in office. In any event it was said he would not sever his connection with the work for some time.

LINCOLN RELICS.

Many to Be Seen in Illinois Building at Portland.

Portland, Or., June 25.—The installation of the historical display in the Illinois building is complete today and the building is now one of the most interesting points of the Lewis & Clark exposition. There is a large collection of souvenirs showing the home and active life of Abraham Lincoln, including one of the handbills offering $100,000 reward for the capture of his assassin dead or alive. There is also a large exhibit associated with the early history of Illinois.

Aug. 17 has been designated as Illinois day at the fair and in a telegram to the exposition headquarters Governor Charles R. Deneen of Illinois states that he will personally head a big excursion from Illinois to properly observe the occasion. He states he will be accompanied by Mrs. Deneen, his entire staff, the judges of the Illinois supreme court and other state officials.

Big Fire in Nashville.

The flames were located in the Palace, a big department store on the southwest corner of Fifth avenue and Union street. The fire spread rapidly and when it was placed under control, the following damage had been done: The Palace, occupied by Morris

Others who sustained losses are Wright Brothers, decorators; Cash Grocery store; R. W. Turner, Cumberland Hacking Powder company; Alfred steam dye works.
