BY TELEGRAPH. AMERICAN. CHICAGO, 5.—Gen. Grant has sent word to the Times reporter that he had already once to-day declared that he had made no statement to Dr. Fowler like those telegraphed from Cincinnati, and should not again deny the truth of the interview.

THE INTER-OCEAN INTERVIEWED Gen. Grant, who says: The main portion of the Cincinnati Gazette's report of his interview with Dr. Fowler is correct. It was, however, somewhat more severe on Hancock in some particulars than the actual talk. Was not more incorrect, however, than might be expected, when it is remembered that Dr. Fowler took no notes. The corrections General Grant makes are chiefly unimportant. Thus, he says, four million was the amount of the Louisiana levee bonds, and that he did not know that Reverdy Johnson's fee was to be a quarter of a million dollars, but had heard it stated. He said the statement of Dr. Fowler concerning the result in Chicago was substantially what he said, "I believed I could break up the solid South and bring about a state of affairs where the two great parties would be national parties, also thought my visits abroad and my study of the questions of commerce and trade would enable me to materially advance the interests of this country in a commercial sense. Particularly, did I think this the case with Mexico, which country raises all the tropical products that we use in the United States and is ready to take in exchange our own products, while in the case of many other nations of whom we buy, we are unable to give anything in exchange, except sterling exchange."

DEMOCRATIC FRIENDS. A man now under arrest at Philadelphia for fraudulently securing naturalization papers confesses the swindle has been carried on by the democrats since August 23 in a very systematic manner. VIRGINIA SURE. Since the republicans of Virginia have begun to show some activity, Mahone, the leader of the republicans, has made the remark that at any time he shall be convinced that Hancock is in danger of losing the electoral vote of the State, he will withdraw his ticket in favor of the regular democratic nominee. BIG FIRE. ELKHART, Ind., 6.—The old writing paper mill in this city was burned last evening. The employees had barely time to escape before the second floor fell. Loss, $37,000; insurance, $16,000. The cause is supposed to be spontaneous combustion.

GRANT AT THE DECATUR REUNION. DECATUR, Ill., 6.—Gen. Grant's old regiment, the 21st Illinois, had its reunion here to-day and it was a most interesting affair. Grant was present. Gen. Grant arrived late in the afternoon with Gen. Logan, and was received by Governor Oglesby. In the evening, at the business meeting, Gen. Grant, after expressing his gratification at meeting the first command he had during the war, I suppose more than are living that ever met here, but scattered over our distant Territories and developing the country which, up to our late troubles, was not occupied by the white man. I have had the pleasure of making a remark in traveling all over the world that was, while so much to be deplored, are not altogether unmixed evils, there is no place there that I have been in that I have not seen our volunteers. No country in Europe, none in Asia, none in Africa, where I have been, that I have not met some of our volunteers in the late war. I have seen the change of life from their quiet homes to the battlefields would probably have never thought of going beyond the places of their homes. I have seen, but four years of separation from their homes has enlarged their ideas and some have gone forth to introduce American commerce into all distant countries, and to open new Territories in their restlessness, and in their fields, on their farms and in their stores are developing our great Territories throughout the country. Some States in the Union. How much the 21st Illinois has contributed to this line, I am not aware, but I warrant some of them are living in the new States and Territories who are unable to present in this occasion. Gentlemen I am glad to see so many of you, and I hope in the course of the evening we will be able to hear the experience of some of you. Speeches followed from Gen. Logan, Ex-Governor Oglesby, and others.

PROPERTY AS TO ATTEMPT TO INJURE even in private conversation. ATTEMPT TO MURDER. MILWAUKEE, 6.—Mrs. Frank Crocker, a well known disturber of woman's rights meetings, attempted to shoot Mrs. F. Smith, and succeeded in shooting off one of her own fingers. She was arrested, and is now in jail. TROUBLE BETWEEN WHITES AND NEGROES. DENVER, 6.—Addressing from Del Norte state the following particulars from a reliable source as to the killing of the son of an Indian chief by the son of a white man, Sept. 29th: About 7:30 in the evening two Indians came into the freighter's camp of J. H. Jackson, calling him and his drivers vile names and asking though they intended to shoot. The Indian is supposed to be killed, fired one shot, when A. S. Jackson, nephew of J. H. Jackson, fired at him. Next day the party were surrounded by Indians who demanded the man who did the shooting the night before. Agent Berry, Mr. Meacham and Captain Steley they arrived with 15 soldiers and arrested the freighters and put them under a guard of two soldiers and 25 Indians over night. Previous to the arrest J. H. Jackson requested protection from a Major whose name is unknown but the Major replied that he was not there to protect whites, but to protect the Indians. The men were left defenceless in an Indian country and denied protection by the government officers who had an ample force and knew the men had acted in self defence. Excepting Col. Beumont who affords risk of censure by his superior officers a sufficient escort to them towards Saguache. On arrival at Kline's ranch Agent Berry told Jackson to obey Capt. Kline's instructions and they would be unharmed. Kline attempted to get them to proceed towards their destination, which would have resulted in death. Young Jackson, who did the shooting, gave himself up to Messrs. Kline, Hoyt and Holmes and one Indian to be taken to Gunnison City for trial. These men took Jackson toward a guard and started towards Gunnison City and proceeded two miles when they reported that the Indians overpowered them and took the prisoner, but it is asserted by a man who overheard their conversation that Kline, Hoyt and Holmes intended to take Jackson up to the Indians when they left Kline's ranch. The freighters begged the military officers for aid to protect themselves, but were refused. Steps are now being taken north of here to avenge Jackson's death, as soon as it is definitely ascertained.
