DESERTED WOMAN SWALLOWS POISON

Mrs. Bertha Wall, in Fit of Melancholia, Attempts Suicide And Life Despaired Of.

SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL

Breaks Law—Wedding Permits—News Briefs.

Ogden, Nov. 4.—A desperate effort to end her life was made by Mrs. Bertha Wall, a young woman of this city, Monday afternoon, at the residence of the Burks, 625 Twenty-second street. The woman has been despondent for some time. In one of her spells of melancholia she swallowed half a dozen antiseptic tablets, realizing the gravity of her situation she called Mr. Burks over the phone and informed him of her action. Dr. G. W. Green was summoned and administered emetics. For a while the woman rallied and her life hoped for. A turn for the worse was taken, however, last evening, and but little hope is now entertained for her recovery. Mrs. Wall is 41 years of age and was married some time ago to John Wall, who afterwards, it is stated, deserted her, leaving an infant child which is being cared for by its grandparents.

WILLIE BUCHANAN RELEASED.

Irregularities in the proceedings of the trial of defendant is responsible for the release of Willie Buchanan from the state industrial school in this city. This is the result of the application for a writ of mandate as applied for in the district court by A. M. Buchanan, the father of the boy, the latter being in charge of the boy's father there was no regular proceedings in the case which was heard before Judge Gowans of the Salt Lake juvenile court.

FUNERAL SERVICES.

Funeral services over the remains of Cornelius DeGroot were held Sunday afternoon at the Third ward meeting-house, which were attended by a large number of friends who gathered to pay their final respects to the deceased. Bishop Carl E. Peterson presided. The speakers were Carl E. Peterson, J. W. F. Volker, Leo Van den Waacker, M. B. Richards, Henry Koldeweyan and Gilbert Torgeson. The music was furnished by the Holland choir. The interment was in the city cemetery.

CITY COUNCIL SESSION.

At the session of the city council Monday only a small amount of business was transacted and the meeting adjourned after a 40 minute session.

A communication was received from the Ogden Rapid transit company signed by David Eades, president, asking the council to allow the company until May to remove the tracks on Seventeenth street as the company was going to double track the system at that time. The removing of the track as the present time would be an unnecessary expense to the improvement plans of the company. The request was granted by the council.

The sanitary inspector reported that there were 15 cases of contagion in quarantine at the present time.

The special waterworks committee recommended that the waterworks of Burial of Max and Acur Anderson. Victims of Typhoid.

Special Correspondence.

Mr. Pleasant, Nov. 2.—N. S. Nielsen, of this city who attended the sheepmen's convention in the east, reports that it was decided to erect a store house for the holding of wool in Chicago until sales could be made at good prices. The sheepmen are to furnish two-thirds of the money required and the Chicago promoters the other third. Nielsen has contracts to be signed by sheepmen relative to this matter which will be taken up here in the near future.

DOUBLE FUNERAL.

The funeral services over the remains of Max and Acur Anderson, the two both died of typhoid within 24 hours of each other, were held in the Presbyterian church this afternoon. The house was packed to its utmost capacity. President of the North Sanpete stake, C. N. Lund, and Counselor C. W. Sorenson and Revs. Mork and Hamilton, spoke consolation and comfort to the surviving relatives. Students from the Wasatch academy, of which Acur was a student acted as pallbearers. The floral display was magnificent.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HOLBROOK.

Veteran of Early Days and Utah Pioneer Laid to Rest.

Special Correspondence.

Bountiful, Davis Co., Nov. 2.—The funeral of Mrs. Caroline F. Angell Holbrook, who died Oct. 27, was held at the Bountiful tabernacle, Oct. 31, Bishop David Stoker presiding. The speakers were Elders David Call, George Hardin, W. W. Wilkey, Horace Drake, Alfred Burningham, Wm. Corbridge and Amos Cook, each eulogized the deceased for her noble traits of character.

Mrs. Holbrook was a Church veteran of early days, and was personally acquainted with the Prophet Joseph Smith, and delighted to relate incidents of his life. She passed through the trials and persecutions of the saints in early days and came to Utah in 1858. In 1859 she moved to Bountiful, where she resided till the time of her demise, with the exception of an occasional visit to some of her children in Idaho, during the last two years.

She is the mother of 12 children, six of whom survive her.

He was in a highly nervous state and acted as though demented. Sergeant Roberts told the old man that he would see to it that the ticket was extended so that he could leave the city tonight but this did not seem to satisfy the aged man. Finally Lieut. Shannon sent a telegram for Cornell and when the two got to talking, Cornell stated that he was well acquainted with Lieut. Shannon's father in Pennsylvania. Cornell is being kindly cared for and the police will see to it that he gets on the right train tonight.
