General Harrison's Visitors.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 22.—After addressing the commercial travelers on Saturday, General Harrison announced that he would deliver no more speeches during the campaign. The same evening a telegram was received from Springfield, Ohio, stating that a Plug Hat Brigade desired to be received today. They were informed that General Harrison would probably not address them, and they replied they would come anyhow, and 2000 arrived this afternoon. Shortly after 4 o'clock they were received at Tomlinson's Hall by General Harrison. Each of the 2000 visitors wore a white plug hat, and as General Harrison entered the hall every man jumped up, stood on his chair and frantically waved his plug hat in one hand and a flag in the other. About 4000 people were present. The demonstration lasted several minutes. General A. S. Bushnell, of Springfield, spoke briefly for the Buckeyes. Gen. Harrison responded briefly.

At the conclusion of General Harrison's speech General Bushnell presented him with a highly polished horseshoe, manufactured from American steel by S. B. Thomas, formerly an Englishman. Repeated calls for Thomas brought that gentleman out, and there was another prolonged demonstration as General Harrison cordially clasped his hand and said: "I accept with pleasure that product of the skill and industry of one who out of his own experience can speak of the benefits offered, better wages, and better hopes [cheers], who in his life here has been able to contrast the condition of the working people in England and America." [Cheers.] The visitors then shook hands with General Harrison. They returned home tonight.

A Murderous Husband.

WINCHESTER, Ind., Oct. 22.—Sunday evening Victor Hill went to the house of his father-in-law, Zimmer Moffat, where his wife, who is not living with him, was staying. He asked to see his baby. When she refused he drew his pistol and shot at Zimmer Moffatt and Carl Harper. Then he shot his wife through the head killing her instantly. Mrs. Warren Harper took a musket and fired at him without effect. A hundred armed men are pursuing him.

Investigating the Mud Run Disaster.

MAUCH CHUNK, Penn., Oct. 22.—The coroner's jury which has been investigating the recent disaster at Mud Run on the Lehigh Valley road returned a verdict today, finding the engineers of both locomotives of the seventh section guilty of gross negligence in failing to see the danger signal in time, and for not approaching the station with their trains under control, as required by the rules. The engineer of the second engine could have stopped his train had he applied the air brakes, and he is censured for not having done so. A lookout man was on each engine in addition to the engineer and fireman, having been placed there especially to watch for signals. These men are found guilty of gross negligence. The lookout on the first engine claims he did not see the red light; the other man testified he saw it when about 1500 feet from the station, and yet he reported all right to the engineer, and claims he did not think the red light meant anything, as nobody used it. These men are guilty of gross negligence, as is also the rear brakeman of the sixth section, for while he had ample time to go back at least half a mile with his red light, he went less than 400 feet. The conductors of both sections failed in their duty, one in not conforming to the rule requiring each conductor to see personally that his brakemen protect the rear of his train, and the other in not requiring his train to approach a station under control.

That Italian Horror.

ROME, Oct. 22.—A dispatch from Patenga says there were 400 passengers on the train which was crushed by the landslide. One hundred and fifty dead and wounded have been identified. Many of the victims are unknown. Scores continue to be unearthed. The work is impeded by the cold and snow. Several headless and armless corpses have been found in the neighboring river. A young priest was buried for two hours by mistake, and when extricated it was found his hair had turned white.

The Walls Fall.

YANKTON, Dak. Oct. 22.—The walls of one of the new wings of the insane hospital, now in course of construction, caved in this afternoon on account of the giving way of the arch. Christopher Simpson was instantly killed. Jacob Lee was fatally hurt. Superintendent Kean was dangerously and Michael Murphy slightly injured. Nine other arches in the structure also gave way. The interior is a mass of brick, mortar and timber falling through to the first floor. Several other arches in the building have given way during the past few weeks, fortunately without injury to anyone. The matter is now in the hands of the coroner. The men at work on the building agree that the walls were very weak. Some of them state there were two courses of brick filled between with bats and mortar. This constituted the support for the heavy iron interior finishing. The mortar they state was nearly all sand.

Two Servants Agree to Suicide.

GREENSBURG, Pa., Oct. 22.—A most peculiar case of suicide occurred here last night. Two domestics working at the residence of Mrs. Barclay and her son-in-law, Dr. J. S. Crawford, mutually agreed to commit suicide, for the reason that neither of them had fashionable clothes. Last evening they visited four different drug stores and purchased in all 45 cents worth of laudanum. It was decided to take the deadly drug this evening. Their names were Maggie Lloyd, formerly of Latrobe, and Maggie Galvin, of this place. When the latter left Miss Lloyd last evening, it was understood that the act would not be committed until this evening. To Miss Galvin's surprise, Miss Lloyd was found dead in bed this morning. She was about 20 years of age. Miss Galvin told the story of the compact, but says she will not follow her companion.

Parnell Commission.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Referring to the letters alleged to implicate Parnell and others in the crimes, Webster promised to produce before the commission all the letttrs which have been mentioned in the trial of O'Donnell's case. He then recounted the history of the league's connection with agrarian agitations, and showed how they were related to Fenianism. He recited instances where Divitt, Devoy and Welsh, Egan, Brennan and Matthew Harris had held communications with the Parnellite party, and declared they were linked to that party by common interests and aims. The attorney general quoted from speeches of the nationalist leaders from the year 1879 onwards.

When court adjourned for the day Webster was apparently only a small way advanced in the presentation of his case. The vagueness and general character of his statements left the impression that the Times has no absolute proof of the truth of its charges. Instead of producing evidence that Parnell and his associates were accomplices before or after the fact with the Phœnix Park murders, he will attempt to justify the Times' accusation by raking up outrages attributed to members of the league and trying to connect them with the Parnellites.

A Present to the Empress.

ROME, Oct. 22.—King Humbert and Queen Margherita sent as a present to the Empress of Germany, through Emperor William, a silver casket containing a diadem necklace, bracelets and pearl earrings set in Roman gold by Castellar.

President of Hayti.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—Stephen Preston, Haytian minister, has received a cable dispatch dated Port au Prince, Oct. 17th, via Cuba, that announces the election on that day by the National Assembly of General Francois Denies Segriline as President of the Republic. Cape Hayti, Gonavis and St. Marc having revolted against the legitimate government, have been closed from foreign commerce, and a naval force is before said ports to enforce the decree of the government against all vessels endeavoring to evade the same.

Whittier's Letter.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—John G. Whittier, in a letter to the secretary of the Howard Association of London regarding the society's services says: "I like the practical Christianity and true following of the Master. I weary of creeds and dogmas, and more and more I love the old way of Greetlet and Wolman, but I have no controversy with the others. I am now in feeble health. My work is done. I wish it were better done, but I trust and am thankful that I cannot glory in myself. My sole trust is in the goodness of God."

Income Tax.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—Chamber of Deputies has confirmed the election of Boulanger in the Department of Somme.

The cabinet has approved the scheme of M. Peytral, Minister of Finance, to impose a taxiof 1 per cent upon incomes, and half of 1 per cent on larger returns. Incomes of less than 2000 francs are to be exempt from taxation, and incomes of from 2000 to 3000 francs are to be allowed certain mitigation. Resident foreigners are to be liable for the whole of their incomes, and temporary residents for the portion of their incomes spent or collected in France. The press generally opposes the scheme.

Mysterious Failure.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—An air of mystery continues to hover over the failure of the big lead firm of Cowith & Co. Four days have elapsed since the first suit was begun which precipitated matters. Up to tonight nothing definite is known of the firm's financial condition, nor of the whereabouts of the senior member of the firm. He was supposed to have started from New York for Chicago several days ago, and if he has arrived here the fact is not known. Young Corwith still adheres to the resolution not to talk to the press. He said the liabilities will foot up only $500,000 but it is said by parties competent to judge that the total liabilities are between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000 and that the failure is an utter collapse. Corwith senior is also connected by rumor with "Old Hutch" in the September wheat deal.

Sensation at a Funeral.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—A sensational incident happened today at the funeral services of C. S. Squires, who was assistant postmaster at Chicago for nineteen years. After having worked up from errand boy in the postal service, Mr. Squires was reduced to the chief clerkship and subsequently suspended. His friends claim that he died of a broken heart. The funeral took place with high Masonic honors in Emanuel Baptist church, one of the most prominent congregations in the city. The church was overcrowded. Dr. Lorimer pronounced the eulogy, and his eloquence had already greatly wrought upon the audience when he said:

I see in the dead before me the arraignment of civil service. I think as he lies there he deserves the failure of the system. Our ideal is still beyond our intellect, nor will justice and purity prevail in the civil service until preferment shall be given upon a scale of talents and fitness.

There was a moment of silence and the big church rang with an unrestrainable outburst of applause. The Knights Templar in regalia and plain business men excitedly showed approval, notwithstanding the sacred surroundings and the presence of the dead. Dr. Lorimer besought order, saying, "No! here, not here," but added: "Had this loved and lovable man had his just deserts he would still be actively among us or we would have been mourning for the dead postmaster of Chicago, and not for a clerk of the registry department." So intense was the agitation of the audience that it was with difficulty that the church could be cleared.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Chief Justice Fuller today delivered his first opinion in the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of the Western Union Telegraph Company, plaintiff in error, vs. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The commonwealth levied a tax on all telegrams passing over the company's lines within the state, this tax being imposed regardless of the fact that much of such business was not confined wholly to the state, but that it was to points in other states.

The Supreme Court held today, through Chief Justice Fuller, that the state was not entitled to collect a tax on messages, except on messages between points in the borders of the state, and accordingly reversed the judgment of the state court.

Surgeon-General Moore submitted to the Secretary of War his annual report for the past fiscal year. In the chapter on the health of the army, the main strength of the army for the year, including officers and both white and colored enlisted men, is stated at 23,841, of which 21,601 were white and 2,240 were colored. Total admissions to the sick report were 29,729—white, 26,600; colored, 3,129. Deaths from all causes, 218.

Acting Secretary Thompson has received a telegram from the collector of customs at San Francisco asking if Chinese laborers arriving from China in transit for either Panama or Cuba can be landed at San Francisco, and, if so how are they to be guarded. Secretary Thompson telegraphed today in reply that "Chinese laborers can not land on United States territory, whether for transit to other countries or otherwise."
