

FIGHT FANS GO TO JUNCTION CITY

Begin Right

For all forms of nervous diseases take Dr. Miles' Nervine, whether it be simple nervousness, or those nerve destroying fits and convulsions. It is a tonic for weak nerves—it will restore nervous energy, and give strength to the entire system.

In 1888 my little daughter was stricken with paralysis, she lay unconscious for seven hours—she lay dead. At times she would rally and spasms would follow. I had the physician call, but he said there was nothing he could do for her. At times it would take two persons to hold her in bed, and for seven days and nights she lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the druggist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, and after taking it she recovered in two hours. A complete recovery two hours. After about ten days she began to quiet down, and within two weeks thus was cured. I have used Dr. Miles' Nervine since, and have never experienced such fits since. We have given her about twenty-five bottles of Nervine since, and she is still in good health as ever. My wife and I were completely alone during her illness, and our little one during her illness, and we were dependent upon Nervine to sustain us, and with the very best of results.

EMANUEL HODGETT, Jayne, Ohio.
Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that it will cure you. It is fail, he will refund your money.

Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

about 300 local fight fans will board the Rio Grande special train at 7 o'clock this evening and make the trip to Ogden to witness the 30-round ginsengs argument between Rudolph Unholz, the Bear champion, and Pete Sullivan, a lightweight who is regarded as a corner in the pugilistic world. The bout is scheduled to begin at 8:30 in the Ogden opera house. There are to be two preliminaries, but the management declares the main bout will start before 9 o'clock if one of the preliminaries has to be dispensed with. This arrangement is made so that the Salt Lake contingent can be back in this city before the cars stop running for the night.

BOTH ARE CONFIDENT.

Unholz and Sullivan are said to be in splendid condition for tonight's battle, and each is confident of victory. Newgate Kelly, manager for the Bear, says his man will win with a knockout. He is a powerful puncher, and is strong and rugged. He is not as speedy or clever as Sullivan, but thinks he is fast enough to win. Sullivan says he was never in better shape, and is confident he will gain a big lead over his opponent. The contest will be the first since last summer and fight fans here and in Ogden are highly interested in this evening's bout.

MUST BE REAL THING.

It is doubtful if anything in the boxing will be done in Salt Lake for the present, when asked about it. Noting doing. Any time there is anything in that line here I want to hold the check with the money so that if there is anything shady the people with not be robbed but will get their money back." The chief has a pool of boxing "exhibitions," and wants none of them. He says if there is to be a contest it must be a real contest.

GLEASON GETS PERMIT.

Will Pull Off Fight in Frisco During December.

A San Francisco dispatch says: "Jack Gleason's worries are over—he has been granted a permit to hold a boxing contest in this city during the month of December. Jimmie, his dog, will pull on Young Ketefel and Joe Thomas, too, and all parties to the contract will assemble at Gleason's office tomorrow evening to sign a new set of articles which will embody all of the terms contained in the original agreement."

Both boxes have been going right along, and are now in full activity in getting into shape for the fight. At the higher weight—165 pounds—at 6 o'clock, and in a 20-round bout—Thomas has an excellent chance of turning the tables on the youth who managed to bring over the haymaker.

Law and Medics Fight It Out on Cummings Field—No Score.

The Law and Medics of the University of Utah fought it out on the football field yesterday afternoon and neither team was able to score. The contest was a determined one from start to finish and some good individual work was done. The afternoon's general administration was done by the university Scrubs and the high school game.

The passing of so many men has not marked a previous season in the history of the game.

There is almost no betting on the probable outcome of the big game Saturday. Only a few bets have been registered at odds of 5 to 1 on Yale. The spirit of the Harvard undergraduates in rallying to the team in its last fight arouses general admiration, but even Harvard men apparently only hope to avoid a rout.

PENNY GOSSIP.

Woodville, O., Nov. 21.—Pedestrian Weston left here at 5:25 o'clock this morning.

In last evening's pool game McKeane defeated Seymour by a score of 10 to 5, the highest run was 15.

The Pocatello football team will arrive here this evening and meet All Hallows tomorrow. The Idaho players are said to be a husky lot and among them is an Indian, a former student at Carlisle.

Cincinnati, Nov. 21.—Dan O'Leary still leads Henry Schenkel in the six-day walking match at Music hall here. At 12 o'clock tonight O'Leary led by 17 miles. The score at that hour was O'Leary 194 3; Schenkel 147 5.

Jim Corbett hopes to be one of those track boys in the "400" now. Listen to what he says about fighters and social extraction: "Why did I quit the ring? Well, I tell you, I didn't like the social ostracism connected with it. I didn't like having hospitality extended to me simply because I was a prize ox. The circling makes a man give up some of his finer sensibilities. I did not want to do that, and so I left it."

Frank Kramer, the champion bicyclist of the world, has been signed by Pat Powers, promoter of the grand all-American garden. New York fans will be matched in sprint events. The big race starts on Dec. 5 and the Saturday before Kramer will race against the speed demon. He will also ride against Edward. Kramer has defeated both foreigners and believes he can repeat the trick.

Professional baseball was given a great "boost" when the national commission at their recent meeting in Cincinnati imposed a fine of $1,000 on the New York Nationals for failing to play a game they had scheduled with the New Orleans team last spring. At the time of the fine the game was almost forgotten but was not lost sight of during the season and almost forgotten until the action of the commission brought it back to the minds of the baseball fans.

James "Luna Bone" Britt left San Francisco Saturday for Honolulu. Writes Tad.

Mike Fisher, the California baseball man has taken a bunch of the California players to the Hawaiian Islands for a tour, and the native son journeys alone for a little rest, far from the madding crowd.

Maybe James will appear in the ring down there; they have not heard of the man as yet.

May James will give lectures on the advantages of owning an accommodating ulna bone. There are 200 bones in the body of every human being, the physiology tells us, but very few since the days of Adam have discovered the bone that made Brit famous.

Tom Sharkey, Jim Jeffries and Fitzsimmons were thoroughly searched during their careers in the ring, but no such bone was found upon them.

Peace-Makers

promptly adjust all differences, stop all complications and establish healthy and helpful conditions throughout the bodily system.

Beecham's Pills settle the stomach, regulate the bowels, give needed aid to the liver, purify the blood, calm the nerves, clear the brain and bring requisite rest and sleep. They never irritate or cause any reaction; but work gently, naturally, thoroughly in all cases of indigestion, constipated bowels, torpid liver, sick headache and kindred troubles. Beecham's Pills act as peace-makers.

For Troubled Systems

In Boxes, with full directions, 10c. and 25c.

$5.50 for $5.00

We will give $5.50 in Jewelry, Watches, Silverware, Clocks, Cut Glass, etc., for a $5.00 Cashier's Check.

I. SIEGEL, Jeweler and Diamond Broker.

175 SOUTH MAIN ST.

West

Aspin

Curtis

Robinson

H.B.

Keyting

R.H.

Anderson

L.H.

Tanner

E.H.

Stewart

F.H.

Nuttall

C.

Lund

Stockman

Holman

Hill

Pixton

Cummings

Bennion

Brannan

Nuttall

"PACKEY" M'FARLAND WINS

OVER KID HERMAN.

Davenport, Ia., Nov. 21.—Packey McFarland proved his superiority over "Kid" Herman tonight by easily beating Herman in a 15-round fight without a decision. No decision was awarded because of Gov. Cummings' order to the militia to prevent a fight. But in the last few rounds a knockout seemed probable any time, and when the fight ended Herman was holding on to McFarland, who was running about the ring. Davenport's mark went out and Herman's was never seen. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the ring again unless they could do better for him. At times it would take two persons to hold him in bed, and for seven days and nights he lay there, and she died painless in her, the pain she suffered was severe. Mr. Shantz, the dramatist advised Dr. Miles' Nervine, that he would not let the boys go to the